MRS. HUGH L. ROBINSON

Recently a letter came to Mrs. Hugh L. Robinson, president of the West Newton Community Centre, from a former member of a woman's club group who had moved from Newton. It said in substance: "What I miss most in my new home is a group just like the one I joined at the Centre. I guess I depended on it more than I realized for companionship. Isn't it sad that I took it so much for granted when we lived in Newton? And it wasn't until I moved that I realized how much the West Newton Community Centre had meant to me."

Mrs. Robinson, the dynamic, forthright president, can relate many such heart-warming stories about this Red Feather Agency. In fact, the West Newton Community Centre is one of the major interests in her busy life. Her tiny erect figure, her large dark eyes and her vivacity add up to make a person of compelling competence. One would never suspect, at first, that her life had been packed with drama which has never dawned here.

Born in Bergen, Norway, Mrs. Robinson came early to Boston. Graduation from the nursing school of the Massachusetts General Hospital was followed by overseas work with the MGH Base Hospital during the first World War. Two years after her marriage to Dr. Robinson she accompanied him to China for the American Board Mission of the Congregational Church. Their four children were born in Peking. Early in 1941 she brought them back to Newton. Meanwhile Dr. Robinson was interned by the Japanese in the infamous Santo Tomas prison in Manila. His release was effected after two years so he returned on the last exchange trip of the Gripsholm.

Today the Robinson family make their home at 80 Berkeley street in a large rambling house. Dr. Robinson is on the staff of Newton-Wellesley Hospital. Sigrid, the oldest child, was graduated from Wellesley College this year. Charles is a sophomore at Colby College. Gudrun is a freshman at Radcliffe. John is in the eighth grade at Warrent Junior High.

And Mrs. Robinson? Out side of her family and her church work, Mrs. Robinson's chief interest lies in work for West Newton Community Centre. The "Centre" she says proudly, "has operated without interruption for 40 years! It's had a great influence on the lives of adults and children in and around West Newton. We hope some day soon to have a large permanent building but for the present we operate mainly in basement rooms at the Davis School on Waltham street and in a city-owned portable building behind the school. Mrs. William H. Cady, our executive director, is widely known through 20 years of selfless work. She's assisted by several part time workers in craft and group instruction."

"And what does your program offer?"
"Ours is an after school program that lasts from October to the middle of June, plus a summer day camp. Should you drop in you might see children participating in cooking, sewing, knitting, woodworking, drawing, games, dramatics, or listening to stories. Young people over 13 would be in another part of the building engrossed in sports, dancing, knitting or crafts."

"And for adults?"

"We offer women of all races and creeds the chance to get together in clubs during the evening when their husbands are home to look after the children. They can knit, take instructions in basketry, cane seating, leather work, rug hooking or hear educational talks over a sociable cup of tea."

"The program sounds versatile! And what about your summer camps?"

"That begins as soon as school closes," Mrs. Robinson continued. "Another Red Feather Agency, the Rebecca Pomroy House, joins us in this. Each morning for 7 weeks the beach wagon loads excited youngsters with their lunches and bathing suits for a busy day at Lake Walden, since at the moment we have no permanent camp site. Mrs. Cady tells of one small girl whose story is typical. Would you care to hear it?"

"Of course! I said. Her eyes sparkled with enthusiasm as she talked. "This child had a terrific inferiority complex though her mother had tried to give her every advantage. She came to our camp for the first time, inhibited and shy. But before the end of one summer she became a happy extrovert by entering in to games and songs. She was at last an integrated personality, happily adjusted to group life. Seeing even one such case is a great joy to us at the West Newton Community Centre."

"I'm sure it is! But is your program expensive?"

"You'd be surprised how inexpensive we make it. Each of our 523 members pays very small dues. We keep them small — otherwise many could not belong. But the rest of our funds come entirely from the Newton Community Chest which, as you know, is now conducting a combined campaign with the Greater Boston Community Fund."

Loath to talk about herself but voluble about the Centre, Mrs. Robinson left me with this inspiring thought: "Please don't write much about me I'd far rather have you urge Newton people to aid our Red Feather Services through the current

Community Fund Subscriptions Now Total $212,000 — 67.3% of Goal

With two thirds of its goal in the Greater Boston Community Fund Campaign raised, Newton reported on Wednesday of this week total subscriptions of $211,969. The actual percentage is 67.3% of the $315,000 which is Newton's share of the total Campaign goal. With only a week more to go the 2300 workers of all the Newton divisions have started on the final lap of the Campaign.

"We are extremely encouraged by the progress of the Campaign to date," said Campaign Chairman Bates. "Excellent reports, nearly completed, are coming from the Advance Gifts, Manufacturing, Mercantile and Municipal Divisions, and the Residential Division is now rolling in high gear. This division reported 52% of its goal on Monday night, Nov. 3, and with further report nights on Thursday, November 6 and Wednesday, November 12, it expects to more than raise the increase of 8% set for the division as the objective this year to provide for the 1948 needs of the Red Feather Services."

"One of the most encouraging signs are the many new givers who are contributing to the Chest for the first time. This to me is an indication that a splendid job is being done in pointing out to Newton people the extreme importance of supporting Chest agencies and providing the increased costs for their needs."

"To those who have not yet Bates, "I would like to point out that the ob is not yet completed, and that we definitely need continued generous giving to meet our objective. Newton has always been most liberal in providing for its own Red Feather Services and for the more than 300 in Greater Boston. Great Credit Due 1400 Parent Committees Handling Parties

Another Halloween Celebration, Newton's seventh in succession, has become history. It was successful even beyond rosiest expectations. The children had a wonderful time and the parents, themselves, seemed to be enjoying so thoroughly the results of their efforts that it would be a toss-up whether the youngsters or the mothers and dads were getting the bigger kick out of the festivities.

According to Mrs. Ragna Hovgaard, Supervisor of Recreation and Chairman of the Program Committee, well over 10,000 school children from kindergarten age through Senior High participated in the 240 separate parties held in 40 key locations. Though Mrs. Hovgaard gave days and nights to the ironing out of innumerable intricate details, she modestly disclaims credit for the tremendous success of the gatherings. "The committees deserve all the tributes," she said. "They were wonderful. They worked tirelessly and spared no effort to make the parties

Hospital Will Cooperate in Food Conserving Program

Dr. Stewart Hamilton, Director of Newton-Wellesley Hospital, Newton Lower Falls, Massachusetts, recently pledged the hospital's full cooperation with President Truman's Food Conservation Campaign. In accordance with this only patients, whose condition so warrants that special diet be prescribed by their attending physician, are served meat on Tuesday and poultry and eggs on Thursday.

All other personnel of the hospital receive equally attractive and nutritionally beneficial meals on these days by the staff of the Dietary Department, minus the prescribed constituents. Since there are approximately 1300 meals served daily in the hospital, it is hoped that the hospital in this small way will materially aid in the success of the Conservation Program.

Mayor Praises Recreation Dept. on Hallowe'en Parties

High School Seniors To Present Comedy

The senior class of Newton High School has announced that this year's class play will be "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court," a comedy in three acts by John G. Fuller, based on the book of the same name by Mark Twain. The play will be presented on Friday, Nov. 21, at 2:55 p.m. under the direction of Miss Helen Sweeney.

On the first choice count Mr. Lockwood received 11,002 votes, Roy S. Edwards received 8,292 and Hugh S. Boyd received 4,296. A count of the second choice votes cut down Lockwood's plurality to 1881. The combined totals of first and second votes gave Lockwood 12,754 votes, Roy S. Edwards 10,873 and Hugh S. Boyd 6,178.

In the Aldermanic contests the vote in Wards 2 and 3 was very close. In Ward 2 Arthur S. Scipione, attorney and former title clerk of the Newton Engineering department won over his two opponents. The final tabulation after the second choice votes were counted gave Scipione 1598 votes, Norman H. S. Vincent 1534, and William H. Seeley, 1046 votes.

In the Ward 3 Aldermanic contest Joseph B. Davis won over his opponent, Eugene A. Cronin, a former alderman, by 47 votes. Davis receiving 1660 votes and Cronin 1613.

Volunteers Needed For Hospital Coffee Shop

The Newton-Wellesley Hospital Aid Coffee Shop needs YOUR help . . . NOW! The volunteer service bureau of the Newton Community Council—A RED FEATHER SERVICE—asks you to respond to this volunteer need if you have a few hours of spare time each week which you are willing to devote to helping others.

Nothing is so necessary to a community as an efficiently run hospital. The Newton-Wellesley Hospital serves every member of the community. An integral part of the hospital is The Coffee Shop, adding much to the comfort and convenience of the staff and visitors alike. This coffee shop needs your help to function smoothly. Cashiers, waitresses, and fountain help are needed at once. Any woman 18 or over who can give four hours a week and who wants to do a community service should volunteer. The hours are from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.; 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.; 5 p.m. to 9 p.m., Monday through Friday; and on Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Politics With Color

by P. W. C.

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note.)

Newton and Lockwood Win

That is not a normal caption, I will admit; however, it is suitable for the occasion. My very sincere and hearty congratulations to Alderman, now Mayor-elect Theodore R. Lockwood for a thoroughly deserved victory. There will be many who will say that the margin should have been infinitely larger. I agree. In a moment, I shall attempt to give at least a temporary explanation for the tightness of the race.

Why the caption? Please read last week's column, referring to the type of campaign which has been waged during the past month or so. One issue was clear. It was up to the voters of this city to place in office not merely the best qualified man for the important office of Mayor, but also the man who stood for the highest ideals of city government and who held the office in too much esteem to drag it down to the level of politics as it is played in all too many of our cities in this state. Alderman Lockwood chose to keep his campaign on a high level, win or lose. It was perfectly apparent that he could have turned the heat on his opposition, had he so desired. That, obviously, would have accomplished nothing. His only intelligent course was to conduct a positive, constructive campaign, based on a carefully planned program for good government. He stayed consistently on the beam right down to the finish. More power to him.

A side-light on the election was the very sincere letter of congratulations which Hugh S. Boyd had delivered to Alderman Lockwood's house shortly after midnight, when the final result was fairly obvious, despite the bare possibility that the counting of second choices could conceivably upset the apple-cart. Boyd's quick letter of congratulations was fine sportsmanship. Roy S. Edwards offered his congratulations, Wednesday morning, after the tabulation of the second choices had been completed, because of the close contest between him and Lockwood. (That, incidentally, was about the time some of us were getting to bed.)

Now, what were some of the reasons for the closeness of the Mayoral contest? First, we had a unique situation facing us. Three new names were on the ballot. Also, the present Mayor, Paul M. Goddard, had remained completely detached from the entire campaign. He did not publicly endorse any of the three candidates. That was extremely unusual, though entirely understandable to the politicians. Why understandable? Because of the Street Department situation, which had been an issue in the last campaign and which was unpleasantly revived in the current campaign. At long last, the District Attorney was able to wind up the most important aspect of the case.

Of the three candidates, Edwards was a brand new name on the ballot. Surprisingly enough, that fact did not prevent him from securing a very large vote, if you consider first and second choices. It was the second choices, by the way, which cut down Alderman Lockwood's lead by over 800 votes.

Boyd had appeared on the ballot in the Mayoral contest in 1945. However, he had never served in our city government. Lockwood had served on our Board for ten years, but had never run for Mayor.

Finally, the so-called machine in Newton was obviously badly in need of repair. There were a few missing parts, several spark-plugs had not been replaced and a general oiling and overhauling were called for. However, like my terribly old Ford car, it was necessary to get along as well as circumstances permitted, hoping all the time that the factory would turn out some new cars eventually.

The above is a slight concession to those politicians who have based most of their campaign on the slogan, "Lick the old machine." More seriously, may I suggest that the group which got behind our Mayor-elect was a highly diversified group, composed of elements which one seldom sees functioning as a unit. On election night there were people surrounding him whom I never suspected were on his band-wagon. On the other hand, there were quite a few conspicuous absentees. Why? It is quite simple. Some of the old guard believed that Lockwood was too progressive; some had stated frankly that they wanted a different candidate. They even named one or two citizens whom they hoped to see run. One was a young conservative; another was a middle-aged public servant who is very, very independent. In other words, there was a definite luke-warm support of the Alderman plus a hostile vote due to the fact that Lockwood was the only representative of the current administration on the ballot. Therefore, if anybody wanted to take a whack at City Hall, all he had to do was throw his or her strength against Alderman Lockwood. That, of course, cut down the winner's vote by several thousand votes. Was that fair? I leave the answer to my readers.

What of the so-called slate? Curiously enough, this "slate" did not differ from my pre-election prediction in last week's column. Those who know me are aware of the fact that I do my own political thinking and selecting consequently, the sameness of the two lists of names was "purely co-incidental," as they say on the radio.

Realizing that there may be a recount or two, it seems now that there was but one upset. That was in Ward 2, where the persistent Arthur S. Scipione defeated Norman H. S. Vincent and William H. Seelye for Ward Alderman. My selection had been Vincent, who ran a scant 64 votes behind Scipione. Vincent was not at all well-known and did very little, if any, publicity work. I knew in advance that any error on my part would be either in that contest or in the hot fight for Ward Alderman in Ward 3. Only 47 votes appear to make the difference between victory and defeat for former Alderman Cronin.

Further detailed comment on the Mayoral race and the various Aldermanic and School Committee contests are reserved for next week's column. One exception. The only lady in the campaign went down to defeat in a hard battle which had her opponent on edge until well into the night. After all, 260 votes is not a heavy margin. Furthermore, the third entry in this race, Benjamin Grow, received 693 votes. Ten Brock was therefore a minority winner over Mrs. Lessee. For that matter, so was Mayor-elect Lockwood.

campaign. Please tell people that we need the West Newton Community Centre because it offers to our neighbors of lower incomes the kind of help they want for their own children. Sarah Hull Chapter D. R.

On Wednesday, November 5th, 1947, Sarah Hull Chapter, Daughters of the Revolution, held the first meeting of the winter at the home of Mrs. Robert J. Estabrook, 37 Beechcroft road, Newton, at 2:30 p.m.

Owing to the unavoidable absence of the Regent, Mrs. Edward A. Cahill, the Recording Secretary, Mrs. Walter C. Whitney presided, and called the meeting to order.

After the Salute to the Flag, a short business meeting was held. Mrs. Richard L. File, Jr. of the State Society of the Daughters of the Revolution, and our District Vice Regent, brought to us the greetings of the State Society, and told the plans of that Society for the winter. Mrs. E. Graham Bates, Publicity Representative of the Newton Chapter of the Red Cross, then spoke of the aims and activities of that Society for the winter.

The speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Leslie O. Anderson, was then introduced. Her topic was "The Thoreau Country" and she gave a very delightful talk, illustrating it with colored slides. The members and their guests enjoyed her lecture very much, and showed their appreciation by a social hour followed. Refreshments were served, with Mrs. Elmer E. Gibbs and Mrs. Charles E. Morrow at the tea table, and the first meeting of the winter came to a close.

Foreign Missions Board Adopts $1 1/2 Million Budget

The American Board of Foreign Missions, Boston, Mass., the overseas service arm of the Congregational Christian Churches in the U.S.A., has just adopted for the year 1947-48 a budget of $1,477,379.97. The American Board is at work in East, South and West Central Africa, China, Ceylon, India, Japan, Mexico, the Philippine Islands, Turkey, Greece, Syria and the Marshall and Caroline Islands.

Now in its 139th year the American Board is continuing its progressive Christian service through churches, schools, hospitals, clinics, social centers, agricultural work and sending out highly trained and consecrated young men and women to strategic posts of Christian leadership.

Mrs. A. Philip Gules of 340 Chestnut Street, West Newton, and Rev. Randolph S. Merrill of 40 Foster Street, Newtonville, are members of the Prudential Committee.

Mrs. Gules is a member of the following important sub-committees: Africa, China; Candidate; Foreign Policy; Medical; and Psychometric Testing.

Mr. Merrill is a member of the following important sub-committees: Rules and Sub-committees; Psychometric Testing, Chairman; Candidate; China; and Personnel and Salaries.

Unitarian Official to Report on Germany

Recently returned from several weeks' study of Germany, Dr. Raymond B. Bragg, Executive Vice-President of the American Unitarian Association, will take as his subject, "What 'O'clock in Germany'?" when he speaks at the Community Church of Boston in Jordan Hall, Sunday, Nov. 9th, at 10:30 A.M.

Dr. Bragg is now the head of the Unitarian Service Committee which carried out extensive relief work all over Europe. He was formerly minister of the First Unitarian Church of Minneapolis and chairman of that city's Foreign Policy Association. In all he has taken eight trips to Europe including two in Russia. He has a years' study at the German Universities of Frankfurt and Hamburg prior to the war. Dr. Bragg received his Divinity degree from Meadville Theological School after attending Bates College and Brown University. He received his Ph.D. from Chicago University. He was formerly Editor of the NEW HUMANIST and a contributor to UNITY. A question period will follow the service.

Newton Smith College Club

Mrs. Horace Kidger, Program Chairman of the Newton Smith College Club, and her committee, Mrs. Edward Farmer and Mrs. Albert Walker, have announced that the club will meet at the home of Mrs. Harold B. Granshaw, 96 Berkeley road, West Newton, Wednesday, November 12th, at 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. Alice Dixon Bond will give a talk on authors and their works, entitled, "Wild Animals I Have Known". Mrs. Bond, who is the well known literary editor of the Herald-Traveler, will also answer questions of literary interest asked by members of the Club.

Tea will be served by Mrs. Robert S. Bolan, Hospitality Chairman, and her committee, Mrs. Kenneth A. Henderson, Mrs. Robert G. Fischer and Mrs. Ralph Smith.

The speakers will include Dr. Tribble, the Rev. Dr. Edwin T. Dahlberg, of Chicago, president of the Northern Baptist Convention, and Howard Cole, of Beverly, president of the trustees. The procession will include school officers, trustees and faculty and official delegates from nearly 75 institutions of learning from all parts of the country.

A forum will precede the inauguration at 2 p.m. on the theme, "The Future of Theological Education" with outstanding leaders, and a dinner will be held at 6:30 with the Rev. E. C. Herlick, former president, whom Dr. Tribble succeeded, as toastmaster. Both these events will be in Noyes Hall on the campus.

Kiwanis Club

The Newton Police Department's efficiency in the prevention of crime, apprehension of criminals, its low accident record and law enforcement in general, placed it 3rd in the state and 12th in the nation, last year. Traffic Inspector Thomas McEnaney informed the Newton Kiwanis Club, at its meeting, Wednesday, at the Y.M.C.A.

The rehabilitation of justice is the greatest concern of mankind, Inspector McEnaney declared, stressing the fact that respect for law and order, especially among children, has its beginning in the home. Traffic violators are prosecuted vigorously in Newton, also, in a never ceasing effort to preserve the lives and property of Newtonians.

Operating under Chief Veduccio, Captain Mahoney, Lieutenants King, Purcell, Crowley and Walker, he continued, seven sergeants and 111 patrolmen travel the Garden City's 18 square miles, over 272 miles of streets, day and night, so as to safeguard the entire city and that their efforts have been highly successful is attested by Newton's high ranking position in the national record.

Kiwanis Notes
Arthur C. Guild, Fred Moore and A. E. Worth received the congratulations of the Club on their recent birthdays. Archibald Bellinger and James Callahan of the Wellesley Kiwanis Club, sang a duet in honor of Edward Morse, president of the Belmont Kiwanis Club, who journeyed to Newton for the purpose of inviting all the members of Newton Kiwanis to Belmont's "Ladies Night" celebration which will be held in Payson Hall, Belmont, November 24th.

AN EXPRESSION OF APPRECIATION

May I take this means of thanking the many friends and public-spirited citizens of Newton who cooperated in so many ways to bring success to the mayoralty campaign just closed.

The voice of the people again has spoken, and I shall endeavor to serve all in progressive administration.

Rotary Club

John Cahill, Past President of the Newton Rotary Club, addressed the members of the club at their meeting at the Brae Burn on Monday.

Mr. Cahill gave a most interesting talk on "Incentive Compensation" as he had applied it to his own business, describing in detail how this incentive plan had benefited his business as well as the employees and customers.

Three new members were inducted, Alex Miller, new General Secretary of the Newton Y.M.C.A., Claude Freeman and Norman Moore.

Zonta Club

"The Newton Zonta Club held a business meeting last Monday, November 3rd, at the home of Mrs. Harman Kurelmeyer of 836 Chestnut street, Waban. A new member was introduced, Miss Lena Hovenden principal of the Lower School at Fessenden in West Newton.

As part of the service work planned for the coming year, it was voted to feed and clothe a worthy family again this Christmas. Also in the line of service it was planned to do something for the veterans at Cushing Hospital in Framingham. An appeal from International Relations Chairman from headquarters was adopted pledging each Zonta member with sending a care package to Europe.

Several affairs for winter and spring were planned; among them a rummage sale and a bridge party.

The next meeting on November 17th will be a dinner party to honor Zonta's National birthday party.

Nurse's Aides Answer Call to Cushing Hosp.

In response to the request of the Veterans Administration, nine Red Cross Chapters in this vicinity began assigning volunteer Red Cross Nurse's Aides to Cushing Hospital in Framingham on November first. The figures from the various participating Chapters line up as follows: Wellesley, 5 Aides; Walpole, 3; Melrose, 4; Natick, 3; Marlboro, 3; Framingham, 6; Cambridge, 2; Needham, 3; and Newton 16.

The Newton Red Cross Chapter is gratified that these 16 trained Aides are on duty this week. Their names are as follows: Mrs. K. P. Crafts, Miss Irene E. Aucoin, Mrs. Frank Davis, Miss Catherine L. Donahue, Mrs. Theodore Friedrichs, Miss Marie C. Kelly, Mrs. Marshall G. Knox, Mrs. William Martineau, Mrs. Carl McKinley, Mrs. Edith MacDonald, Mrs. Robert W. Moore, Jr., Mrs. A. Stephen Pierce, Mrs. Barbara S. Rice, Miss Anne Tomao, Miss Margaret M. McLean and Mrs. Nathan Quinn.

Many more Nurse's Aides are needed for this assignment, especially on Thursdays and Fridays, and all afternoons from 2-3 p.m. Any trained Aides who wish to join in on this opportunity for immediate and important service, should contact the Chapter House at LAsell 6000.

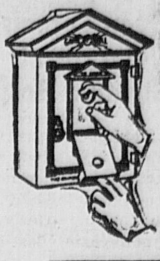

Newtonville Garden Club

The Newtonville Garden Club will meet Thursday, November 13, at 10 a.m. in Library Hall.

Mr. Roger Wheeler will show pictures of South America.

FIRE PREVENTION SERVICE

An investigation of fires in chain groceries indicated they were started near the cash register. The answer—the manager or cashier would take a quick smoke, but both hands were needed to make change or to pack the goods, and the cigarette was placed on a shelf or the edge of the counter, or thrown on the floor—and forgotten until the fire department arrived soon after closing.

The object in telling this is to emphasize that fires incident to smoking are not preventable through blaming them on carelessness. Smoking, in those who have the habit, is a process somewhat akin to breathing. You just do it, not thinking as to the why, where or when. A smoker will strike a match in a powder magazine, or an oil refinery. It is an unthinking act, and discarding the match, the dottle of the pipe or the cigarette butt is also done without mental action of any kind.

For these habit-formed acts there is no cure, except that which lies within the willpower of the individual. And what individual who enjoys a smoke wishes to exert that degree of willpower on a matter the seriousness of which is more a fantasy than a fact so far as he or they are concerned?

What then can be done to reduce this huge waste of values which goes on yearly from the fires resulting from smoking—the fire in the home, the store, the farm, factory or office buildings, and in the forest and fields?

First, it must be recognized that a large proportion of the population does and will continue to smoke. Second, that smoking is not just an after-dinner affair. It is a continuous process with some, and with practically all it involves not only the home but the place of business.

This being the case the problem is how to permit smoking and not involve undue hazards. First, the promiscuous placing of cigarettes and the thoughtless discarding of these and other forms of partially consumed tobacco must be prevented. That means ash trays and other receptacles in every room, hallway, porch and even in the kitchen, in every home, even though the residents may not smoke. They must be conveniently located, handy and self-evident as to their use, but they must not be the type which will readily cause a fire. That handy contraption of a small ash tray on a leather strap, held in position on the arm of an overstuffed case, two weights, has caused a midnight run for the fire department.

One of the greatest dangers from smoking is in connection with industrial work, warehouses, shipping and other work where, because of the character of the material used, or to obtain the full value of the worker's time, smoking is prohibited. This has produced many fires which were the result of someone taking a quick smoke, in some out-of-the-way place, with the consequent quick discarding of the "smoke" when someone approaches. To overcome this there could be a place provided where and a time when a person could have a smoke.

Smoking is a congenial habit, but when you do it remember that you are handling fire, which through carelessness on your part may cause suffering for someone else.

Exhibition of Color Reproduction at Newton Schools

An exhibition of large color reproduction of painting from the Renaissance to contemporary America will be a feature of the celebration of National Education Week in the Newton schools. Sponsored and arranged by the Art Department, under the direction of F. Eleanor Elliott, the exhibit will be shown on the afternoons of November 10, 12, 13, and 14 from 2:45 to 4:30, and on Friday evening, November 14, from 7:30 to 9:30, with high school art students serving as gallery attendants.

The public is cordially invited to attend at any time. Only high school pupils may cast ballots for their favorites. On the basis of the results of the voting, several prints are to be purchased for presentation to the high school from the proceeds of the 1945 Art Show, Rotogravure. The Art Department is actively interested in bringing spots of rhythmic line and glowing color into every class room and corridor.

The Newton Community Club

The Newton Community Club will meet in the Underwood School Auditorium on Thursday, November 13 at 2 p.m.

Alice Dixon Bond, Literary Editor of the Boston Herald, will speak on "Authors are People", which will be illustrated with beautiful colored films giving intimate glimpses of famous authors in their homes.

On Friday, November 14 at 10:15 a.m., Mrs. Frank Mansfield Taylor will give the second lecture of the Current Events Series at the First United Presbyterian Church, Park and Tremont streets, Newton. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Thompson Stone or at the door.

The Club will hold a Philanthropic Bridge, Fashion Show and Tea at the Hunnewell Club on November 19 at 1:30 p.m.

The Fashion Show is being presented through the courtesy of Renee's Shop, Newton, and club members will model.

Mrs. Ernest Marcoux is chairman and her committee includes Mrs. Nelson Scott, Mrs. F. Crockett Brown, Mrs. Arthur B. Norley, Mrs. Horace Odell, Mrs. Ralph Hudson and Mrs. Ronald Jones. Mrs. Harold E. Wilson has charge of tickets and reservations may be made by calling her at LAsell 6795.

Lucy Jackson Chapter, D.A.R.

Lucy Jackson Chapter, D.A.R., will meet at the Chapter House in Newton Lower Falls on the afternoon of Monday, November 10th with Mrs. James G. Patterson, Regent, presiding.

Reports will be given of the State Meeting held in October at Swampscott.

The program will be a talk on "Early American Music" by Mrs. A. Dwight W. Prescott and the singing of some of the old songs by Mrs. Kenneth A. Barnard.

Mrs. Winfield S. Smwth and Mrs. Frank A. Day will be chairmen of the committee of 14 ladies who will act as Hostesses at the Tea.

Oak Hill P.T.A. Holds First Meeting

The Parent Teachers Association of the Oak Hill School held their first meeting Wednesday evening, November 5, at which time the parents were invited to visit the school rooms and discuss the work and progress of their children with the teachers.

A new portable Radio-Victrola was presented to the school by the P. T. A. to be used in the class rooms for educational and cultural programs.

Dessert was served in the attractive kindergarten room where a pleasant social hour was enjoyed by the parents and members of the school staff.

W. Newton Women's Educational Club

Colored films depicting the states along the Atlantic seaboard will be presented by the Colonial Beacon Oil Company at the next meeting of the West Newton Women's Educational Club. The meeting will be held on November 14 at 2 p.m. in the Second Church parish house, West Newton.

Following the meeting Mrs. Werner Nelson and her hospital committee will serve tea.

Clothing Exchange Boon to Mothers

The Children's Clothing Exchange, a project of the Tuesday Evening Club of the Church of the Messiah, Auburndale, is now entering its third year. The Exchange is open on Wednesdays from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Mrs. Gordon L. McCabe, president of the club, states that the Exchange has proved a boon to countless mothers who have discovered this means of obtaining clothing, clean, up-to-date and attractive as well as an opportunity of realizing an income from articles submitted for sale which have been outgrown but are still wearable.

The Exchange is operated on a profit-sharing basis, the persons bringing in the merchandise receiving 80 per cent of the sale and the Exchange receiving 20 per cent.

Assisting at the Exchange on a rotating basis are Mrs. Russell A. Cook, Mrs. Robert H. Smith, Mrs. Charles A. Valley, Mrs. Henry H. Stafford, Mrs. J. Ross Weir, Mrs. Gregory Samoylenko, Club Celebrates 8th Birthday

The Eighth Birthday Celebration of the Newton Junior Women's Community Club was held Monday evening at the Pomeroy House. About forty were present including fifteen guests. The Club was founded in 1939 by Mrs. John L. MacNeil.

The honored guests were Miss Constance Darrow, Chairman of Junior Membership of State Federation of Womens Clubs who spoke about conferences she has attended in New York and New Hampshire. She also mentioned the coming dance to be given at the Hotel Statler on December thirteenth for the Charity Ball Benefit Fund for care of cardiac children. This dance is put on by the Junior Department of the State Federation of Womens Clubs.

Representing the Newtonville Junior Womens Club was Miss Phyllis Johnston its President. Mrs. Francis Bachman, President of the Newton Community Club, brought greetings from that organization.

Miss Adelaide Ball former president of the Newton Community Club and now on the redistricting committee of State Federation.

Mrs. Aids, senior advisor presented to the Club on behalf of Mrs. Donald Gibbs and Mrs. Frances Bachman and herself the gift of glass ash trays.

The speaker at the evening was Mrs. Mary Mannighan from West Medford. She spoke on the subject "Life Can Be Fun." The mother of four children ranging from ages of eighteen months to seventeen years, she spoke of humorous incidents of her own household as well as those of her friends and contacts in daily life. "Life Can Be Fun" she stated "through understanding your fellow men and picking out the humorous incidents and passing them on as interesting topics of conversation. Life Can Be Fun if you look at it with a humorous eye."

Following the speaker a five minute talk was given by Miss Helen Sundstrom from the Community Fund at the end of which a check was presented from the Club.

Refreshments consisted of a Birthday cake frosted in yellow with yellow roses. Mrs. Aids cut the cake. Coffee, coffee-cake and nuts were also served. Miss Vesta Haines was chairman of refreshments.

Mrs. Lyman H. Beggs, Mrs. William M. Rauha, Mrs. Clifford H. Beecher.

NEWTON IN THE PAST

From the Files of The Newton Graphic

55 Years Ago, Nov. 4, 1892
Newton: Mr. P. A. Murray has a patent for applying pneumatic rubber tires to carriages, putting them over ordinary tires, and he has put them on to a number of carriages and they are giving great satisfaction. It is a great invention.

Newtonville: A hot box on the engine at the power station of the Waltham Gas Light Co. caused a stoppage of the cars of the Newton & Boston Street-Railways for an hour and a half Tuesday afternoon.

Newton Upper Falls: Mr. E. J. Hickey is fitting paper mill No. 1 to run by steam entirely, which will make it possible to keep the mill in constant operation and avoid the previous necessity of closing down when the water was too low to furnish the requisite power. Preparations are being made to start the mill in a few weeks.

Newton Centre: Mr. Daniel Bond of Paul street has raspberry bushes which during the season have repeatedly sent out new sprouts bearing berries. This week he has picked a supply for the tea table, having gathered from the same bushes four times in October and once in November.

Newton Highlands: New lamps have been placed on the exterior of St. Paul's church. Arrangements have been made so that the Bible class shall hereafter occupy the choir room.

50 Years Ago, Nov. 5, 1897
Newton: The Looker-On in the Boston Record has the following to say concerning the malaria in Newton: "There seems to be a prevalence of malaria in Newton. Some of my friends tell me that it is caused by the perpetual digging up of Washington street and by the gases that arise from 'the big ditch' in which the B. & A. now runs."

Auburndale: John Foran, who was kicked by a horse last week, is recovering from his injuries and is able to be at work again.

Newtonville: "The Future of Electricity" is the subject of the next popular talk at the Washington Park Church, next Monday evening. Prof. A. E. Dolbear, Ph.D., one of the eminent scientists of the country, will speak. Eight o'clock is the hour. Admission free. Silver collection.

West Newton: Fred Ross, a laborer, while working on a sewer trench at Lower Falls, Wednesday morning, fell across a hot steam pipe, near the steam drill, and was badly burned about his head, chest and arms.

Nonantum: A quantity of clothing valued at $8 was stolen from the clothesline of Samuel McDonald on Bridge street, Friday evening of last week.

35 Years Ago, Nov. 3, 1912
Auburndale: Valentine and Spaulding are opening a new street off Wolcott street running north toward Auburndale avenue and the land which they own in that vicinity will be divided into house lots.

Progressive Colonial Line: The Colonial Line between Providence and New York is becoming more and more popular with the travelling public.

The Colonial Line steamers are equipped with a complete system of wireless telegraphy being in constant communication with stations on shore. Messages may be dispatched from steamers to all points, also transmitted to passengers on other steamers.

The motto adopted by the Colonial Navigation Company is "The Public Be Pleased" and they are maintaining a service fully up to the standard expected and demanded by their patrons.

M & B Trolley Trouble Settled—All fears of a strike by the employees of the Middlesex and Boston Street Railway Company, because of the failure of the company to concede to the demands of the union employees was effectively set aside Monday with the issuing of a statement, signed by the general manager of the company and the president of the union, stating that both parties had come to a satisfactory arrangement, with the exception of a few minor details which are certain of adjustment.

Newton Centre Woman's Club

On Monday, November 10th, a tea will be held in the Art Gallery of the Newton Centre Woman's Club, from three to five o'clock, to honor Miss Edith Scott whose paintings will be on exhibit for the two weeks following the tea. The patronesses will be, Mrs. W. Cornell Appleton, Mrs. Louis F. Billings, Mrs. Walter H. Bird, Mrs. Keith Brown, Mrs. Rhoda L. Chase, Mrs. Martin J. Connelly, Mrs. Vaughan Dabney, Mrs. Elmer W. Davis, Mrs. Louis H. Fitch, Mrs. Harvey E. Greenwood, Mrs. Gerald M. Golden, Mrs. R. Raymond Gorton, Mrs. Leo V. Hand, Mrs. Ralph G. Hudson, Mrs. George E. Heels, Mrs. Harold R. Keller, Mrs. Howard P. Kling, Mrs. Walter D. Knight, Mrs. William C. Loring, Mrs. Wallace D. Riddell, Miss Bessie L. Taylor, and Mrs. Hugh L. Walker. The pourers will be Mrs. William M. Paxton, Miss Bessie L. Taylor, Mrs. Virgil G. Casten, and Mrs. John A. McAuliffe.

The gallery will be opened every day, except Sunday, from two to four-thirty. Miss Scott has the distinction of painting the only portrait of Amelia Earhart from life.

On November 14th, the Newton Centre Woman's Club will hear Philip Cummings, who will speak on "America and the Crisis of Our Time." The coffee and social hour at 1:30 will be followed by the business meeting. The guests of the afternoon will be the Officers and Woman's Advisory Committee of the Newton Waltham Bank and Trust Company. The program will be at three o'clock.

Mrs. Arthur J. Lucier, Chairman of the American Home and Antiques Committee, announces that the next regular monthly meeting will be held at the Club House on Monday, November 17, 1947.

Luncheon will be served to the members of the committee by Mrs. Robert F. Cochrane and her committee at 12:30, followed by a business meeting at 1:15 p.m.

At 2 p.m. a most interesting demonstration on housewares and unusual gadgets will be presented by Mr. D. Sutherland, a representative of the Thompson-Winchester Company of Boston. Club members and their friends are cordially invited to attend this demonstration.

Open Forums for Veterans at Cushing Hospital

Alderman John C. Beale of Ward 7 started a series of monthly open forums and current events talks for the veterans at Cushing General Hospital, Framingham last Wednesday evening.

The open forum idea which took hold in such a big way during the Newton campaign appealed to the boys at Cushing and they asked Mr. Beale to start a Winter series for the disabled vets.

The same give and take which characterized the Newton campaign was evidenced during the question period that followed the current event talk.

Mr. Beale, who is a member of the editorial staff of the Boston Globe, gave a summary of the international situation. A Round Table discussion followed.

The spirit of the occasion was summed up by one of the wheel chair patients who wisecracked at the end of a swell evening "Now you can be wheeled back to your ward and we'll be wheeled back to ours."

Mr. Beale was accompanied to Framingham by Mrs. Beale who met all the veterans who attended the first Cushing Open Forum.

Art Exhibit Held in Auburndale

An acorn that became a majestic oak in less than a week was the exhibit of Auburndale artists that was sponsored by the held in their clubroom all day Auburndale Woman's Club and Tuesday, November 4th. Over 150 people attended the exhibit and were loud in approval of both the versatility of the artists and of the idea, which was the brainchild of Mrs. William A. Jarvis, with the help of Mrs. Harvard Weston and Mrs. Walter E. Murphy, art chairman of the Club. Incidentally, all three were contributors. Started in celebration of National Art Week November 1-7, success was so great that it is hoped to make it an annual event. Mrs. Jarvis expressed pleasure at the cooperation given by all.

In the water color field Barbara Kempf Hammett's study of the Shade Franklin house called "Fall on Islington Road" received wide praise, as did "North Shore" by Florence Herick Gardner. "Red Barn" a water color by Amy M. Jarvis, was a colorful composition and Mr. Arthur Hunt, one of the spectators, was jokingly heard to remark that he had stood in front of the painting for fifteen minutes waiting for the patch of snow to fall off the roof shown in the picture. "The Race" by Josephine White was crisp, and Franklin T. Miller, showed a gay "Man in the Tavern" by Mrs. Franklin T. Miller showed a gay spirit. Mrs. Lewis Young's "Moonlight in Vinal Haven" was expressive, as was Ernest L. Johnson's contribution.

A pencil study showing draftsman's hand was Dr. Edgar Holmes' "New England Church". He has received acclaim in an exhibition of art in Boston by the surgeon's group.

Interest was expressed in the talent of the young people notably "Still Life" by Joan Morse who is a junior in the Newton High School studying design, and Dudley Bostwick, high school senior, whose oils showed promise. The pen and ink sketches by art student, Alan Hastings, were well received.

In the medium of oil, Luesta Walsh's "Country Scene" and "Summer Afternoon", the latter a peaceful contemplative study in green, were outstanding, as was "Late October" by Clyde J. Allen. Among the many who chose this medium were Irma Herick; Ruth Kendall; Mr. and Mrs. Albert LaPlante, the latter's "Mexican Scene" very colorful; Dudley Bostwick's marine showing his love for the sea; Alice Murphy's "Cape Cod" successfully depicted the locale she grew to love this summer; and Ruth Weston caught the wildness of sea piling on rocks.

The exhibition was decorative and tastefully arranged, and all who came expressed pleasure in the surprising amount of talent this new project brought forth. The exhibitors were practically all amateurs who took to the brush without an appreciable art background, purely as a means of expression and personal enjoyment. It may well be an answer to the tension in the world today.

Newton Upper Falls Woman's Club

The Newton Upper Falls Woman's Club held their first November meeting in the Emerson School Kindergarten rooms on Monday night.

Mrs. Raymond Capobianco, president, presided at the short business meeting and welcomed the honored guests of the evening, Mrs. A. Chesley York, Vice President M.S.F.W.C., Mrs. Ernest A. Hale, Twelfth District Director, Miss Estelle G. Marsh, President of the Newton F.W.C., the Presidents of the Twelfth District and their escorts. Mrs. Gerard Kohler led the singing accompanied by Mrs. Robert D. Holt.

Mr. U. Whipple Abbott gave a very pleasing entertainment with the Therman, accompanied by his sister, Margaret F. Abbott. The music from this amazing instrument was deeply moving and unforgettable.

Refreshments were served in the Children's library with Mrs. Carl F. Cedergren and Mrs. George Arbuckle, hostesses assisted by the members of the hospitality committee. Past Presidents of the Club Mrs. Thomas L. Aiken and Mrs. Robert B. McLaughlin served as pourers.

Hallowe'en-

outstanding. I can't begin to express my gratitude for their wholehearted co-operation. There wasn't a hitch anywhere, and that means there was fine organizational work and willing individual application all along the line."

This unparalleled Newton enterprise is annually sponsored by the Recreation Department, with the active co-operation of the School Department, the Chamber of Commerce, the Mayor and other city officials, the Police, Fire and Health Departments, the Parent-Teachers Association, the American Legion and the Red Cross. The fundamental purposes of the celebration are to implant in young minds the principles of good citizenship, respect for other people's property and the fact that they can have fun without being destructive. Evidence abounds that these objectives are being achieved to a marked degree.

As C. Evan Johnson, newly-appointed Commissioner of Recreation, said: "The fact that the children had a grand time is, of course, important. But more important still, from the long-range point of view, is that the parties have created a city-wide recognition of their value in teaching children the basic essentials of good citizenship. And that is good for Newton's future. I visited many of the parties and I was impressed by the care and thought that the parent committees put into them. Particularly, I was amazed at the ingenuity shown in setting up Chambers of Horrors. Everything indicated extreme co-operative effort and that brings home to the young folks the benefits resulting from unselfishly working together for a common cause."

Howard Whitmore, Jr., General Chairman of the event, who was extremely active in the planning, also stressed the spirit of co-operation which, he said was clearly evident not only among the parents committees, but among the children as well. "The parties were a grand success," he stated, "and my chairmanship has been one of the happiest experiences of my life. Everyone worked with a will and gave time and effort generously. I want to speak, too, of Mr. Gill, owner of Norumbega Park. Loyal to Newton and its affairs, he sacrificed his own personal interests and kindly gave over the Totem Pole Ballroom to the Senior High School students for their dance. Such sincere, unselfish co-operation permeated the entire Hallowe'en organization and I am most appreciative of it."

Concrete evidence that the desire for the former uncontrolled Hallowe'en pranks is fast vanishing from Newton's juvenile minds came from Chief of Police Nicholas Veducio. "Last year, I thought conditions out on the streets pretty fine. But this year is an improvement even over that. We had only fourteen complaints; and those were only minor. Up to a few years ago, we would get a lot of complaints the morning after Hallowe'en, such as chairs and tables being taken off piazzas. This year we did not have a single complaint. These parties are a fine thing and I congratulate the hundreds of workers who are doing such a good job running them."

Chief of the Fire Department John Keating was equally enthusiastic. "This," he said, "has been the easiest Hallowe'en the Fire Department has ever known. Just four false alarms. That's all. And those were pulled by a gang that came from a neighboring city in an automobile." The Fire Department not only loaned several Chambers of Horrors sirens and salvage covers, but detailed men to visit all parties and keep a watchful eye open for possible trouble. But nothing happened. "There wasn't the slightest trouble anywhere in the city," Chief Keating went on. "I'm very happy about it all."

Roy S. Edwards, President of the Newton Chamber of Commerce, dropped in on numerous parties, as he has each year. Mr. Edwards was most enthusiastic about the parties, and stated that this great Newton celebration was as fine an example as he had ever seen of the results that can be achieved by the co-operation of hundreds of civic minded people. "I have closely followed this splendid city-wide enterprise each year since it started," said Mr. Edwards. "Every year has shown a decided improvement. This year the parties were so successful and so smooth-running that I do not see how they can ever be bettered. I am proud to live in a city which has been so farsighted and has shown such wisdom in furthering an annual event that is obviously educating the young people in the fundamentals of good citizenship."

Rupert C. Thompson, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, who speaks for the business interests of the city, said that it was the quietest Hallowe'en, outdoors, he had ever known. "There was no damage that I could see unless you count one street light bulb I saw was broken. The merchants have told me they experienced no damage, whatever. They now fully realize the value of these controlled parties and increased their donations this year by more than twenty-five per cent above the amount they gave in 1946."

Harold Gores, Assistant Superintendent of Schools, found the same conditions as did Mr. Thompson in his rounds of many parties. "The streets were deserted," he said; "Newton seemed almost like a ghost town. It was obvious that the children were finding more fun at the parties than they had ever before found in the streets. In fact, parents have commented that Hallowe'en has become a big event in the life of the average child, finding a place of importance in youngsters' minds almost approaching Christmas. More vital, though, is the educational value of our Hallowe'en celebration, with the advance instruction in the classroom. Adults, too, benefit by working on the committees and acquiring a deeper appreciation of the advantages of good fellowship. All in all, our parties are good for the entire body politic."

Theodore Lockwood, who was the originator of the Hallowe'en parties seven years ago and has been actively interested ever since, visited various Hallowe'en gatherings and expressed his feeling that the parties were yearly getting better and were more definitely serving the purpose for which they were organized—namely, a Hallowe'en of fun and pleasure for young and old and the means of promoting sound, civic ideals in growing boys and girls.

Of interest is a letter Mrs. Hovgaard received from a committee member, who formerly lived in Texas. "The Recreation Department," she wrote, "is to be highly commended on their Hallowe'en parties. As a newcomer, I think they are wonderful. I say as a newcomer, for I have lived here only since April and I have never seen anything like these Hallowe'en parties."

It would be impossible to select two or three parties and say, "These were the best." All were "best." Nor would it be possible, because of space limitations, to give full details about many, let alone all. But here are a few random highlights:

Mrs. F. H. Underhill, Building Chairman, F. A. Day Junior High, Newtonville, said that she was most impressed by the preliminary work of the youth committee of four boys and four girls, who stimulated the sale of tickets by radio skits every day over the school loud speaker system. They also staged a Mystery Man and Woman contest over the same system; and during the intermission at the party, put on a clever dramatic sketch. Dancing went on throughout the evening and many candid camera shots were snapped. Apple bobbing, fortune telling and penny pitching were among the popular features.

Games were outstanding at the Warren Junior High party. One of the more hilarious events were the boys' relay race in which each boy had to rush up to a suit case filled with women's apparel, put it on and streak back to the starting line. In putting on the things, most of the boys set a new note in how-to-wear-it.

William E. Chute, Co-Chairman of the Franklin School party said that "my phone has been ringing almost continually with folks assuring me that it was the best party in years. And Mr. Ellisworth, the Principal, said the children never behaved better."

The Chamber of Horrors at the Hamilton School made a big hit. A Headless Greeter "very slowly led each child to the Horrors opening where the youngster went down a chute and was greeted at the bottom by a blood-thirsty pirate. A ghost assisted each child with a helping hand consisting of a glove stuffed with sawdust and ice cold water. Following, came a walk through a tunnel which was filled with cold and clammy objects; a Wild Man gave an unearthly scream; and at the end of the tunnel a witches brew was served. "Other hair-raising stunts made the visit to the Chamber, a spine-shivering experience, well punctuated with screams which, however, appeared to be mostly of delight."

The Hyde School, set up a wonderful Chamber of Horrors, this year. More than 400 children, from second to sixth grades "took a chance." A fluorescent ghost directed guests to the various attractions with an illuminated cane. Brave souls making the trip were promptly confronted in the semi-darkness by a headless man, holding his head in his hands. A wild man, chewing on a bone was a sight to behold. And a trio were kept busy chopping heads off guests with a big guillotine. Witches flitted about and enough other eerie figures to keep any youngsters from closing their eyes to take a nap.

The Church of Our Lady party was probably the biggest in the city and was excellent. About 550 elementary pupils took part, and around 175 from the 7th, 8th and 9th grades. In previous years, the parties have been directed by the Sisters. But this year the parents took over and assisted Charles Scipione, Building Chairman, with the fine co-operation of Father Bransfield.

The Weeks Junior High party was another big one. A Midway featured and games of all kinds were played in the gymnasium, while a gay dancing party went on in another room to the melodies of a professional orchestra.

The big feature of the Emerson School party was the outdoor costume parade which started at the playground. Many fine The Sacred Heart Church gathering, Newton Centre, has been a great success each year—and this year it was better than ever. Building Chairman J. L. Hines did a fine piece of work in organizing his committees, which put in a lot of hard work planning the program. There was dancing all evening for the upper grades and parents joined in and tripped a lively step along with their young folks.

At the Ward School a House of fun was the most popular feature. It was exceptionally well done and showed that a tremendous amount of thought and time had been put into its planning. At this school, supper was served to the youngsters.

As usual, the Senior High dance at the Totem Pole Ballroom was a huge success, with Al Donahue providing the music. More than 1600 attended and everyone was having such a grand time that the party ran until midnight. A clever entertainment was put on by students and every act had a distinctly professional flavor.

A few of the other outstanding parties were the Bowen School, John the Evangelist Church, Waban Neighborhood Club, Newton Highlands Workshop, Hyde School Assembly Hall, Oak Hill School, Pierce School, Burr School, Williams School, Carr School, Angier School, the Horace Mann, Davis, Underwood, Claffin and the F. A. Day party in the Senior High School Gymnasium.

At every party there was the greatest enthusiasm. The children were happy because they were having a wonderful time. The parents were happy. Everybody was happy. Another of Newton's huge all-city Hallowe'en celebrations was proving to be an outstanding success—successful in achieving the worthy purposes for which this great and wise enterprise was originally launched.

Bits From Bigelow

The Harvard University School of Public Health is concentrating one of their nutrition surveys among the pupils of Newton. Last year a study was carried out in two elementary schools. This year all pupils of the Frank A. Day and Bigelow have recorded the food consumed for a period of three days. Through the year the pupils of Bigelow will receive lectures and instruction from various teachers on the essentials of a balanced diet. Next May the survey will be again given. Improvement will be recorded to show how food affects our standard health.—Ann Morrison.

The members from the home-rooms are as follows: Ninth Grade: Room 122, Charles Lynch; alternate, Kay Rogan; Room 128, Daniel Coffey; alternate, Ruth Dezotell; Room 207, Richard Butler; alternate, William Leonard; Room 217, Charles Morrissey; alternate, Georgianna Palmer.

Eighth Grade, Room 107 Alan Salt, alternate, Dexter Lewis; Room 109, Frank Avantaggio; alternate Robert Pryne; Room 116, Harrison Sawyer, alternate, Christine Tocci Room 216, Allen Wright; alternate, David Segal.

Seventh Grade, Room 118, Nancy Neagle alternate, John O'Boyle; Room 205, Lorraine Brenner alternate, Dermott Brenner; Room 213, Barbara Larsen; alternate, Jean Speare.

Members are also chosen from the different organizations of the school. Student Patrol: Justine Appleton, Alice Lee, Assembly Crew: John Ricci, Girl's Glee Club: Mary Lou Griffin, Boy's Glee Club: Barkey Boole, Girl's Leader Corps: Katherine Zipp, Boy's Leader Corps: Donald Quinlan, Library Club: Arlene Schwartz, Red Cross Club: Julia Kimball, Dramatic Club: Susan Bibbo.

Mr. Pray, Principal, is the Sponsor of the Council this year. Justine Appleton.

Conger Fawcett reports on the Red Cross Council—"Early this year a Junior Red Cross Council was formed. In the meetings so far we have discussed mainly the Red Cross Drive for enrollment. We decided that we should put two or three posters in the upstairs cabinet. We came to the decision that the representatives or the homeroom treasurers should collect the money and hand out the pins. We are going to try for two goals. One is one hundred percent for every room, and the other is to see which room can get the most money.

We discussed the holiday favors and decided that two rooms should share in making them, taking six holidays in all. The favors may be little baskets dressed up in bright colors and filled with candy or cigarettes. Our student council representative, Betty Lefevre, was elected last week.

George Larkin reports on Boys' Leader Corps "Leader Corps is an organization that originated in Bigelow. The purpose of this organization is to give assistance to the gym teacher. A squad leader's job is to help keep the boys of his squad in order. The boys elect a squad leader they think will do good work. A boy that is elected should try not only to be a leader in gym class but outside of school as well. He should not try to boss the boys; his job is to help them."

Those pupils interested in music at Bigelow have the opportunity to take part in certain activities. Of these, the orchestra and Boys' Glee Club provide for those boys who enjoy playing instruments and choral singing.

At present the orchestra is in the organization period, and the Boys' Glee Club is singing old, familiar songs as well as learning new ones. Both of these organizations are under the direction of Miss Julia E. Hubbard, and they will take part in some future assemblies—Grade VII.

Joan Reardon reports "The seventh grade girls had their voices tested. Miss Hubbard, our music instructor, said she would not assign us to special parts but would give us an opportunity to sing different parts. The girls do several exercises which are to improve their voices. So far they have sung many songs, which have been enjoyed so much."

Miss Virginia Godfrey, the physical education teacher, is in charge of Girls' Leader Corps. Six girls from every grade are chosen. The ninth grade girls are Barbara Learnard, Katherine Dolan, Sonia Frutkin, Irene Likely, Adrienne Depper, and Elizabeth Whelan. The eighth grade girls are Katherine Zipp, Christine Tocci, Thelma Berch, Alberta O'Brien, Ann Perkins and Mary Lou Griffin.

Speaks to P.T. Associations

Finding a better way of raising children is one answer to the problem of making a better world. This was the theme of the lecture given by Dr. F. Alexander Magoun at the Newton high school Monday evening, under the sponsorship of the Newton PTA Council. Dr. Magoun, who is Professor of Human Relations at MIT, pointed out that courses in Family Living, Parenthood, and Child Psychology are mandatory by law in the state of Oregon, and suggested that such courses be given everywhere from the kindergarten on up.

"We have been insulting the intelligence of babies," said Dr. Magoun. "We have been maintaining a private imperialism in the home. . . Discipline is education, not punishment. . . Good intentions of the parent are not enough. The parent must have the know-how, gained by reading and study. . . The final answer to the problem of a better world is in the highchair, not the electric chair."

This lecture, before an attentive audience of over 500, was the second in a series of three sponsored by the Newton PTA Council. The final lecture will be presented at 8 p. m., when Dr. William H. Burton, of the Harvard Graduate School of Education, will speak on "Causes of Adolescent Behavior."

Mrs. Marsden, 94, Honored by Breneman

Mrs. Peter Marsden, 94, of Newton Highlands, was one of the "oldest ladies" saluted by Tom Breneman and his "Breakfast in Hollywood" program on its Boston visit last week. Breneman presented her with a beautiful orchid.

Originating his coast to coast broadcasts from Mechanics Building, through radio station WCOP, Breneman staged his show before capacity audiences on his three day visit. All proceeds of the broadcasts went to the Greater Boston Community Fund. Other Newton residents participating in the broadcast were: Mrs. Rita A. Boudreau, 77 Wildwood avenue; Filomena Antonellis, 177 Adams street; Mrs. Rance Flanagan, 1669 Washington street; Miss Lillian Swartz, 95 Faxon street; and Mrs. Marie Benkley, 77 Atwood avenue.

Mr. Kosmo, New Pastor at Centre Unitarian Church

Mr. Orrin L. Kosmo has accepted the call to become pastor of the Unitarian Church in Newton Centre. It was announced Wednesday.

Mr. Kosmo is of Norwegian extraction and was brought up in Wisconsin. He attended St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minnesota. His theological training was at Luther Theological Seminary in St. Paul, Minnesota. After this, he took his Bachelor of Divinity degree at Union Seminary, New York City. He served as Assistant Minister at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, New York City for a year and then went to Flatbush, Brooklyn on the mission project of founding Holy Trinity Church of Flatbush. This church started in a store. They now have a church building, a Sunday School of 400 and a congregation of 600. After 17 years of service there, Mr. Kosmo resigned to accept a scholarship at Meadville Theological School of the Unitarian faith, for graduate study in the field of History of Religions. Having just completed this work, he can come directly to accept the pastorate of the Newton Centre Unitarian church and is starting his duties from the first of November. He will be joined later by his wife and three boys when suitable arrangements for a home can be made.

GRAPHIC TO CONDUCT CONTEST ON CHURCH ATTENDANCE

"A Go to Church" Contest, sponsored by The Newton Graphic to interest all church members and sporadic church goers to more actively support the church of their faith and choice, will be conducted for the next few weeks in these columns.

Anyone may enter this contest by following these simple rules:

Write a poem or a statement of not more than six verses or 150 words, on "WHY I GO TO CHURCH" or "WHAT CHURCH MEANS TO ME."

Entries will be judged on the basis of neatness, sincerity and aptness of thought. All are eligible to enter and are urged to do so. Write your entry today.

The first prize is $5.00 each week, second prize $2.00, and the third prize $1.00. All entries should be received by Wednesday to be eligible for that week's contest. Address all replies to the Church Editor, c/o The Newton Graphic, Box 205, Newton 58, Mass.

Our good old church for many years
Has stood the test of time.
It's pointed spire looks up to Heaven
It makes one feel sublime.
Here we've learned the love of God
And how to worship Him.
Here we've studied scripture true
Our minds filled to the brim.
The Village Church, a beacon light
To all who will receive
The message that she teaches
To all who will believe.

Winning entries will be printed in The Graphic.

Mr. Murray, holding a response Paper Co., is now situated in the main office at Chester, Pa.

Hospital Fund Drive To Be Resumed in Spring of 1948

A decision to defer until next spring or later the raising of a completion fund for Newton-Wellesley Hospital's 2,250,000 expansion program has been made by the hospital's board of trustees, its president, John M. Powell, announced today. More than $1,700,000 already has been subscribed to the hospital's building fund.

Mr. Powell said that during the temporary suspension of activities detailed plans and specifications will be prepared, bids obtained and preparations for actual construction made.

"With this essential work accomplished," the hospital president continued, "steam shovels will go into action and the Newton-Wellesley Hospital Building fund project will be presented to the communities in full confidence that the required amount necessary to assure completion of the enlarged hospital will be forthcoming."

installed only by heating men?

Your heating contractor knows home-heating. With all his experience and technical know-how to help him, he understands how to install your Petro Oil Burner correctly — so it will give you the many years of low-cost fine performance built into it by the maker.

When you place your heating problem in the hands of an established heating man, you put it where it will receive the same care, common sense and good judgment that were used in building up that contractor's entire business reputation.

Sold and installed by Heating contractors everywhere. Let us refer you to the one nearest you.

Magazine Names Gluyas Williams America's Number 1 Suburbanite

By JEAN M. HARDEN

Gluyas Williams of Sylvan Avenue, Newton, whose Suburban Heights cartoons are nationally famous, is the subject of a very interesting article in the November Better Homes and Gardens Magazine entitled "America's No. 1 Suburbanite". He is described as a "typical resident of a fairly typical American suburb—Newton, Massachusetts" and a "33rd degree suburbanite himself".

Mr. Williams keeps regular office hours and rides back and forth on the commuter's train. The characters in his cartoons are born of his observations of his fellow passengers in their off guard moments. His railroad station has a familiar look—and maybe some of his characters have too, to his Newton neighbors. His first cartoons, which appeared in the old Boston Jour-

Newton Highlands Church to Hold Fall Frolic Nov. 14-15

St. Paul's Church, Newton Highlands, has scheduled a Fall Frolic for Friday and Saturday, November 14 and 15, with festivities beginning at 1 P. M. on Friday and at 10 A. M. on Saturday.

On the first day there will be a Desert Bridge, running from 1:30 to 5 P. M., and at 8:30 in the evening a dance will get under way in the Workshop of the Women's Club on Columbus Street. The next day will feature a supper at 6:30 and an Auction Sale of furniture, lamps, dishes, china and many other useful articles. Clifford Rust, auctioneer, will start the sale at 8 o'clock.

On both days, there will be a sale of a wide variety of items, including aprons, dolls' clothes, knitwear, costume jewelry, plants, cosmetics, foods Christmas Gifts, Christmas cards and wrappings, sporting goods, and musical instruments. The sale runs continuously each day, from the opening until closing time. A professional pianist will be on hand throughout the two days and door prizes and table prizes will be awarded.

Special attractions have been arranged for the small folks, with "something doing every minute." Among the features are games, movies, games of all kinds pony rides and balloons. Since no party is a party without "eats" of one kind or another, there is to be set up a Nibble Nook, ready for business the moment anyone feels the need of sustenance.

This two-day annual event at St. Paul's Church has been planned by numerous committees. The General Chairman of the affair is Mrs. Mildred Higgins and her immediate committee includes Mrs. Leonard Basset, Mrs. Willard Rice, Edgar Swail and John Bowen. Medford Takes Newton, 27-12

Last Saturday, November 1, some 5,000 fans assembled at Gillis Memorial Stadium, Medford, saw a Newton High Football Squad drop its sixth game of the season, its second defeat, to a far superior Medford squad by a score of 27-12.

The first Medford tally came a few seconds after the opening kickoff when Newton fumbled the ball and it was recovered by Medford on the Newton 14 yard line. A series of line rushes by the powerful Medford backs caused the score. The conversion was successful.

Newton retaliated late in the same period when Bob MacConnell, Newton's ace end, stole the ball on the Medford 39 yard line and galloped the remaining distance for the TD. Conversion by Frank Tannek failed.

The second quarter neither team moved deep enough into the others territory to threaten. Medford gained another 13 points in the third canto. A 20 yard end run by Medford's full back Gino Paglucia gave the Mustangs 6 points and then the same Gino Paglucia scored from the 6 yard marker. The boot for the extra point by Johnnie Regan was good.

MacConnell sparked Newton mid-way in the fourth chapter when he recovered a Medford fumble on the Medford 10. Several line rushes put the ball in scoring position on the 5. A MacConnell to Bill Fitzpatrick pass into the end zone clicked for the score. Conversion failed.

Four plays after the Newton tally Medford came back again when Paglucia clipped off 53 yards to score another 6 points. Newton came back in the closing minutes of the game to come within 15 yards of paydirt. Three incomplete passes by MacConnell failed to pick up the fifteen yards as the final whistle blew.

Final score; Medford 27, Newton 12. Officials were; Referee, Edward Aaron; Umpire, Tom Fitzgerald; Linesman, Earl Clinton; Field Judge, Tom Cunney.

Lutheran Ladies' Guild

The first annual birthday party of the Ladies Guild of the Lutheran Church of the Newtons, held on Monday, October 27, was largely attended by members and friends.

The first feature on the program was a skit entitled "Silent Messengers," introduced by the Rev. Arthur H. Block, pastor of the church. The cast included Mrs. Kenneth Carter, main, who played the leading role, Mrs. Paul Reiner, Mrs. Walter Dethloff, Miss Gladys Connell, Mrs. Donald Gray, Mrs. Arthur Block, Miss Emma Menge, Mrs. Ralph Bennett, Mrs. Wm. Bloch and Miss Marie Volk. The guild was fortunate to have as a guest, Miss Marjorie Perkins, a very talented lady with a mandolin, who entertained the group with songs and wit while she modelled numerous hats designed from kitchen utensils.

Mr. Henry Markus brought along his projector and showed two movies at the close of the program.

Refreshments, including a birthday cake, were served by Mrs. Wm. Bloch, Mrs. Arthur Block and Mrs. Rolland Chase.

Hargbol, chief optician at Boston University Optical Research Laboratory, who will also comment on the film. Miss Phyllis Johnson will preside at the business meeting.

A poverty dance will be given on Nov. 21, 1947 at the clubhouse at 8 p.m. A gala evening is being planned with square dancing as well as modern dancing.

Newton Boys on Brown Freshman Football Team

The following Newton Boys are members of the Brown University Freshmen Football Team.

1. Thomas R. Ormsby, the son of Mr. and Mrs. "Bill" Ormsby of 107 Hobart Rd., Newton Center, is following in his father's footsteps at Brown University. His speed and shiftness have made him the "climax runner" of the undefeated Brown University Freshman Football Team.

2. Charles L. Bryson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Bryson of 345 Newtonville Ave., Newton Mass., is an outstanding back on the Brown University Freshmen Football Team. He starred in football and baseball at Newton High and attained All-Scholastic rating in football.

3. William S. Alteri, son of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Alteri of 219 Tremont St. Newton, Mass., is playing end on the Brown University Freshmen Football Team. He formerly played at Newton High School and at Mt. Herman. His rugged defensive play has caught the eye of the coaches.

4. Donald White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles White of 396 Colbert Rd., West Newton Mass., is playing tackle on the Brown Freshmen Football Team. This 6'2" tackle who weighs 205 is a former Newton High Athlete. He is a hard charging tackle and his fall. He is considered an excellent varsity tackle prospect.

By SARAH SHIELDS PFEIFFER

MRS. STERLING NYE LOVELAND

"I think there should be at least one more day in each week!" exclaimed Mrs. Sterling N. Loveland of 51 Claumont street, when we sat down for a chat. "Particularly, since I now find myself president of the Board of Directors of Rebecca Pomroy House, a Red Feather Agency."

However, Mrs. Loveland appears to be in serene command of a life packed with an interesting blend of family life, hobbies, and community service. Her brown hair shows no gray, though she recently became a grandmother. Her brown eyes twinkle behind her glasses. Frequent laughter has left its pleasant impression in a very few lines on her fair complexion. And her coloring, by the way, is a perfect background for the lavender and purple shades she prefers in clothes.

A graduate of Newton High, Mrs. Loveland later studied art at the Massachusetts School of Art and at Pratt Institute in Brooklyn. This led to three years of occupational therapy in army hospitals after World War I. Then in 1923 came marriage to Dr. Loveland who was a graduate of Harvard Dental School.

Nancy Dean, the Loveland's older daughter, is now Mrs. Edmund C. Dowse, of Spencer. The Dowse's baby, Deborah Nye, is the first Loveland grandchild. Clitheroe Loveland, better known as "Bubby" is a senior at Mount Holyoke. Both these daughters grew up with a great love of scouting. So Mrs. Loveland, as chairman of the camp committee for Camp Mary Day, made it a family affair by enlisting Dr. Loveland's time, funds and labor for the camp. "And I was pleased beyond words," she exclaimed, "when the cottage on some newly acquired camp property was named 'Loveland Cottage' this summer!"

"What a fitting recognition for the work you've done," I said. "But you have many other interests, I believe."

"Yes, we are members of Grace Episcopal Church in Newton. My husband and I are very active in the Hunnewell Club. Bowling appeals to both of us. I am a member of the Newton Community Club, the Social Science Club and the Hospital Aid Association of Newton-Wellesley Hospital where for many years I've had charge of workers a day a month in the Benefit Shop."

"What a full life, Mrs. Loveland!"

"Oh, that's not all!" she said with no show of surprise. I'm keenly interested in old furniture, tray painting and stenciling. And I hope to paint furniture for my daughters this winter."

"No wonder you'd like an extra day a week. Now, tell me about your latest office, please."

"As president of the Rebecca Pomroy House?" At my nod she gave the details I was eager to hear. "Primarily Pomroy House is a neighborhood club where old and young can invest time in wholesome activities. It's a Red Feather Service to the people of Newton. Corner community, though many of more than 800 participants are attracted from other villages, too. They come from two weeks old (for the Well Baby Conferences) to over eighty years of age!"

"It would be difficult to function without Miss Helen Sandstrom as executive director. She's worked there ardently since the rambling grey and white house on Hovey street became a community center in 1940. She is one of two full time paid workers."

"Do you have any other members on your staff?"

"A wonderfully large and devoted staff. In addition to Miss Sandstrom and Miss Olga Harcovitz, our full time assistant, there are ten part time workers, Mrs. Anna Davis Cogswell, Mrs. Ruth Tedesco, Mrs. Helen Berry, Mrs. Gertrude Bowles, Miss Phyllis Schipani, Mrs. Barbara Mable, Miss Loretta Burke, Miss Lavinia Mayo, Mrs. Ralph Somers and Nicholas Jamoulis. Then for volunteers we have the splendid services of Mrs. Bella Norton, Mrs. Frank Larrabee, Miss Virginia Fisher, Miss Johanna Sandman and Miss Lenore Abrams."

"A good list!"

"But that's not all, Mrs. Pfeiffer. Six high school girls help in after school hours. They are Nancy Murphy, Catherine Harper, Doris Frediani, Janice Regan, Nancy Homes and Barbara McGrath. You see, we need all these workers and more because two hundred people a day often use some service of Pomroy House."

"What else is on your program besides Well Baby Conferences?"

"Youngsters from three to five are in the nursery school, enlarged this year to meet demands. Older children find that sewing and cooking can be fun instead of just another duty at home. There are activities for boys and girls to make a happy bridge from adolescent years to adulthood. To see all this, you should drop over some Saturday. You'll find our four floors and play area bursting with tap and folk dancing, sewing, story telling and play groups."

"I'll be eager to visit! But please tell me about the work for older people."

Mrs. Loveland went on with enthusiasm. "There are fifty one members in the Mother's Club. Here they come for recreation away from their families and for an exchange of ideas while doing something worthwhile. But a brand new project is a club for men and women over sixty. There are many such lonely people. Here they may play, work or merely relax in ways suited to their years."

Capacity Audience Hears Guests At Newton Centre Woman's Club Annual Celebrity Breakfast Nov. 6

The Newton Centre Woman's Club held its Fourth Annual Celebrity Breakfast on Thursday, November 6, at the Club House, under the direction of Mrs. Francis J. Flagg. Mrs. Flagg was introduced by Mrs. Virgil Casten, president of the Club.

The custom of having as guests at the breakfast celebrities of the stage and radio, authors, artists and musicians has each year gained in popularity and enthusiasm, and although nearly 400 women were present on Thursday, many more applications for tickets had to be refused.

Twelve prominent guests each in their turn introduced by Mrs. Flagg spoke briefly. Marcia Wilson, gifted young Boston pianist, played Gershwin's — BREAKFAST — (Continued on Page 3)

Whitman Named City Treasurer; Has Been City Comptroller for 18 Months

Archie R. Whitman, who has served as City Comptroller for the past 18 months, was elected City Treasurer and Collector for the Newton Board of Aldermen at their meeting on Monday night.

Under suspension of the rules, the Board voted unanimously to name Whitman as successor to the late Clarence C. Colby, the appointment to take effect as soon as audits are completed and a new comptroller is named. The same committee which recommended the selection of the city treasurer, comprising Aldermen Kenneth D. McCutcheon,

Central Club to Present Annual Show Nov. 21-22

The 21st annual show of the Central Club is to be given Friday and Saturday of next week, November 21 and 22. It will be presented by an all Central Club cast. The first part will consist of the skit "Sweet Adeline," or "The Cowboy Minstrels." This is a hilarious farce, depicting the life of the cowboy, with the humor and songs of the West.

The second part will present "Lucien, Ltd." This is a side splitting take-off on a very swank dressmaking salon of Fifth Avenue. The proprietor and head designer and couturier will present 14 "female" mannequins. One by one the mannequins will Total subscriptions in the Greater Boston Community Fund Campaign in Newton as reported after the fifth bank night last evening amount to $273,921, or 86.7% of the goal. This compares with $261,324 subscribed on the corresponding date last year.

Additional subscriptions will be reported at the Closing Night of the Newton Campaign at the Newton Community Chest headquarters tonight, and all subscriptions received between now and next Wednesday, November 19 will be in time to report at the Closing Dinner of the Greater Boston Community Fund at the Hotel Statler, Boston. On November 21 and 22, the senior class of Newton High School will present "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court" in the high school auditorium.

The play, a three act comedy by John G. Fuller, is based on the book of the same name by Mark Twain, and relates the unusually hilarious experiences of a young electrical engineer, Hank Bennett, when he finds himself transposed back fourteen centuries into the intrigues of King Arthur's Court.

The cast, under the able direction of Miss Helen Sweeney, consists of Douglas Haren as Hank Bennett, the hero, who tries to convert the sixth century to

You Can Still Give

In spite of the fact that the Newton campaign officially closed today, November 13, the Greater Boston Community Fund campaign, as a whole, does not wind up until November 19—next Wednesday.

Newton, unfortunately, did not succeed in reaching its quota of $315,000 which was our share of the entire Greater Boston Fund. That is something which we hardly expect of our own generous and patriotic city. Seldom does Newton fall down on an important assignment, either in peace or war. What, if anything, can we do about this very distasteful situation? . . . Plenty. And that means you and you and you (and me).

What can we do at this late date to preserve Newton's fine name and outstanding record? Simply this. If you, for example, are one of those generous citizens who give regularly each year, but you have NOT been called on this year, as yet, just hurry your personal pledge to Chest Headquarters at 93 Union street, Newton Centre. If you are too busy, phone headquarters (Las. 5120) and somebody will pick up your contribution.

Please remember one thing. It is far better to make a contribution to the Community Fund, knowing in advance that your money will go directly to one of your favorite Red Feather agencies, which help people to help themselves, than it is to let the matter slide and eventually have the Federal government handle the situation and pass on the cost to you in the form of an additional tax. That is just plain common sense, is it not?

Necessity Of Eliminating Future Wars Stressed By Many Persons

An ever-increasing number of thoughtful people throughout the United States are urging the necessity of eliminating future wars between nations through the creation of law and order.

The following quotations from prominent individuals and groups in and out of the government seemed to us to convey in the strongest way the urgency of this message.

In introducing their report on Universal Military Service to President Truman, the able Committee, headed by President Compton of M. I. T. said: "Everything points inescapably to the conclusion that there is no real security for this country or any country unless war is abolished through the establishment of the reign of law among nations."

A War Department report, written a few months after Hiroshima on "The Effects of the Atomic Bomb on National Security" contained the following: "The need of eliminating war itself has never been so vitally necessary to the national security of the United States and to the survival of civilization."

Both of the above statements, one by military authorities and one by civilians but both looking at the situation from a military point of view, recognize that no longer can we place our reliance on success in future wars if civilization is going to survive.

The Agreed Declaration of November 15, 1945, issued by the President of the United States and the Prime Ministers of the United Kingdom and Canada, was to the same effect in asserting "that the only complete protection for the civilized world from the destructive use of scientific knowledge lies in the prevention of war."

The so-called Lillenthal Committee of consultants to the State Department in its report in March 1946 on the International Control of Atomic Energy, widely accepted as the foundation of thinking on the control of Atomic Energy, said:

"We have concluded unanimously that there is no prospect of security against atomic warfare in a system of international agreements to outlaw such weapons controlled only by a system which relies on inspection and similar police-like methods."

The Secretary of State's Committee on Atomic Energy in transmitting this report to the Secretary re-emphasized the hopelessness of relying on national commitments "to outlaw the use of atomic energy for war" and added: "In particular, we are impressed by the great advantages of an international agency with affirmative powers and functions coupled with powers of inspection and supervision."

In other words, these Committees are recommending in the atomic field what the Compton Committee concluded in a broader field—that war must be "abolished through the establishment of the reign of law among nations" and not by mere agreements between nations.

In June of this year the Emergency Committee of Atomic Scientists, headed by Professor Einstein, meeting in Princeton, announced: "The American people should understand that there is no easy path . . . that, in the long run, the creation of a supranational government, with powers adequate to the responsibility of maintaining peace, is necessary."

And in July of this year, General Eisenhower in an address at Vicksburg, Mississippi, added his voice to the need for action:

"The last war, which ended with an inferno of destruction, can be the start of a world union for peace. Many, nevertheless, disparage world unity as visionary and impractical because national loyalties tend to stifle international action. But in the union of our states that had been divided by internal conflict, deepened by a bloody civil war, a problem comparable in intensity and kind was surmounted."

We could continue almost indefinitely with similar quotations but the foregoing add up to this:

If civilization is to survive, war must be abolished. Agreements between nations are not adequate for this purpose but rather some superior law or world government is necessary to maintain peace.

(Believing that no system of world law can succeed without the backing of an enlightened public opinion, and also believing that our representatives in Washington and elsewhere, in deciding major questions of policy, listen to the voice of the people and that this voice comes from the village square, the Newton Graphic has decided over the next few weeks to devote a series of articles to some of the many phases of world law and world government in the hope of encouraging thinking and discussion on this vital subject among our readers. In later articles we shall discuss various aspects of the broad subject of world government, such as—"Why World Law?", "Can the UN Do the Job?", "Is the Veto the Stumbling Block?", "What About Russia?", and "What Can I Do?"

Election Comments

With our own Community Chest struggling so hard to meet its quota before the Greater Boston Community Fund drive closes on Nov. 19, it is difficult to focus as sharply on purely political matters as is my custom each week. However, there were a number of outstanding features of our recent election which deserve comment at this time.

First of all, we find that preferential voting had a marked effect on the standing of the Mayoral contestants. This was not expected by either the experts or by the City Hall staff. Before the second choices were counted, our Mayor-elect, Alderman Lockwood, had polled a combined vote exceeding the ultimate winner. This made it necessary to count in all second choice votes. Inasmuch as Roy Edwards received 829 more second choices, the winner's margin was reduced to 1,881 votes. Two years ago, Mayor Goddard received a clear-cut majority of all votes cast; 11,565 as against 6,843, the combined total of the Boyd and Cronin vote. This, by the way, refers to former Alderman Dennis M. Cronin of Auburndale and not to former Alderman Eugene A. Cronin, the unsuccessful candidate against Joseph B. Davis, newly elected Mayor Alderman from Ward 3.

Next we have the truly remarkable performance of Ward Alderman Kenneth E. Prior of Ward 3, who, with Alderman Angevine, defeated former Alderman Guzzi by a huge margin in the race for the two seats for Alderman-at-Large from Ward 3. Prior did an almost unbelievable thing; he led ALL candidates throughout the city with a vote of 13,541. Not only that; he had the highest vote in ten of the twenty-six precincts in Newton. There was not a single ward in which Prior did not lead the field in at least one precinct. My memory does not recall a similar feat. Indeed, he received more votes in one of Alderman Lockwood's own precincts than did the Mayor-elect. Even in Lockwood's own precinct, Alderman Prior got only eight less votes than our new Mayor.

There were, in my opinion, two major reasons for this unusual showing. First is the popularity and efficiency of Alderman Prior; second is the nature of the campaign waged against him. This infuriated many of Prior's supporters and made them go out and swamp the opposition.

My next point will interest chiefly the close followers of political affairs. Studying the detailed vote by precincts, I find that Alderman Prior led the field in ten precincts, as above mentioned, and that the new Alderman-at-Large from Ward 6, Julian D. Anthony, led in three, all of them in his own ward. Then comes the new Waban Alderman, Clyde Casady, who carried two precincts, both in his own ward and tied in another precinct in Ward 5 with Roy Edwards. This by the way, was the best that candidate Edwards did in any of the twenty-six precincts. Next we have one of the losing candidates for Alderman-at-Large, Harry Gath in Ward 2, who carried one of his own precincts as well as "The Lake", or Precinct 1 of Ward 1. Alderman Mattson led the field in two precincts in his own ward, No. 2 and No. 4.

The other precinct winners carried but one precinct, as follows: Guzzi, Cronin, Buse, one of our eight new Aldermen, Hoyt and Tripp, both successful in their re-election campaigns, and finally, Mayor-elect Lockwood, who carried his own precinct in Ward 7. Mention has already been made of Edwards' tie with the new Waban Alderman, Clyde Casady of Ward 5.

Candidates Gath in Ward 2, Bensley in Ward 4 and Brown in Ward 6 have now tasted defeat in two successive campaigns. So has Mayoral candidate Hugh S. Boyd. It will be interesting to see what, if anything, these hardy souls do in the future. Every one of them can most certainly "take it" and each one conducted, to the best of your columnist's knowledge, a hard-fought and clean campaign. Personally, I like a good loser.

The lone lady candidate, Mrs. Lesses of Ward 6, need not feel too badly. After all 260 votes is a rather slender margin, especially in view of the very considerable effort made in behalf of the winner, Stanton Ten Broeck. Furthermore, if you stop to consider that the third candidate in this Ward Aldermanic race, Benjamin Grow, obtained 693 votes, many of which would have presumably gone to Mrs. Lesses, you begin to realize that the lady made a mighty good race. What the future may hold for the fair sex in Newton politics is a very uncertain matter.

Vincent's defeat for Ward Alderman was obviously due to the lack of a real campaign in his behalf. His total vote was 1,534. That of Alderman Mattson from the same ward was 2,037. That is a difference of 503 votes and Vincent lost by only 64 votes. Figure it out for yourself. It was this upset in Ward 2 for Ward Alderman which prevented your columnist from having a 100 per cent record in predicting the results of the election.

Now, let's stop a moment and get together with our own consciences. Suppose we give ourselves a brief and very private quiz, like this: "How much have I given this year IN PROPORTION to what I can really afford to give? How much, if any, real sacrifice have I made as I made out my pledge? Is there, by chance, another $5 or $10 which I could perfectly well afford to give to the Community Fund, especially if I could pay it in four installments? If so, what is holding me up? Wouldn't I give this to my dearest friend or to my next door neighbor, if either was in desperate straits? Very well, there is the answer.

Let us all, every one of us who cares for our own city, give and give till it hurts.

camp in co-operation with the West Newton Community Centre?"

"I'd like to tell you just one story Miss Sandstrom relates about that. I find it a poignant reason why people are contributing so generously to the Rebecca Pomroy House through the current campaign of the Newton Community Chest and the Greater Boston Community Fund. One little camper of ten told Miss Sandstrom she had never seen the country."

"You mean a Newton child of ten hadn't been beyond our city limits?"

"It's hard to imagine, isn't it?" Mrs. Loveland continued. "But the child was so excited and so thrilled over a daily trip that it was the biggest event of her life. When the car reached the outskirts of Waltham she said, 'This must be the country because my mother said there were no sidewalks in the country.'"

"But Miss Sandstrom said they had not reached the country. Finally, on the shores of Lake Walden, the child looked wide-eyed at the country and at the forests beyond the water. 'Is that a real forest? With real wild animals in it?'"

"So you can see, Mrs. Pfeiffer, why I think of this little girl and ask others to do likewise when giving to our Red Feather Agencies. The Newton Community Chest contributes 55 per cent of our total funds. Generous contributions mean that more old and young people can come to the happy, healthful atmosphere of Rebecca Pomroy and thus live fuller lives."

Fire Prevention Show at Weeks Junior High School

The United Mutual Fire Insurance Company will present "Fire in Miniature" a fire prevention show at the John W. Weeks Jr., High School, Newton Centre before an audience of about 1000 pupils on Friday, Nov. 14. Mr. Alfred Perrault of the Science Department will be in charge of the production for the school.

Director of the show is S. W. Williams, former assistant chief of the Lynn Fire Department, nationally known authority on fire fighting and fire prevention. Early in October the show was presented to the public in Newton, to the High School students and various Junior High School Assemblies.

Red Cross Gray Lady Corps Formed

The new class of Gray Ladies being trained for volunteer service at Newton-Wellesley Hospital under the chairmanship of Mrs. James B. Giltner began November 13th. This is a twelve-hour course, held on Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 9:30 to 11:30. Following the first Red Cross orientation class all remaining lectures are to be given at the hospital. It is necessary to attend all of these to be awarded the Gray Lady Certificate. For those who are interested in catching up with this class it is not yet too late—but hurry!

For further details please phone Mrs. Giltner, Las. 8675, or the Red Cross Chapter House, Las. 6000.

Thank you
Mrs. Gordon S. Heath.

Lady authors of distinction numbered among the guests were A. C. Lyons whose "Invitation to Boston" is on the best seller list; Virginia Pearson, who wrote "Everything but Elephants"; Edith Roelker Curtis, author of "Lady Sara Lennox" and "Anne Hutchinson, a Biography" and Sylvia Tourville who wrote "The Fortress Within." Be Van de Groen, author of "Cobblestone Lane" and other children's books sent last minute regrets due to illness. All guests spoke informally and amusingly.

Seated at the celebrity table with the guests were Mrs. Alfred Skinner, chairman of the Literature Committee, State Federation of Women's Clubs, and Mrs. Howard LeSourd, president of the Professional Woman's Club.

The breakfast was preceded by a reception at which all present were introduced to the guests. Mrs. Harry Troutwine was chairman of the reception and hospitality committee. Other

To Hold 1st Annual Commun. Breakfast

The First Annual Communion Breakfast of the Nocturnal Adoration Society of Boston will be held on Sunday, November 23rd.

The Reverend Lerby Cooney, Spiritual Director of the Society, will celebrate the Mass at Holy Cross Cathedral at 9:00 a.m. and immediately following the Mass, breakfast will be served at English High School, Montgomery Street.

Archbishop Richard J. Cushing will be the principal speaker at the Breakfast and indications are that over 600 members will greet him on this occasion.

This Society, which was organized by Archbishop Cushing in May of 1945, is comprised of Catholic laymen of Greater Boston who devote one hour per month, between 9:00 p.m. and 7:00 a.m., in adoration at the Eucharistic Shrine at St. Clement's Church, Back Bay. The Newton section is well represented in the Society and a large delegation from this district attend the monthly meetings.

Any member of the Society who has not obtained a ticket to the Communion Breakfast may do so by calling one of the following members of the Committee: George G. Hyland, Parkway 7372; Leo McCarthy, Parkway 5818-J; and Wm. J. Fitzsimmons, Talbot 0627.

NEWTON FIRE DEPARTMENT

FIRE PREVENTION SERVICE

Realizing how bad fires can get so soon, it is clear that we should do everything possible to prevent them—and to do this we must understand how most of them start.

The best clue to this study is to check all fires of known origin over a ten-year period, analyzed by the National Board of Fire Underwriters. This shows the following:

Matches—Smoking	29.26
Misuse of Electricity	10.38
Fire originating off premises	8.00
Lighting	6.94
Defective Chimneys, Flues, etc.	6.88
Stoves, Furnaces, Boilers and Pipes	6.31
Petroleum and its Products	6.17
Sparks on Roofs	5.74
Open Lights	5.41
Hot Ashes and Coals—Open Fires	4.03
Ignition of Hot Grease, etc.	3.06
Spontaneous Ignition	1.83
Gas—Natural and Artificial	1.41
Sparks from Combustion	1.00
Rubbish and Litter	.93
Explosions	.81
Miscellaneous (Known but Not Classified)	.81
Friction, Sparks from Running Machinery	.76
Fireworks, Balloons, etc.	.27
	100.00

Look over this list carefully and you will discover that by far the most of our fires are started by very simple causes—which means that they could just as simply be avoided at the expense of a little knowledge and forethought.

Take for instance the first item on the list—"Matches—Smoking" which has caused nearly thirty percent of all fires of known origin in a decade; there are many angles to this. In a recent survey, for example, 76 fire chiefs from different parts of the country reported marked increases of fires started by children playing with matches. Which means that it really isn't possible to be too careful about keeping matches well out of the reach of youngsters.

Another match hazard, involving grown-ups who should know better, is the bad habit of throwing them away while they are in the pockets of their trousers, or on carpeted floors where they can easily come back to life and start fires. Old-time woodsmen never discard a match until it is cool enough to break in half with the bare fingers; this is a good idea anywhere.

The worst offenders, however, are cigarette smokers who flip away live butts without first crushing them out. Most of these stubs are more than an inch long—which means that they will continue burning for at least ten minutes, in which time it is simple for them to set fire to something else and start a blaze. This is supposed to be the cause of the famous conflagration which burned down half of the city of Baltimore years ago—a cigarette dropped into a cellar grating. Now at least 120,000 fires a year are charged to this thoughtlessness.

During 1946, here in Newton we had 60 fires that were due to careless smoking. There is no better time than right now to start cultivating Safety Habits when smoking at home or out of doors. It may save your own life.

In an average year approximately 24,000 carloads of foodstuffs come into the Boston market, the equivalent of 1,152,000,000 pounds.

Rummage Sale at Newton Centre Unitarian Church

Mrs. Marshall I. Stone, of Waban, and Mrs. Fred D. Bond, of Newton Centre are co-chairmen of the rummage sale, that is to be held at the basement of the Newton Centre Unitarian Church, corner of Centre and Cypress streets, Saturday, Nov. 22. The sale is sponsored by the Stebbins Branch, of which Mrs. Oliver Tinkham is the president. Bric-a-brac, clothing, hats, shoes, rug, gas stove, toys, books, etc. will be for sale by the members of the Alliance. The sale is from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and from 1 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Waban Woman's Club

Miss Lulise Vosgerchian, Pianist, will be the guest artist, at the Waban Woman's Club regular meeting on Monday Nov. 17th at 2 p.m. at the Waban Neighborhood Club. The Music and Program committees are equally pleased to present this very talented young Boston Pianist. She has made several appearances with the Boston Pops Orchestra, has been soloist with the Boston Symphony Orchestra and has given several recitals throughout the country.

A short business meeting will precede the recital and Mrs. William M. Barber, President, will preside. A social hour will follow the program.

Miss Klein has been her class representative to Student Government for two years. She has also been Class Flower Chairman and a member of the Newman Club.

Sinclair Weeks Advocates Supplying Europe With Means of Production

Implementing the Marshall Plan by placing greater emphasis on supplying Europe with raw materials and physical tools of production rather than money loans was urged by Sinclair Weeks, former Newton mayor and U. S. Senator, at a crowded meeting of the Newton Taxpayers' Association last Thursday in the Newtonville Library. Noting that the United States had already recognized the necessity of providing food and fuel, Mr. Weeks stated that by actually supplying the means of production this country would avoid being placed in the position of financing existing governments merely to keep them in power.

"It is time this country helped Europe without involving ourselves in the expenditure of money to such a degree and in such a manner that we will weaken our position," Weeks stated. "One thing that is needed abroad is production. Labor and raw materials are necessary. They have the labor but not the raw materials. We must give or lend them the raw materials and equipment to get going."

Speaking of the financial problems involved in the European situation with relation to the 1949 budget, Mr. Weeks, who is chairman of the committee to study the budget which has been set up by the National Association of Manufacturers, declared that the organization would recommend a budget of 31 billion dollars—four billion dollars for foreign aid and rehabilitation and 27 billion dollars for domestic affairs. Of this budget, 80 percent would go to what are practically fixed charges, as follows: nine billion would be allotted to the armed services, six billion for veterans, and five billion for interest on the national debt.

"As far as running the government is concerned, there are just exactly seven billion dollars left to cover all of the other departments," Weeks continued, "but there is an opportunity for retrenchment. There is an opportunity for tax reduction and there is an opportunity for amortization of our national debt."

"All these things depend on the will of the executive branch of the government to produce these results and a desire on the part of the people to have those reductions produced," Weeks asserted. "Representatives in Washington are responsive to what the people at home want done," he continued, "and if the people of this country want to have expenses kept within bounds and have taxation curbed, they can do it if they will go to their representatives in Congress."

Cabot-Clafflin Scholarship Whist

Cabot-Clafflin Scholarship whist held Wednesday, November 5, at Newtonville Women's Club was a success both from the point of view of players who enjoyed a grand evening and the P.T.A. who realized enough money to more than provide the $150 for the annual gift to an outstanding high school graduating student.

Chairman for the whist was Mrs. Gilbert Isgur, assisted by Mrs. Edward Weidig, Mrs. Lloyd Tarlin, Mrs. Herbert Rubin, Mrs. Allyn Woodward in charge of tickets; Mrs. B. Murphy chairman of prizes; Mrs. Lester Keene chairman of refreshments committee assisted by Mrs. Robert Coan, Jr., Mrs. Earnest Steele, Mrs. Louis Cagenheimer, Mrs. Jack Reader, Mrs. L. M. Fleischer, Mrs. C. Wexler, Mrs. Paul Pierce, Mrs. Samuel Back, Mrs. Leon Martel, Mrs. Fred Burnham, Mrs. E. Swainson.

Mr. Earl Dushuttle directed the playing. Prizes were donated by Miss Conti's Four Seasons Beauty Salon, Carroll's Cut Rate store, Star Market Co. Newton Supply Co., A.&P. store, First National store, Evergood store, Newton Flower shop, Eastman Flower shop, Anthony Beauty Salon, Alberts Beauty studio, Smart Beauty shop, Hazel Ganter Beauty shop, Hilliard's candy shop, M. Philip Cummings to Address Newtonville Woman's Club

Through the courtesy of the Newton-Waltham Bank and Trust Company, Philip Cummings, one of America's greatest repeat lecturers will address the members of the Newtonville Woman's Club on Bank Day, November 18. His subject will be "American Policy Domestic and Foreign."

Mr. Cummings, a native of Vermont, was educated at Rollins College, Middlebury College, University of Dijon and the University of Madrid. He speaks from a background of personal observation, having circled the globe, and presents in a dynamic and authoritative manner the problems of the world both sociological and political. His compelling personality eloquent presentation and vigorous intellect make him one of America's greatest repeat lecturers.

Tea will be served with Mrs. William T. White, Mrs. J. Walter Allen and Mrs. Theodore Bjornson as pourers.

Annual Fair At Centenary

The Annual Fair of the W.S. C.S. of Centenary Church in Auburndale will be held in the Ladies Parlor and Hall of the church Nov. 13. The sale of gifts, toys, home made foods and candy will begin at 2 p.m.

The afternoon program was arranged by Mrs. Hollis Wyman and includes pony rides to delight the kiddies from 2:30 to 3:30. Ken Smith will do his cloak of magic at 3:30 to mystify until the last rabbit departs, a movie will conclude the program.

Mrs. Otto Ernest and committee will be busy preparing home made pies, rolls and tempting dishes to be served cafeteria style from 5:30 to 7:30.

A variety show, under the direction of Mrs. L. B. Smith, will be presented at 8:15 p.m. Members of the choir, couples club and youth fellowship will supply the talent. Tickets will be reserved by calling Big. 0423.

Lasell Junior College

The first formal dance of the year—the senior promenade—at Lasell Junior College, Auburndale, will take place in Winslow Hall on this coming Saturday evening, November 15. President of the senior class and general chairman is Miss Barbara Nelson of Hartford, Connecticut. Other class officers include the Misses Janecke Naess of Manchester, Vermont, vice-president; Elizabeth Dewey of Weymouth, secretary; Judith Tracy of Wethersfield, Connecticut, treasurer; and Audrey Tracey of Marblehead and Joanne Block of Maywood, New Jersey, class song leaders. Also assisting with the dance are Miss Estelle Hollingworth of Chelsea, who is in charge of decorations, and Miss Alice Johnson of Wethersfield, Connecticut, who is chairman of the refreshment committee. Music will be furnished by Ted Brown and his orchestra.

Novel decorations following the Madi Gras motif will help to provide an atmosphere of gaiety for the three hundred couples who are expected to attend. Masques and abstracts will cover the wall panels, while on either side of the hall will be two full-length scenes of the Madi Gras. Overhead streamers in gay yellows, purples, reds and oranges will converge at an overhead centerpiece of multi-colored balloons filled with confetti. Balconies will be erected at each end of the dance floor.

In the receiving line will be President and Mrs. Raymond C. Wase, Dean Ruth H. Rothenberger, Miss Virginia L. Tribou, and Miss Barbara Neilson.

NEWTON IN THE PAST

From the Files of The Newton Graphic

55 Years Ago, Nov. 11, 1892
Waban—A lot on the corner of Beacon and Woodward streets is being much improved by the filling and grading of the small pond which was formerly there.

"Well Jack and I are to be married at last, and we are so happy." "Did you and Jack have much trouble getting your father's consent?"

"No, but Papa and I had an awful lot of trouble getting Jack's consent."—Truth.

West Newton—Good order was maintained at the polls as usual and the presence of the police officers was entirely sufficient for all demands. In fact, there is no real call for their services, the elections are conducted so quietly and in such strict observance of every detail of the law, except that their presence keeps the hoodlums and unruly spirits in check and helps to fulfill still further every demand of the public statutes governing the conduct of elections.

Auburndale—The Woodland Park Hotel will have a most successful season to judge from the number of guests who already have permanent apartments for the winter. The number is twice as large as usual, already.

Newton Centre—E. B. Darrell, as a result of Cleveland's election to the presidency, received a wheelbarrow ride this week, W. B. Munroe, the defeated candidate, wheeling him nearly a mile through the public streets.

50 Years Ago, Nov. 12, 1897
Auburndale—The high wind of Tuesday night is said to be responsible for the accidents to the chimneys on Plummer's Block, which were blown down and otherwise damaged. Many trees and considerable shrubbery throughout the village also suffered.

Senator Hanna has more important work before him than that of attending dinners, and so the House Market Club could not produce one of its advertised attractions.

Newton Lower Falls—The office at Bishop's Mills has been enlarged and a sample room connecting has been added.

Waban—The new electric lights which were turned on at the station, Thursday evening, greatly added to its appearance and are also greatly appreciated.

35 Years Ago, Nov. 15, 1912
The Old Farmer's Almanac for 1913 is out in its usual form, and contains all the information which has made this publication a household necessity.

West Newton—While a large truck carrying the stump of one of the large trees removed from Chestnut Street, was crossing the street railway tracks on Washington street opposite the Congregational Church yesterday afternoon the breaking of the rear axle, caused a delay to the street cars of about five minutes, while the steam roller could be run from margin street to the place of the accident and put the truck and its burden to one side. Later the roller carried the stump, which weighed about two tons, and a drag to the Pine Street yards.

Newton—A fire was discovered in the basement of Hudson's Drug Store in Nonantum Square early Monday morning, evidently caused by the ignition of a box of matches. Prompt work by the firemen prevented serious damage although there was considerable smoke. The loss is about $300.

A teacher asked a class of children what a skeleton was. One little boy who put up his hand replied, "It's bones with people rubbed off."

Social Science Club

On Wednesday morning, November 19, the Social Science Club will welcome members and their friends at the Hunnewell Club, at 10 a.m. The poetess, Ramona Graham Cook will read selections from her poems; the subject of her talk, "Where Poetry Is." The hostesses will be Miss Eugenie F. Bradshaw and Mrs. Donald L. Gibbs.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Woods - Richardson

In the Union Church, Waban on Saturday afternoon, November 8, Miss Betty Louise Richardson, daughter of Mrs. Shepard Mark Richardson of Dedham, became the bride of William Harvey Woods, son of Mrs. Edward Hutchins Woods of Waban. Rev. Joseph C. MacDonald performed the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. Robert E. Fader of New York City. With her princess gown of ivory satin she wore an heirloom veil of Chantilly lace and carried a crescent bouquet of eucharis lilies and stephanotis.

Miss Marion Richardson, cousin of the bride, of Dedham, was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Henderson of Waban and Mrs. Robert G. Pelren, sister of the bridegroom, of Concord, New Hampshire. All three wore gowns of dark green velvet and carried chrysanthemums. The flower girls, Anne and Margaret Pelren, twin nieces of the bridegrooms, were gown in yellow and carried chrysanthemums.

Howard P. Chandler of Waban was the best man and the ushers were John H. Forte and Jerome M. Powell of Waban, Robert Cowen of Wellesley Hills and Robert G. Pelren of Concord, New Hampshire.

The bride was graduated from the Katharine Gibbs School, Mr. Woods served for two years with the Marine Corps and was graduated from Dartmouth in 1945.

On their return from a trip to New York City and the Poconos, Mr. and Mrs. Woods will reside in Waban.

Neagle - Carter

Miss Virginia Gordon Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gordon Carter of Newton, was married to Norman Moulthrop Neagle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell J. Neagle of Belmont, Sunday afternoon, Nov. 9, in the Eliot Church in Newton by the Rev. Dr. Ray A. Eusden.

The bride was escorted by her father and had her sister, Miss Catherine Juliette Carter for her attendant. Richard Woodward of Belmont was best man, with Lt. Richard V. Smith, Varnum R. Mead, J. Douglas Oliver and Walter G. Johnson for ushers.

After a wedding trip to Canada, the couple will live in Schenectady, N. Y., where Mr. Neagle is with the General Electric Company. Mrs. Neagle graduated from the Massachusetts School of Art and for the past three years has been a member of the faculty in the Art Department of Lasell Junior College. Her husband was graduated from Harvard in 1942. During the war he served as 1st Lt. in the Signal Corp in the European and Pacific areas.

Newtonville Junior Woman's Club

The regular meeting of the Newtonville Junior Woman's Club will be held on Nov. 18, at the Newtonville Woman's Club House at 7:30 p.m. The program for the evening will be a motion picture entitled "Flying Down to Rio," which will be presented by Wagn H. Hargbol, chief optician at Boston University Optical Research Laboratory. Mrs. E. Graham Bates, also, will speak to the group as a representative of the Community Fund.

At the executive board meeting held on Nov. 10 at the home of Miss Phyllis Johnson, 65 Withington road, Newtonville, it was announced that the annual Christmas formal dance of the Massachusetts State Federation of Junior Women's Clubs will be held at the Hotel Statler on Dec. 13. Miss Theodora Klein, who is program chairman of the Newtonville Juniors, is chairman of the affair.

Kidder - Kehn

At an evening ceremony in All Saints Church, Brookline on Saturday, Nov. 8, Miss Barbara Mae Kehn, daughter of Mrs. Frederick M. Kehn of 151 Jackson street, Newton Centre, became the bride of Frederick Lance Kidder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Kidder. Rev. Harold B. Sedgewick performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at the home of the bride.

The bride wore a Colonial brocaded gown with a long train. Her veil was caught to a tiara of orange blossoms and she carried a prayer book with eucharis lilies. She was attended by her sister, Miss Marjorie E. Kehn, who wore a similar gown of moss green velvet and carried Nassaue roses.

Walter H. Kidder, Jr., was best man for his brother and the ushers were William J. McHenry, Jr., John W. Perry, Jr., John R. Mulcahy and John F. A. Magune.

Mr. Kidder was graduated from Thayer Academy and the Leland Powers School of the Theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. Kidder will reside in Boston.

Recent Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Theodore Russo of Newton Centre announce the engagement of their daughter, Dolores Elizabeth Russo, to William Joseph Gahan, 4th, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Slater of Chicago, Ill.

Miss Russo, a graduate of the Choate School, is now studying at the University of Chicago.

Mr. Gahan was graduated from Marmion Academy and Armour Institute of Technology. He served as a captain in the U. S. Army during the war in the E. T. O. and is now continuing his studies at the Illinois Institute of Technology.

Mr. and Mrs. William James Davidson have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Helen Margaret Davidson, to Duncan Orr Warren of Waban and Brookline, New Hampshire.

Miss Davidson was graduated from the Beaver Country Day School, Mt. Holyoke College and the Katherine Gibbs School.

Mr. Warren, prepared at Tabor Academy for Harvard University where he was a member of the class of 1936. During the war he served with the U. S. Army in Europe.

Books for the World of Tomorrow

Filling a "Treasure Chest" of books for children in a foreign country will be a feature of the 1947 Book Week program in the Newton Library and its branches.

During Book Week, Nov. 17 to 22, The Boys' and Girls' Library at 126 Vernon Street, Newton, and all branches will exhibit some of the best children's books both new and old, including suggestions for Christmas gifts.

All the children and any adults interested are invited to contribute any sum of money, however small, towards sending a chest of thirty children's books to some country to be chosen by the children. Contributions may be made at the Boys' and Girls' Library or any Branch Library in Newton. The money collected will be used to buy children's books from a selected list to be sent together with a scrapbook of pictures of boys and girls in Newton, to children in the country selected. An empty scrapbook will be included in the box so that children in the foreign land may send back to Newton pictures of themselves and their activities.

Here is a chance for the children of Newton to share their books and make new friends in another land, and in a small way help toward better understanding between nations.

twentieth century style; Janice Pearson as Sandy, a demure damsel who falls for Hank; Patricia Carver as Queen Morgan Le Fay, the sly, deceitful who tries to charm the hero; and Leon Avakian as Merlin, the villainous sorcerer. Also in the cast are Mortimer Guiney in the role of King Arthur, and Patricia Lyon as his domineering wife, Queen Genevieve. William Whitney plays the part of Sir Sagramor, a braggart knight, and Richard Whittinghill, the part of brawny Sir Launcelot. On the side, a romance is conducted by Boone Gross as Clarence the page and Selma Borenstein, sixth century counterpart of the bobby-soxer. Last but not least are Carol Wolcott as Hank's harried mother, Mrs. Bennett, and Jane Ellis as his cute but heckling, Marion.

Tickets will go on sale in the high school home rooms on Nov. 14, and will be sold before the two performances at the school box office. There will be two presentations, a matinee on Friday at 2:55 p.m. and an evening performance at 8:15 p.m., Saturday.

Robert Gerraughty Appointed to Kappa Psi Fraternity Post

Robert J. Gerraughty of 50 Dalby street, Newton, a sophomore at the Massachusetts College of Pharmacy, has been appointed a member of the social affairs committee of the Mu Chapter of the Kappa Psi Pharmaceutical Fraternity at the college. This chapter celebrated its 40th anniversary of its founding last January. The National Convention is being held in Chicago on Dec. 28 to 30. John W. Thompson, Jr., of Worcester, a senior at the college and Robert J. Mahan of Lynn, a junior, have been appointed delegates with Michael V. Conena of Worcester, a senior, and Joseph P. Vona of Malden, a junior, alternate delegates.

Dr. Anderson To Address Underwood PTA

Dr. Homer W. Anderson, Superintendent of Newton schools, will address the first meeting of the newly organized Parent-Teacher Association of the Underwood School, in the school auditorium, Vernon street, Newton, on Wednesday, November 12th at 8:45 p.m.

George A. Hedden, Jr., President of the Association, and Allen Acomb, Principal of the Underwood School, have arranged an open house prior to the meeting so that the parents may visit with the faculty.

Armistice Day—1947—

Out of white lips a message; out of the sod a sigh; Living, though dead, they murmur—calling to earth and sky; Hot is their indignation; restless they stir the sod—

Tossing with fitful fever—crying aloud to God: "Was it for this we suffered? Spilled our blood in vain? Must we perforce keep silence? Can we from speech refrain?"

Not while the Nations' leaders, greedy and unashamed, Clamor for 'trade' and 'commerce'—heedless of dead and maimed; Never while subject peoples; victims of age-old wrong, Lift in accord their voices: "Miserable Lord, how long?"

Comrades, we died for Justice—Laid we on Freedom's altar—Gave in and giving were glad: Blind are the old-world statesmen—cankered with hate untold—

How can they hear our message, they with their greed for gold? Strip from their eyes their darkness; wean them from love of power, Else, by the Gods eternal, again will the flames devour!"

Nov. Meeting of Lucy Jackson Chap., D.A.R.

On Monday afternoon November 10th the Lucy Jackson Chapter held its regular meeting at the Chapter House in Newton Lower Falls with the Regent, Mrs. James G. Patterson presiding.

A complete and informing Report of the State Meeting held in Swampscott in October was given by the Secretary, Mrs. Walter R. Amesbury. Addresses featuring the educational and patriotic achievements of the Society during the past year were made by prominent members. The two day session ended with a banquet at the New Ocean House.

A delightful program on "Early American Music" following was ably presented by Mrs. A. Dwight W. Prescott assisted by Mrs. Kenneth A. Bernard singing in a charming manner many of the old time songs, Mrs. Holcomb J. Brown being at the piano.

Tea was served at the conclusion of the program by a committee of ladies under the chairmanship of Mrs. Winfield S. Smyth and Mrs. Frank A. Day. The next meeting of the Chapter will be held on December 8th at which time a Christmas Sale will be held and luncheon served.

Sharrott will serve as chairman of the Conservation Night program and will preside at a blind auction the proceeds to be used for the Federation Memorial Fund of which the chairman Mrs. Edmund L. Wilson will be the guest of honor for the evening. Thanksgiving donations will be taken at this meeting.

A picture, "Under the Western Skies" courtesy of the International Harvester Co. will be shown. Mrs. Raymond Giles, Hostess with the assistance of the hospitality committee will serve refreshments.

DINING with JANE and BILL

Bill—Say, Jane, how about putting a few figs in my lunch tomorrow? They're really darn good. Joe, the fellow who works with me at the office, gave me some that he had in his lunch box. He said that his wife sometimes stews them and cooks them in many different ways.

Jane—Sure, I'll get some. I'll admit it's a long time since we've had any figs or other dried fruits. Only yesterday I read that prunes, apricots, figs and raisins were rich in iron for red healthy blood. The article also mentioned that many dried fruits contained some of the other minerals and vitamins necessary for good health.

Bill—I've had fig squares and fig-filled cookies when I've eaten out, but I bet you could make something like that or better at home.

Jane—That reminds me—ages ago I made a fig-nut bread and also fig muffins. We'll have to try them again. Last Thanksgiving Aunt Sue served stuffed figs with cream cheese and a walnut on top. Remember how good they tasted?

Bill—The Newton Nutrition Center has a brand new recipe that really sounds tops. I wish you would make it for dessert tonight.

Fig and Nut Stuffed Baked Apples; 8 to 12 dried California figs, 6 baking apples, 1 cup brown or granulated sugar, ¼ cup chopped walnuts. Cover figs with boiling water and let stand about 10 minutes. Drain, snip off stems and cut coarsely, using scissors. Wash and core apples, and place in baking dish. Fill centers with chopped figs and nuts, and top with a spoonful of brown sugar. Mix remaining sugar with 1 cup hot water, pour around apples, cover baking dish and bake in a moderate oven (350 deg.) for 20 to 30 minutes, until almost done. Uncover, turn heat high (to 500 degrees F.) and finish baking, basting frequently with their syrup to glaze them. Serve warm or cold with top milk or custard sauce.

Bits From Bigelow

Day Junior High Tops Bigelow
In a Newton Junior High football game, the F. A. Day varsity team edged Bigelow, 7 and 6, while its lightweight contingent nipped the Bigelow aggregation 5 to 0, at the Burr playground. Bigelow went ahead in the second period on a sustained march with Bob Shannon plunging over for the score. Day took to the air after recovering a fumble deep in Bigelow territory, and fullback Gibson Studley tossed a 30 yard pass to end Alan Rawling for the equalizer. Rawling's place kick scored the winning point.

The Red Cross Council is, for one of its services, making holiday favors. These consist of little ornaments that are sent to the hospitals to be put on the disabled veterans trays. They are usually filled with little things to eat, or with cigarettes. The chief use, however, is to cheer them up, for just a little brightness goes a long way. The holidays to choose from include Washington's Birthday, Easter, and St. Patrick's Day. Each school will make 50 favors for each holiday. Our school has chosen six holidays.

Volunteer Needs

The Volunteer Service Bureau of the Newton Community Council A RED FEATHER SERVICE, asks your help in finding volunteer drivers for the Motor Corps of the American Red Cross, Newton Chapter.

To fill the need for transportation of patients to and from the Newton-Wellesley Hospital and to clinics of Gray Ladies and Arts and Skills workers to Cushing Veterans Administration Hospital, the Red Cross urgently seeks volunteers for the Motor Corps.

This is interesting and very worthwhile work. All women aged 18 and over with good driving records are eligible.

If you have any free time each week and if you like to drive a car, this is the volunteer service for you. The VOLUNTEER SERVICE BUREAU urges you to respond to this need. For further information on the RED CROSS MOTOR CORPS call the NEWTON COMMUNITY COUNCIL, LASEL 5121, TODAY.

days, two rooms working on each. We will probably have a collection to get the money to buy the candy.

On October 20, the C division of the eighth grade was presented with a play by Sandra Adler. This play was prepared nicely and produced in a most satisfactory manner. Betty Lee, announcer, read the list of characters: Cornwalls, Sandra Adler; George Washington, Christine Tucci; General Lafayette, Patricia Merrill; General Greene, Ann Perkins; General Sumpter, Carolyn Young; Martha Washington to be played by Miriam Gorn, but as she was absent the day of the play, Isobel Horowitz took her part. The name of the play was Four Stories. The name was taken from four stories which the generals told. Each one related about a battle he had fought. The conversation led to the war which America and England were fighting. Martha Washington then came in, announcing that the Treaty of Peace was awaiting to be signed.

The purpose of leader corps is to train its members to help Miss Godfrey. Their duties are roll call, equipment, and lights. They also help in umpiring games, scoring games, and answering questions when the gym teacher is busy. The qualifications of a girl in leader corps are dependability, leadership, and reasonable popularity. The seventh grade girls on leader corps are Lee Johnson, Julia Kimball, Barbara Larson, Margaret Antonelli, Betty Larrabee, and Audrey Bannister.

In boy's glee club we are divided into four parts, bass, tenor, seconds, firsts. There are 93 boys who sing. These are some of the songs we sing. Bring the Good Old Bugle Boys, Play Up Play the Game, Wind of the Western Sea, All Through the Night, When Morning Guilds the Skies, Vive L'Amour. Our newest song is the Whiffenpoof Song.

The seventh grade girls' glee club have their meetings every other week. They do not perform in front of an audience. However, testing their voices was not in vain for they are practicing to become members of the 8th and 9th grade glee club.

Divisions IIB and IID of the eighth grade are working on a project in art illustrating some of the countries of the United Nations. These countries will be represented by dolls, buildings, and other items. These objects will be placed in the school museum, and the information on paper will be put in a notebook and placed at the disposal of the pupils. We hope this will help the pupils to know and better understand other countries of the world.

At the meeting of the leader corps this week, we put new covers on the mats. These covers were bought by the school to protect the surface of the mat and to keep it clean. The covers are easy to put on, being tied at the four corners by a rope. During the summer the mat covers will be taken off and washed, so that at the beginning of the school year the boys will have clean mats.

At the Tuesday morning squad leaders' period we were going to elect officers, but due to a lot of boys being absent we postponed.

Grand Opening of New and Modern Salesroom of The Home Specialties Company

John M. Walker, president and treasurer of the Home Specialties Co., Inc., announces the grand opening of the new and modern salesrooms and factory at 335 Worcester Turnpike, Newton Center.

Mr. Walker, for nearly two decades in the awning, screen and shade business in this vicinity, has been occupying various buildings around the junction of Langley road and the Worcester Turnpike for the past ten years. Now the lifting of restrictions has permitted the erection of one large building consolidating all of the operations of the Home Specialties Company on several floors under one roof. The rapid expansion of business from sections as far removed as Framingham and Worcester, added to the business always enjoyed from all parts of Newton, Needham, and Wellesley, has made necessary this new building. Offices are also maintained in Framingham, Milford and Worcester.

The home Specialties Company manufactures awnings, window shades, screen porches, combination windows, venetian blinds, wedding canopies, aisle carpets, weatherstripping, summer furniture, flags and a variety of other Frigidair appliances and Easy Washers.

The public is cordially invited to call and inspect the new and modern factory and salesroom just completed on the Worcester Turnpike near Langley road, Newton Centre.

City Employees Local Want Wage Increase And Bonus

The Newton City Employees Local 175 at their meeting on Thursday night, voted to ask for a 20% increase in wages plus the so-called "cost of living bonus." Officials of the local assert that the request for this increase is justified by the fact that the purchasing power of the dollar is now equal to only 64% of the pre-war dollar.

The following were nominated as officers for the coming year: John D. Russo, president; Thos. J. Moran, vice-president; Joseph Landry, secretary; Chas. Eagan, treasurer; Wallace Cox, and Arthur Latino, trustees; Edward Coffee, A. J. Moriarty, John Lupo and Patrick Monahan, finance committee; Dominick Bartista, sergeant-at-arms.

The election will be held at the December 4th meeting.

St. Philip Neri Guild Bazaar, Food Sale

Mrs. Frank A. Mesmer, President of St. Philip Neri Guild in Waban, is making plans for their annual Bazaar and Food Sale to be held in the Church Auditorium on Wednesday, December 10th.

Every effort is being made by the members of the Guild to make this sale as successful as in the past. Articles of every description will be on sale; hand made aprons and gifts for every member of the family; home made preserves and food, pies, cake jellies and candy, also a miscellaneous table showing leather goods, gold and silver jewelry and glassware. There will be door prizes and gifts on chances donated by the many friends of the Guild in Waban. The Bazaar is under the Chairmanship of Mrs. Joseph Sullivan, and Mrs. Leo Baldwin is Chairman of the Dessert Bridge which is to be held at one o'clock.

it until next week, when we hope to have perfect attendance.

This year's orchestra is comprised of about 27 to 30 instruments. The orchestra probably has been going on since Bigelow became a junior high school. Miss Hubbard has been in charge of it since she came to the school. The orchestra holds its rehearsal every Tuesday morning at 8:40 in the music room on the second floor. It plays at most of the assemblies and each year at the Christmas and Spring Festivals. At the assemblies it plays marches and patriotic songs which the whole school can sing. At the festivals it plays songs which it has learned during the year.

The Newton Centre Garden Club

A Colonial New England Thanksgiving will be the subject of a colorful lecture and demonstration by Mrs. Enid L. Fairbairn, of Wellesley, at a meeting of the Newton Centre Garden Club at 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning, at the Newton Centre Woman's Club House. Early Colonial table setting will be shown with interesting colonial costumes.

Introduction of new members and a social half hour with coffee will precede the lecture. Mrs. James H. Orr, president of the club, will preside at the meeting. Other officers for this year are: Vice-president, Mrs. Richard S. Willis; recording secretary, Mrs. Richard S. Willis; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Neil Leonard; treasurer, Mrs. Henry S. C. Cummings; executive board members: Mrs. Austin C. Benton, Mrs. Charles K. Beatty, Mrs. Vincent P. Maloney, Mrs. Louis E. Phaneuf, Mrs. Blanchard Shriver, Mrs. George I. Engle, Mrs. Harry K. Noyes, Mrs. A. Harry Hutchinson, and Mrs. Robert W. Blodgett.

The club's regular Thanksgiving donation of canned fruits and vegetables, jellies, etc., is made at the November meeting. These donations are for the fruit and flower mission, and are delivered to Horticultural Hall whence they are distributed to Boston city hospitals, shut-ins and needy families.

Mortgage Burning At St. John's Church

On Friday evening, November 14, the Rt. Rev. Norman B. Nash, Bishop of the diocese of Massachusetts, will join with other Newton clergymen and the parishioners of St. John's Episcopal Church of Newtonville in a combined ceremony of mortgage burning and a farewell reception given for the Rev. and Mrs. DeWolf Perry.

Mr. Perry who recently resigned as rector of St. John's after serving for the past six years, will become rector of historic St. Michael's Church of Charleston, S. C.

The mortgage burning ceremony will start with a short service in the church at 8 p.m. in which Bishop Nash will participate. After the service there will be a procession from the church to the parish house led by Acolytes bearing flames taken from the altar with which to ignite the mortgage document. Those taking part in the ceremony besides Bishop Nash and Mr. Perry are the former senior wardens Mr. John R. Rees and Dr. Thomas Hayden, the present senior warden, John R. Clark and junior warden, Thomas G. Walters, treasurer, Orvil Hagaman, and vestrymen, Walter B. Chase and Riley J. Hampton.

It is a fitting tribute by the whole parish to Mr. Perry before his leaving that a combined effort during the past five years completely wiped out the mortgage balance of $15,000.

Mrs. Mary E. Uinn of Hovey street and New Sharon, Maine is visiting at Tampa, Florida, where she will spend the winter.

F. A. Day Jr. High 'News of the Day'

The Eighth Grade Election Rally took place in the auditorium on Wednesday morning three hours before the voters went to the polls. The chairman, Charlotte Barbo, introduced the following candidates for office, each of whom spoke briefly to the members of his class. For president, Robert Battista, David Bonnar, and Anthony Piselli; for vice-president, Joanne Eastman, Robert Elkins, Sandra MacDougall, and William Relf; for secretary, Beverly Toher and Eleanor Ward; for treasurer, Michael Proia, Joan Quinn, and Betty Todd. All of the contests were close but Robert Battista, Joanne Eastman, Eleanor Ward, and Betty Todd were the winners. Mr. Everett Pollard and Miss Louise C. Paul were in charge of the class organization and the following Student Council members ran the election: William Lee, David Harber, Elizabeth White, Murray Helfant, and Stephen Holmes.

The annual Junior Red Cross Drive is to begin on November 7th and run for one week. The advance announcement reached the school over the broadcasting system. Miss Mary Gianferante opened the campaign urging all home rooms to start in at once to reach the 100% goal before the campaign is over. She then introduced Harold Murphy, Carol Bram, Ann Underhill, and Daniel Lewin our Junior Red Cross representative, who explained the work of the organization and urged their classmates to give generously.

The girls' field hockey teams swung into action during the week with the Grade Eight First and Second Teams by one lone goal made by Maria DeMarco. In the boys' touch football team Room 21 by a 36 to 6 score. Room 29 won over Room 24 by two touchdowns, 12 to 0.

The Varsity heavyweights dropped its game to the Warren team by a 6 to 0 score while the lightweights remained unbeaten by holding Warren to a scoreless tie on Monday. On Friday, however the lightweights lost their first game of this season by a 6 to 0 score. The heavyweights played a thrilling game that was not settled until the final whistle. After spotting Bigelow two touchdowns, Day came roaring back to score on a twenty yard pass from Lee to Shaw and later on a twelve yard run by Colella, aided by excellent blocking to bring the score 14 to 12, for Bigelow kicked both extra points while Day failed. Bigelow scored once again to make it 20 to 12 and as the game ended Studley began hitting his receivers with passes but time ran out with Day threatening again.

On December 5 Day Junior High School will offer an all day program to celebrate its 25th Anniversary. These twenty-five years roughly coincide with the Junior High School movement in the East. In conjunction with this year's American Education Week slogan—The Schools Are Yours—Visit Them—Day will have a tea on that Friday afternoon to which all former teachers will be invited along with members of the Administrative Staff and the School Committee with their wives or husbands. Also teachers from the six elementary schools in the Day district will be asked. The Day P.T.A. will assist throughout the entire celebration. The evening program will include alumni speakers, musicians, a movie taken many years ago, a P.T.A. presentation, history of Day Junior High, the story of the junior high movement, and other features. Present Day pupils will aid in all phases of the anniversary. The joint committee heading the affair: from Day faculty, Addison Cowles and Lois Vuyovich, co-

Newton Highlands Man Addresses Lynn Lions Club

JAMES J. SIDEBOTHAM

James J. Sidebotham of 124 Walnut Hill road, Newton Highlands delivered a talk "Magic in the Earth" before the Lynn Lions Club at their luncheon meeting on Wednesday. Well known in Newton, Mr. Sidebotham of New England Coal and Coke Company speaking on behalf of the Bituminous Coal Institute declared: "Bituminous coal in abundance is our greatest single economic resource, and is symbolic of America's greatness in industrial productivity."

"So important is coal as a source of energy that national paralysis would ensue if the supply were shut off," Sidebotham said. "Most of the electric utilities and all of the coke ovens, if not fed by coal, would close as well as our great steel mills; there would be a stoppage of 70 per cent of our railroads, 65 per cent of our cement mills, and more than 60 per cent of all other basic industries. As a chemical raw material it is beyond comparison," he said.

Pointing to the brilliant role coal plays in the progress of chemistry, Sidebotham continued. "From it are derived sulphur drugs, anesthetics and aspirin that have given relief to so much human suffering. Within it are the moth flakes and baking soda, colorful dyestuffs and the world of plastics. And train loads of fertilizer that add billions of bushels of eatables for our dinner tables. All these, plus steel and nylon are among the two hundred thousand by-products that come out of bituminous coal."

"No monopoly exists in the coal industry," Sidebotham emphasized. "In this 3 billion dollar business, there are 6,000 companies operating over 12,000 mines. Only one company produces more than five per cent of the annual output, and only 11 companies produce as much as one per cent of the entire output."

The Community Service Club of W. N.

Mr. James H. Powers, foreign editor of the Boston Globe, will address the members of the West Newton Community Service Club, on Wednesday, November 19, at 2 p.m. at the Unitarian Parish House.

Mr. Powers will speak on "World Affairs," a subject in which he is very well qualified indeed. He originated the first regular radio broadcast on foreign affairs in the United States in 1925. He has travelled extensively and is recognized as an authority in this field. The hostesses in charge of the tea which will follow the meeting are Mrs. Harry S. Baldwin and Mrs. Albert C. Blunt, both of West Newton.

Joline Bonin, Helen Spelman, chairman, Lorraine F. Holmes, and Edwin Frye, from the P.T.A., Mrs. Maurice Strauss, Mrs. Thomas Cleveland, and Mrs. Anthony Arcese are the present steering committee.

Announce Speakers For Woman's Club '47-'48 Lecture Series

Mrs. Kirtley F. Mather, Chairman of the International Committee, Newton Centre Woman's Club and Mrs. William M. Barber, President of the Newton League of Women Voters announce the following speakers for the 1947-1948 Lecture series to be held at the Newton Centre Woman's Club.

On November 17th at 8:00 p.m., Dr. Hans Kohn, Professor of History at Smith College will speak on "The International Economic Situation—Europe in the Summer of 1947." Dr. Kohn is a native of Prague, and has lived many years in Russia, France, Great Britain and the Near East. He is a recognized authority on International Relations, is the author of many articles appearing in encyclopedias and scholarly periodicals and of some fourteen books. Preceding the lecture, dinner will be served in the Recreation Room at 6:30 p.m.

On January 5th, Clark M. Eichelberger, National Director of the American Association for the United Nations will speak on "The United Nations and the World Today" and on March 15th, Dr. Coryell, Professor of Chemistry at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, will speak on "Putting the Atom to Good Uses." Dr. Coryell is distinguished for his work in the isolation and identification of radioactive atoms and is a member of the Association of Oak Ridge Scientists as well as the Federation of American Scientists.

Tickets for the lecture series may be obtained by calling Mrs. Kelsey C. Atticks, Big. 4614 or Miss Adelaide B. Ball, Big. 6706.

Auburndale Review Club

The next meeting of the Review Club of Auburndale will be on November 18, at 10 a.m. The hostess is Mrs. Wickliffe J. Spaulding of 429 Wolcott Street and the program, after a business meeting, consists of two papers by members. The first is on Eve Curie, to be presented by Mrs. A. I. Sargent; followed by a resume on "Who's Who in China since 1927," given by Mrs. Lawrence Thurston. Mrs. Thurston, former president of Gilling College, Nanking, is an authority on this subject, having spent most of her life in China.

Two new members of the Club, voted in the previous meeting, are Mrs. William W. Edson and Mrs. William E. Bailey. A former member, Mrs. Eldin V. Lynn, has been reinstated.

All-England Team to Play All-Boston Field Hockey Team

On Friday afternoon, November 14th the All-England women's field hockey team will arrive in Boston for their match the following day with the All-Boston team. The British girls have scored victories in all of their matches to date although the Boston team is hopeful of marring this record when they meet them at Wellesley College field on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. In their first seven matches the English team made 72 goals as opposed to their opponents total of 3 goals.

The British team, guests of Boston players, will be met by their hostesses at the Winsor School, where they will arrive from Smith College. That afternoon some of them will coach local high school and college teams. This will be a wonderful chance for players in this section to learn some of the techniques which they will see demonstrated in actual play on Saturday in the game at the Wellesley College field. On Friday evening at six-thirty some of the British players will be interviewed by Frank Fallon over WMBX on his regular broadcast.

On Saturday after the game there will be a tea for the players in the Wellesley College Recreation Building and that evening the Boston Field Hockey Association is having a banquet in honor of the English girls at the Longwood Cricket Club. Sunday noon they are being entertained at a buffet luncheon by Miss Gertrude Hooper at her home on Beacon street, Boston. Miss Hooper is United States chairman of the Committee for the English Tour. Following the luncheon the British players will be taken on a sight-seeing tour of Boston and Greater Boston and then attend the final practice tea and annual meeting of the Boston Field Hockey Association. The next morning they will depart for Virginia for their game there on the 20th.

Four of the visitors will be guests to Newton for the weekend, two of them at the home of Miss Jean Davis of Chestnut street, Waban and two with Miss Barbara Midram of Turner street, Newtonville. Others will be staying in Westwood, Brookline, Belmont and Cambridge.

GRAPHIC TO CONDUCT CONTEST ON CHURCH ATTENDANCE

"A Go to Church" Contest, sponsored by The Newton Graphic to interest all church members and sporadic church goers to more actively support the church of their faith and choice, will be conducted for the next few weeks in these columns.

Anyone may enter this contest by following these simple rules:

Write a poem or a statement of not more than six verses or 150 words, on "WHY I GO TO CHURCH" or "WHAT CHURCH MEANS TO ME."

Entries will be judged on the basis of neatness, sincerity and aptness of thought. All are eligible to enter and are urged to do so. Write your entry today.

The first prize is $5.00, second prize $2.00, and the third prize $1.00. Address all replies to the Church Editor, c/o The Newton Graphic, Box 205, Newton 58, Mass.

Our good old church for many years
Has stood the test of time.
It's pointed spire looks up to Heaven
It makes one feel sublime.
Here we've learned the love of God
And how to worship Him.
Here we've studied scripture true
Our minds filled to the brim.
The Village Church, a beacon light
To all who will receive
The message that she teaches
To all who will believe.

Winning entries will be printed in The Graphic.

CHURCHES OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"MORTALS AND IMMORTALS" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, November 16. GOLDEN TEXT: "He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal." (John 12:25).

SERMON: Passages from the Bible (King James Version) include:

"Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory. Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire beside thee" (Psalms 73:24,25). Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include:

"It is only by acknowledging the supremacy of Spirit, which annuls the claims of matter, that mortals can lay off mortality and find the indissoluble spiritual link which establishes man forever in the divine likeness, inseparable from his creator" (p. 491).

Catholic Churches to Have Food Drive for European Children

A Thanksgiving Week Campaign for food for the starving children of Europe and the Far East will be conducted in all the Catholic churches of the Archdiocese of Boston, starting Sunday, November 23 and continuing through Sunday, November 30.
The local campaign, part of a huge, nationwide drive sponsored by the War Relief Services of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, is being personally supervised by His Excellency, Richard J. Cushing, D.D., the Campaign chairman in this area is
Rev. James H. Doyle.

More than 15,000 Catholic parishes throughout the nation will simultaneously be cooperating in the drive during Thanksgiving Day week to achieve a goal of 25,000,000 pounds of canned foods to help relieve the suffering children of Europe and the Far Eastern countries. It is hoped that the contributions from the parishioners throughout the Archdiocese will greatly exceed that of any previous food campaign as it is becoming more clear every day that famine and starvation will run roughshod all over Europe and the Far East if help is not forthcoming speedily from American families.

The drive this year is in direct response to urgent appeals made by Pope Pius XII, President Truman and various State Department members. When Herbert Hoover toured Europe as director of President Truman's Famine Emergency committee, he found that continuous everyday hunger was imperiling the health and lives of 20,000,000 children from the English Channel to the Russian frontier. Last year a similar campaign sponsored by the War Relief Services netted more than 28,000,000 cans of foods for the peoples of the war-stricken areas.

This year's appeal is for all kinds of canned foods such as milk, meats, fish, flour, fruits, vegetables, corn meal, barley, dried beans, peas and other essential foods. Arrangements are presently made through local parish committees to facilitate the collection of canned foods during the week of the drive.
School children in the parish neighborhoods are expected to play an important role in this collection of canned foods destined to feed the starving children of these war-stricken countries. During that period they will canvass the areas in which they live for donations.

Father Doyle pointed out that of the thousands of tons of canned foodstuffs collected from November 23 to 30 all over the country—every bit will be sent overseas as rapidly as shipping conditions allow and distributed wherever the need is greatest without regard to race, creed or color. Catholics and non-Catholics alike are earnestly urged to donate whatever they can spare in the way of canned foods.
Every Catholic parish will have a designated collection depot, to be announced by the pastor.
"Thanksgiving Day in America means happiness. But, in scores of countries where the thunder of war has so lately been silenced, there will be no boundless feasts. There will be no joyous family reunions. And millions of mothers will look with tears in their eyes and pain in their hearts at the pitiful sight of their children dying a death that youth should never know—death from

Fall Frolic Features Free Balloons

Mrs. Mildred B. Higgins, General Chairman of the Fall Frolic to be held at St. Paul's Church, Newton Highlands, this week (Friday and Saturday), announces that on Saturday morning balloons will be given free to the first 100 children attending each of whom must be accompanied by an adult. On that day, also, special events are scheduled for all children.

On both days, Mrs. Higgins states, many lovely table prizes will be given away free and attractive door prizes are to be awarded.

The two-day program comprises a Dessert Bridge from 1:30 to 5 p.m. and a dance in the Woman's Club Workshop at 8:30 p.m. on Friday; and on Saturday there will be a supper in the Church Crypt at 6:30 p.m., followed by an auction sale in the Parish House. A sale of a great variety of articles will run continuously on both days; included are knit goods for grown-ups and babies, aprons, costume jewelry, plants, cosmetics, foods, Christmas gifts, cards and wrappings and sporting goods. A professional palmist will be on hand and refreshments will be available at all times. For the children, attractions include games, all kinds of movies, pony rides and balloons.

The general committee for this annual affair is headed by Mrs. Mildred B. Higgins, who is being assisted by Mrs. Leonard Bassett, Mrs. Willard Rice, Edgar Swail and John Bowen, as well as numerous co-operating committees in charge of sales tables, special events and other features.

Designated as "Two Gay Days for Youngsters, Oldsters and In-Betweeners," and open to the general public, St. Paul's Fall Frolic opens its doors at 1 p.m. on Friday, the 14th, and 10 a.m. on Saturday, the 15th.

Impressive Services At Inauguration of Dr. H. W. Tribble

Representatives from about seventy educational institutions from all parts of the country will attend the impressive ceremonies marking the inauguration of the Rev. Dr. Harold W. Tribble as president of the Andover Newton Theological School, oldest combination of Baptist and Congregational seminaries in America, on Wednesday, Nov. 19, at 4 p.m. in the First Baptist Church, Newton Centre.

Many of the seventy who have accepted invitations to attend are presidents of colleges or universities.

A colorful procession of the educational leaders, and school officers, trustees and faculty, will precede the inauguration ceremonies.

The main speaker will be the Rev. Dr. Edwin T. Dahlberg, of Chicago, president of the Northern Baptist Convention. Dr. Tribble, who is formerly professor and head of the department of theology at the Southern Baptist Seminary, Louisville, Ky., will also speak. Howard W. Cole, president of the board of trustees, of the Newton Theological Institution, will bring greetings, and assist in the installation with the Rev. Dr. Morrison R. Boynton, president of the trustees of the Andover Newton Theological Seminary.

The Rev. Dr. Vaughan Danby, dean of the school and president of the Andover faculty, will preside. The invocation will be given by the Rev. Dr. James P. Berkley, professor of Old Testament and music will be provided by the large seminary choir. The prayer of dedication will be given by the Rev. Dr. Everett C. Herrick, president emeritus, who was succeeded by Dr. Tribble. The benediction will be given by the Rev. Dr. Ellis A. Fuller, president of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

A forum on the subject, "The Future of Theological Education" will precede the inauguration service at 2 p.m. The leaders will be Dr. Milton C. Froyd (a layman) of the Northern Baptist Convention board of education, and the Rev. Dr. Edwin E. Aubrey, president of Crozer Seminary, Chester, Penn. At 6:30 p.m., a dinner will be held in Noyes Hall on the campus, at which the Rev. Dr. E. C. Herrick, formerly president, who was succeeded by Dr. Tribble, will be toastmaster.

Among the official delegates from universities, colleges and seminaries will be: Prof. Henry J. Cadbury, Harvard University; Prof. Paul S. Minear, Yale University; Hon. Fred T. Mona Paulee to Appear at Wellesley Concert November 24

To all people the glamor and romance of the Cinderella story in all its variations has an indescribable charm. To Americans, where the miracle of the poor boy or girl who becomes rich and famous is not only a delightful fiction but a solid fact, it is especially valuable. There have been many thousands of Cinderellas—both male and female—in our golden land of opportunity.

MONA PAULEE who comes to Alumnus Hall as the second artist of the Wellesley Concert Series on Monday evening, November 24, is a Cinderella. Only her Prince is a pilot and her coach and four an airplane. Also her goal is not just to marry the Prince—she has already done that—but to become a serious artist. Although she is still very young, she has achieved much and her story is very romantic indeed.

Her poverty as a child in Portland, Oregon, did not daunt her. She took all sorts of odd jobs while going to school to pay for her music lessons. And when her "God-given" voice made her the winner of the Metropolitan Opera Auditions in 1941, she did not stop there. She kept on studying even after her successes at the Metropolitan assured her of her musical place in the world; and when she made her debut as a concert singer, a much more difficult medium than opera, she delighted the music-wise concertgoers in New York City by her beautiful voice, her lovely appearance, her fresh and unhackneyed programs and her sincere musicianship. That was quite an accomplishment for a person still so young. She has been helped by her husband, Dean Holt, who accompanies her at the piano and who, since he was an Army Pilot, flies her from city to city on her concert tours.

Wellesley is very pleased to welcome this courageous young artist who illustrates so successfully the value and necessity of our American way of life. Complete details as to tickets are given in the announcement of the concert elsewhere in this issue.

Rotary Club

Joe Mitchell Chappelle, former newspaperman, author of several publications and traveler of note, was the Rotary speaker on Monday, the 10th.

Mr. Chappelle in delivering an address on the significance of Armistice Day alluded to his many personal contacts with men of note, including George C. Marshall, General Pershing, and Marshall Petain. He emphasized that the human equation poses the greatest problems in the finding of international peace, transcending the works of scientists as exemplified by the atomic bomb.

The meeting, to be conducted at Newton High School, will begin at 8 p.m.

MRS. JOHN F. BROWN

"I never realized anyone could call a district nurse so easily or for so many reasons!" was my surprised comment after a recent visit with Mrs. John F. Brown. As president of the Newton District Nursing Association Mrs. Brown had talked enthusiastically of this vital Red Feather Service which she heads. We were sitting in her attractive living room at 360 Central street, Auburndale. The pale green walls were a cool, restrained background for colorful Oriental rugs. On a table was a flower arrangement with a professional's touch. And through the tall French doors we glimpsed the flower garden that is her pride.

"Yes, many people still think the Newton District Nursing Association is only for the underprivileged. Instead, it is a tremendous help to people in all classes who are unable to locate private nurses. Why, you can call the district nurse to help in carrying out the doctor's orders for at least six reasons—to change a surgical dressing, care for a new baby, give treatment of medication, give general care, plan a special diet or plan for your child. Nurses at our office, 297 Walnut street, Newtonville, are available to all Newton residents by calling Bigelow 4880 or Bigelow 2800."

"Let me make a note of that. I imagine every Newton family could use this service at some time."

"The Association has helped thousands of families during its almost fifty years of service." Mrs. Brown's grey eyes were alight with pride. Her small erect figure was surcharged with vivacity. Her brown hair was combed back in simple, deep waves. And her hands moved expressively as she talked. "I suppose I am overly conscious of dates today. I have just figured out that Mr. Brown and I moved to Newton twenty seven years ago!"

"And where was your home?" I asked.

"We both grew up in Minneapolis where I had studied at a kindergarten training school. Mr. Brown is a food broker."

"And your family?"

"Both our sons were in combat in the Pacific." After a little pause she explained quietly, "Jason, a captain in the Air Corps, was killed in October 1943. Wells, a lieutenant in the Navy, was on destroyer duty. He's now living in St. Louis. He's in the automobile business. And he has a brand new son named Stewart Jason."

"I know you're happy over the first grandchild."

She beamed, then said: "Certainly! Now let me tell you something interesting I did last summer. I spent a day with each nurse as she drove about her district. It taught me anew how the hourly service they give can change the morale of an ill person. I could tell of a mother who came home after thirteen weeks and three operations, dreading the time when her inexperienced family must change dressings and care for her. A district nurse showed the invalid's sister how to assemble equipment and change dressings. This aid made for a quicker recovery. And today that mother is in radiant health."

I wondered about other phases of the work. And Mrs. Brown was glad to tell me. "Of course, bedside care comes first with the district nurses. They next strive to prevent disease and promote better health. One means is at Well Baby Conferences. A registered physician is in charge at each station. No sick baby is ever taken to these conferences. Instead, a mother confers with the doctor, nutritionist and nurse. It's amazing how much good can be done by starting early in this way. I recall one baby particularly. The doctor noticed one foot was slightly twisted. The mother was unaware of it. The baby was referred to the hospital orthopedic clinic for diagnosis and treatment. An X-ray showed no malformation of the bones. The young mother was shown how to massage the muscles and exercise the ankle. Because of this early diagnosis the child now walks normally."

"Is the District Nursing Association helping at nursery schools?"

"Yes, at four," Mrs. Brown explained. "A nurse inspects each child before school begins—a grand way to prevent colds and other contagious diseases. But one of our newest phases is the work with industries. We supply nursing service at local industries with small or incomplete medical services."

"Then you promote health in every age group," I said. "But who pays for your services?"

"The charges for nursing service are based on the cost. Two thirds of our entire financial support comes from the Newton Community Chest and the Greater Boston Community Fund. So useful is the District Nursing Association to the welfare of Newton that last year it made the equivalent of one call for every third person in Newton!"

"Then you must have an excellent staff?"

"Yes, for sixteen years it's been under the direction of Miss Hilga Nelson, a very capable person. Miss Elizabeth Porter

Laymen to Occupy Church Pulpits Sunday, Nov. 23

LUCIUS E. THAYER President Newton Council of Churches

The ministers of most of the Newton Churches will be giving their pulpits over to their laymen this coming Sunday as twenty-six of the Protestant Churches of Newton participating in the United Church Canvass prepare their people for the solicitation to take place on the following Sunday, November 30th.

The success of the Newton United Church Canvass has attracted nationwide attention since its beginning. Laymen's Sunday, inaugurated last year, has been accepted as the most significant feature of the canvass program.

The laymen, leaders in civic and business affairs as well as in church life, will present in their individually prepared messages the importance of the Church to family and community life. Many will speak specifically of their churches' financial needs and the budget for the ensuing year.

The lay-speakers and their churches, as announced by David W. Tibbott, co-chairman of the United Canvass, is as follows:

Auburndale
Centenary Methodist, Gilbert Roehrig; Congregational, Lucius E. Thayer.

Newton
Elliot Church, Dr. Warren K. Lewis; Grace Church, Julius W. Kohler; Methodist, G. H. Strandberg.

Newton Centre
First Baptist, John B. Richmond.

Chairman Bates Expects More Than 95% of Newtons Quota will be Reached When Final Results are in. Congratulate Leaders and Workers

At the final dinner of the Greater Boston Community Fund Campaign, held at the Hotel Statler Wednesday night, Chairman Philip H. Theopold reported that the Campaign had raised $6,603,415. This exceeded by slightly more than $3000 the minimum goal. Before announcing the final figure at the closing meeting Theopold urged continuance of the Campaign, saying, "We need every single additional dollar we can raise, because $7,800,000 is the actual need of our agencies."

Americans! Be Proud and Thankful!

By Dr. Norman Vincent Peale

In a sense most typical of all our national holidays, Thanksgiving Day is as American as the aroma of burning leaves in autumn. Since childhood Thanksgiving has been a beloved and unique institution in our lives. Always on school room walls hung that picture of strong Puritan men, guns in hand, and demure women carrying Bibles, walking through the snow to the prim New England meeting house.

I have noticed that the minister frequently preaches from the Old Testament on Thanksgiving Day. There's a reason for that. The writers of the Old Testament were very wise men, of profoundly gifted insight. They knew life, they knew man and history, they knew God. On the wide canvas of thought they depicted the rise and fall of nations. Over it all they solemnly pointed to the brooding presence of the Eternal. Moreover they did it in words that have never been surpassed.

Often there was read one of the most majestic pieces of writing ever set down in the records of mankind. On Thanksgiving Day I urge you to read to your assembled family the eighth chapter of the Book of Deuteronomy. It will be good for your soul and your mind too. It will help to make great Americans of your children. Here the writer develops the thesis of a rich country. He describes the wealth and achievements of the people, then warns them, "When thou hast eaten and art full, then thou shalt bless the Lord thy God for the good land which he hath given thee. Beware that thou forget not the Lord thy God." It is a solemn warning that if we forget we will go down to destruction as has every nation that has so forgotten.

I write as a minister, a descendant of clergymen of every faith, who from the foundation of this Republic have been charged with the responsibility of telling you, the American people, that this is the truth. There have been times when people did not give heed, times when we have been crying in the wilderness. And in those times we have been sowing the seed of our own destruction. Still the ancient words are terribly true, "When thou hast eaten and art full, then thou shalt bless the Lord thy God for the good land which he hath given thee. Beware that thou forget not the Lord thy God."

That's a solemn issue on Thanksgiving Day. That chapter from Deuteronomy reveals that the writer was proud of his nation. He referred to the "good land which he hath given thee." Some people have tried to make us believe that it is not in good style any longer to be proud of this nation. Everything, so they imply, is wrong with this country. To hear them talk only one country nowadays is always right. That particular foreign country is right about economics, right about sociology, right about international affairs, right indeed about everything, while we are usually wrong about everything. They tell us that our economic, social and political system is hopelessly antiquated and old-fashioned. They have tried to convince us to become "enlightened" and adopt the system of a so-called "Utopia" from across the seas. So the old pride in America is gradually erased and we're supposed to feel rather ashamed of our "reactionary" institutions.

Nothing was ever more false. Nothing is more dangerous to freedom. Where does the world come today for its money, for its machinery, its food, and its skills? Who has become the trustee of free civilization? It is the country of freedom which Abraham Lincoln once described as "The last best hope of earth." It is indeed a "good land" in which we may justly take pride without prejudice to any other country. Nor does this pride in a "good land" preclude our having a spirit of active international cooperation. So be thankful for America. Be proud of your country. Keep her strong and free forever.

Supreme Ct. Justice
Burton Praises H. S.
Driver Course

In response to a news letter which the Newton High School Alumni Association regularly mails to former High School students, Howard Whitmore, Jr., President of the Association received the following letter from Justice Harold H. Burton of the class of 1905:

Mr. Howard Whitmore, Jr., President, Newton High School Alumni Association
Newtonville 60, Massachusetts
My dear Mr. Whitmore:

Replying to your cordial letter of November 5, I enclose my check for $4, payable to the order of the Newton High School Alumni Association, to cover your "life memberships" for Mrs. Burton (formerly Selma F. Smith, '06) and me (I was a member of the class of '05).

I appreciate the news of the ever-progressive Newton High School and both my wife and I look back with the greatest of pleasure to our four years there. I am especially pleased to learn of the establishment of the Driver Education and Training course for high school students. This plan has met with substantial success in the Cleveland High Schools.

Kindly change my mailing address from the United States Senate Office Building to the Supreme Court of the United States, Washington 13, D. C.

Yours sincerely,

Harold H. Burton

Politics With Color

by P. W. C.

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note.)

President Truman's Message

As this column is being written, there has not been sufficient time to give the President's vital message to Congress the deep thought and careful study which it deserves. However, it is possible to make a few observations which may prove pertinent.

First of all, let us not forget for a moment that everything which happens from this point on in Washington will inevitably be tinged, however, slightly, by purely political considerations. It is a shame, but it is also a fact, that there will be but a small minority of responsible people in high circles in the Capitol who will be able to forget that the 1948 elections are less than twelve months in front of us. Consequently, many, many things which are done in the immediate future will bear the imprint of 1948 thinking and strategy. This, of course, is precisely why so many of our citizens throughout the country are more or less disgusted with both the Democratic and the Republican parties. After all, there is not so much difference between the two, especially when it comes to playing politics and securing temporary party advantage.

Do you want evidence of this fact? Consider, please, the statements of Senator Taft of Ohio and Speaker of the House, Joe Martin of Massachusetts. We hear the Ohio Senator, now an avowed candidate for the Republican nomination for President, rattling the dead bones of the OPA and all the other unpopular agencies with which we were familiar during the late war. Taft talks dolefully about the possible end of economic freedom and the rapid onward march of totalitarianism. Speaker Martin says that the Chief Executive wants "a more colossal OPA." In this connection, it is only fair to point out that there are a number of influential Democrats who are also rather critical of the President's current plan for both this country and the rest of the world.

It seems to me that the rather reliable G.O.P. organ, the Boston Herald, phrased it quite neatly when it said editorially that the Republicans had been placed over a barrel; also, that the Truman plan was somewhat akin to giving a man the bubonic plague in order to cure him of leprosy.

What will Congress do about it all? Most observers believe that the foreign relief program is apt to go through Congress without undue difficulty, though there may be some slight changes and amendments. The anti-inflation program, however, is destined to find the going infinitely more difficult. What will be the reaction of the people as a whole, several weeks from now, regarding the proposal to give back to the President some of the vital war-time powers?

How can the people be sure that we will not soon have a full-fledged OPA and all the rest, including black markets, greater scarcity of necessary goods and still more heavy-handed-bureaucracy? Time will tell.

I suggest that my readers keep a watchful eye on the members of BOTH parties in the Congress in the immediate future and that they waste no time in getting in touch with their Congressmen and Senators if they do not like their attitude or their votes.

Mullin Prophecies

Whether or not you agree with him, Bill Mullins, the Boston Herald's political expert, frequently has something interesting to say. Last Sunday, for example, he was discussing the possible action of the G.O.P. "in the remote event that Lt. Governor Coolidge does not seek a second term next year. Mullins listed nine veterans of the last war who have returned to civilian life and are now holding important elective offices. After listing these nine men he goes on to say that the Republicans "almost certainly" would select their candidate for Lt. Governor from this colorful group. And who are these nine young war veterans? Councilman Paul Keith of Brockton, Councilors John S. Ames of Easton, a new member of the Governor's Council, Warren G. Harris of Millbury, who is a former Representative and Otis M. Whitney of Concord, our own Councilor; Mayor Olander of Northampton and the following State Senators: Philip K. Allen of Andover, Richard H. Lee of Newton, Mason Sears of Dedham and Sumner G. Whittier of Everett, recently defeated in a bitter contest for Mayor of Everett.

Interesting, is it not, that our own State Senator, Richard H. Lee, should be listed in this distinguished company? One gathers that Senator Lee has made a deep impression on observers on Beacon Hill.

New Congressmen

Practically every member of the State Senate appears to be a candidate for President of that august body, now that Donald W. Nicholson from Wareham has been elected to succeed the late Congressman Charles L. Gifford of Barnstable. The removal of this veteran State Senator may have a marked effect on legislation on Beacon Hill in 1948.

If I may offer a prophecy of my own, it is this: before another four or six years have elapsed, there will be at least two more changes in our Congressional delegation. My guess is that Congressman Herter, who represents us in Washington, is almost sure to move over to the State Department and that Congresswoman Rogers of Lowell will retire.

Highland Glee Club's
Opens 40th Season

The Highland Glee Club Inc. of Newton announces the dates of its two regular concerts for the 1947-1948 season to be presented on December ninth and March ninth.

The program on December ninth will be featured by the singing of Miss Adele Addison the sensational young soprano who is rapidly rising to the top of the musical world. Miss Addison, whose program will be announced later, has been the recipient of enthusiastic critical acclaim although she is but nineteen years of age and at the beginning of her career.

The concert on March ninth will mark both the 40th anniversary of the Club and the twenty-fifth anniversary of D. Ralph MacLean as its director. A program of unusual interest is being prepared to celebrate these events including the favorite songs of the active members, the sponsoring members and Mr. MacLean.

An invitation is extended to all to become sponsoring members of the Club. A sponsoring membership provides the member with two tickets to each of the two regular concerts. Further information can be obtained from Mr. Gustav H. Broitake, 86 Oxford Rd., Newton Centre, LA. 7 6838.

Organization of
Men's Club Planned

Plans for the organization of a Men's Club were discussed at the meeting of the St. Jean L'Evangliste Holy Name Society in the School Hall, Watertown street, Newton recently with Thomas Patton, president, presiding.

About 50 members of the Society were present. Rev. Sylvio Barrette, pastor, and chaplain of the Holy Name Society read a letter received from the secretary-general of the Society concerning the annual membership drive. It was decided to conduct a membership campaign at the annual retreat next Spring.

A vote of thanks was given Frank Jassett for his efforts in staging the Hallawen party for the school children.

Fr. Barrette announced the acquisition of furnishings for the Boys' Club and John Boudreau announced that the furnishings of the Nonantum Civic Club could be used until the school recreation room is furnished. The Boys' Club opening night was on Monday and they will meet twice a week on Mondays and Thursdays.

Nelson Boudreau reported on the Boy Scout program of the parish.

Further plans for the Men's Club will be made at the next meeting.

Discuss Filming of Events in Newton

Mrs. Francis J. Flagg of 99 Kirkstall Road, Newtonville, opened her home to a meeting on Tuesday evening, November 18th. The purpose of this meeting was to discuss the filming of important events in Newton, to use as visual-aids in bringing the community to the schools.

Mrs. Roland C. Farnham of 297 Cabot St., Newtonville, presided at the meeting. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. William L. Winston of 34 Cloverdale Road, Newton Highlands. Mr. Winston is a teacher at the Newton High School and is Co-ordinator of visual-aids throughout the Newton Schools. He set forth the value and need of films of local interest in education.

Inasmuch as patriotic films were included in this discussion, delegates of two veterans' organizations were present. These delegates were: Mr. Williamson, Chaplain, and Mr. Flammagan, Treas. of the V.F.W. and Mr. William S. Halliday, Vice Jr. Commander of the American Legion.

Pfc. Charlton Died
Of Gunshot Wounds
In Honshu, Japan

Word has been received from the War Department by Mrs. Charles Charlton of 147 Linwood avenue, Newtonville that her son, Pfc. Donald Francis Charlton died of gunshot wounds received while at his post on guard duty at Honshu on October 28.

Pfc. Charlton, who attended the Newton High School, entered the Army June 18, 1946 and arrived in Tokyo in September of that year. He was a draftsman in the Typographical Engineers.

Besides his mother he leaves two brothers, Charles D. and Joseph Charlton. His father who was a member of the Newton Fire Department died about 10 years ago.

It is expected that the body will be shipped home on the first transport to leave Japan and will arrive here within two months.

The conservation spotlight turns on Sausage and Apple Patties, the Peace Plate suggested for today by the Consumer Service Section, Citizens Food Committee. With this tasty dish, serve buttered green beans, canned, fresh or frozen, or Hubbard squash or yellow turnips which have been steamed or boiled, then mashed, and seasoned with salt, pepper, and butter or cream, with a dash of grated orange rind for extra flavor.

For ease and efficiency, round out this Peace Plate menu with a salad of canned peach halves filled with crisp shredded green cabbage mixed with a well-seasoned sour-cream dressing. Mocha Cream — a delicious dessert — can be quickly made from packaged chocolate pudding.

SAUSAGE AND APPLE PATTIES

- 2 medium apples, pared and cored
 - 2 teaspoons lemon juice (about) Dash of salt
 - 1 pound sausage meat
 - 2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
 - 1 cup crushed raisin bran
- Cut apples into six 1/4-inch slices. Season with lemon juice and salt. Combine sausage meat, onion, and bran and shape mixture into 12 small balls. Place balls between two sheets of waxed paper and flatten into patties, 1/4 inch thick. Put together in pairs with an apple slice between patties. Press edge of patties together to seal in apple slice. Arrange in shallow baking dish. Bake, uncovered in slow oven (325 degrees F.) 40 minutes, or until apples are tender. Baste occasionally with drippings. Serves 4 to 6.

MOCHA CREAM

Place the contents of 1 package of chocolate pudding in a saucepan. Stir in 1 cup milk, dash of salt, and 1 1/2 cups coffee beverage. Cook until smooth and thickened, following manufacturer's directions on label. Chill, covered. Beat with egg beater; serve. Serves 4.

Timely Food Tips: That extra grapefruit half stays juicy when you store it on a plate, cut-side down in the refrigerator. Do the same thing with oranges, lemons, or limes. It saves vitamins by protecting the cut surface from the air. Plan to use the fruit soon, however, in a salad, fruit cup, or in some other way.

If a piece of cheese grows hard before you get around to using it, grate and store it in a jelly glass with holes punched in the lid. It keeps well and is delicious sprinkled over vegetables or spaghetti dishes.

It's not too early to think about saving every bit of bread and leftover rolls or toast for the stuffing for that Thanksgiving bird. Dry out the bread thoroughly either at room temperature or in a very slow oven. Don't let the bread brown. Keep in a covered container until ready to use. Or roll it into crumbs and store in the same way.

Hospital Aid Ass'n Meet at Home of Mrs. E. G. Cushman

In spite of the severe storm nearly fifty Wellesley members of the Newton-Wellesley Hospital Aid association were sufficiently hardy and interested to go to the home of Mrs. Elton G. Cushman, 4 Whiting Road, Wellesley, Wednesday afternoon Nov. 12th to hear talks by Dr. Hamilton, the director of the hospital, Mrs. Ernest Rallsback, president of the Hospital Aid, and Miss Maida Flanders its treasurer. Everyone brought one or more articles for the annual Treasure Sale of the Benefit Shop. These were displayed after the meeting and many were purchased. Cider and doughnuts were served.

The Hospital Aid Association is an auxiliary organization whose sole object is to assist in the support of the hospital. Its two permanent projects are the Benefit Shop and the Coffee Shop. Under the management of Mrs. F. H. Williams, maintains a sales room for the disposal, at moderate prices, of clothing, furniture, bric a brac etc. donated or collected by members of the organization. Located at 795 Washington St., Newtonville, opposite the railroad station, it is open Monday afternoons from 2 to 4 o'clock, Wednesday and Friday mornings from 10 to 12. It is staffed by volunteer groups from Wellesley and the villages of Newton. A committee in each village serves once a month at the shop and collects articles for sale there. Wellesley's day is the third Friday. The chairman is Mrs. J. H. Goddard of 15 Eaton Court, with Mrs. Clarence Sibley, Mrs. Henry Borntrager, Mrs. O. R. Chadwell, Miss Helen Elms and Mrs. E. F. Stevens as her assistants.

The Benefit Shop needs donations of men's, women's and children's clothing and shoes (at present only warm clothing), small tables, commodes, bookcases, comfortable chairs, victrolas, radios, and cameras in useable condition, books, fishing tackle and sport toys. Wheel chairs are often asked for. Baby carriages, tricycles and sleds are much in demand.

If you are willing to donate useable, saleable articles to this very worthy cause, Wellesley residents are to call Mrs. Goddard or Mrs. Stevens, 15 Eaton Court, WELLESLEY, 0561W.

The Coffee Shop maintains a very delightful lunch and tea room in one of the older buildings near "Counners" Memorial. Its service also is largely volunteer, each day being in charge of a committee from a Newton village or Wellesley. Anyone who has had yearning to "jerk" sodas or to "float" (i.e. waiting on table) even if she can give only two or three hours a week or once in two weeks will be very welcome and will be given expert training. Call Mrs. Wright, LAsell 7550 between nine and four any day except Saturday and Sunday, for further information or, better still, drop in for a tea or a soda some afternoon between three and four and talk it over with Mrs. Wright. At the same time select lovely Christmas gifts and cards in the Gift Shop.

The Newton-Wellesley Hospital is your hospital and needs your help. Wellesley is represented on the Board of Directors by the following: Mrs. Elton G. Cushman, Mrs. Paul T. Babson, Mrs. Winthrop Dow, Mrs. Robert Hoggsett, Mrs. Charles G. Pike, Mrs. Edward F. Stevens, Mrs. Robert L. Studley, Mrs. Ellsworth M. Tracy, Mrs. Harold C. Wiswall and Mrs. Alexander McW. Wolfe.

ferences with 1400 parents' in their classrooms. Based on the assumption that each parent probably conferred with at least three of his children's teachers it is estimated that 1000 parents made the rounds of classrooms and demonstrations throughout the school.

The opinion expressed by Principal Green, that this was one of the most successful open house occasions ever held at the Newton High School was felt by the parents who attended this informative and interesting evening.

Newton Gives Way To Waltham 13-0

Last Saturday November 15, before 8,000 fans at Dickinson Memorial Stadium, Newton, a far superior Waltham team defeated the Orange & Black of Newton by a score of 13-0.

Newton moved deep into Waltham territory in the first period, however losing possession of the ball mid-way in the chapter on the Watchmakers 2 yard stripe, on downs. A fumble by Joe Schillone recovered by Waltham on the Newton 30 preceded the 12 yd. run of John McGovern, which put the ball on the Newton 18, after which Don Bigham moved it to the Newton 11, as the period ended.

A Dick White to Al Peaslee pass clicked for the first Waltham tally in the opening seconds of the second chapter. A Joe Terrasi place-kick was good for the conversion.

The third quarter Newton moved deep into Waltham territory once again but as in the opening period, a Newton blunder, this time a Don Collins pass was intercepted by Ray Caciatoro on the Newton 23 yard line as the period closed.

Once again a Dick White to Al Peaslee pass clicked for 23 yards and paydirt after a few seconds in the final chapter had elapsed. However, this time Joe Terrasi's boot for the conversion was blocked. The remainder of the period the ball was see-sawed from one half of the field to the other with neither team moving into scoring position. Final score: Waltham 13, Newton, a goose egg.

Add 2 tbsps. soy sauce to water. Also add 1 clove garlic and a green pepper cut into pieces if desired.

Auburndale Club Players Present Three-Act Comedy

A delightful 3 act comedy, "I Like It Here", was presented last Friday and Saturday evenings by the Auburndale Club Players, at the Auburndale Club.

The comedy was one of not only sheer amusement but one that stirred the inner-most feelings of every red blooded American as to just what Americanism is—tolerance.

The psychological effect produced upon the audience by the superb cast seemed as if each and every member of the audience felt as though he or she were in the place of Willie Kringle, played by Arnold Rood, who was a naturalized citizen and who turned out to be a better citizen than David Bellow, played by Lendell Layman, who was a candidate for State Senate backed by a powerful clique.

Willie Kringle found a true brother in his employer, Sebastian Merriweather, played by Robert Reed, Merriweather a very sarcastic gentleman was a professor of English Literature and his ideas and ideals though expressed in different ways were identical to Willie's.

Supporting actors were: Horace Hills, Ann Oakes, Shirley Harkins, Edwin Terkelson, Victor Jordan, and Kathryn Wilson.

On April 9 and 10 the club is planning to present, "Arsenic and Old Lace". After seeing the club's performance last week, this writer sincerely advises his readers to check it as a "must-see."

693,246 for the same period in 1946.

Newton's retail sales for September 1947 were 27% greater than for September 1946; for the first nine months of 1947 they were 28% greater than for the same period in 1946. For the Greater Boston area the increase for September was 2% and for the nine months period 8%. The increase in sales is due in large measure to the increase in prices and to the increasing sales of automobiles, building materials and household appliances.

The figures covering employment and payrolls in manufacturing establishments in Newton for the month of September, 1947 compared with the month of September 1946 show a decrease in employees of 414 or 9% and a decrease in payrolls of $5,855 or .07%.

The State figures on employment for the same month show a decrease in employment of 3.8% and an increase in wages of 5%. The average weekly earnings in Newton for the month of September 1947 were $45.73 and for September 1946 they were $41.80. Comparative figures for the month of September 1940 and September 1947 show an increase in the number of employees in Newton of 785 or 23.6% and an increase in the amount of payrolls of $513,806 or 176%.

The Middlesex & Boston Street Railway Company announce extra bus service week days between Framingham depot and Boston (Cleveland Circle) with limited stops, via Natick, Wellesley, Newton Lower Falls and Newton Centre, every 30 minutes. E. J. Helms, Counselor at Saturday Day Camp

EDGAR J. HELMS

One of the counselors at the Saturday Day Camp now being conducted in Newton Highlands is Edgar J. Helms.

"Mr. Edgar," as he is called by the boys who attend, is a native of Watertown, graduating from the high school there. Following his graduation he attended Tilton Academy, at Tilton, New Hampshire, for a year and then entered Tufts College. At the conclusion of one year he was drafted into Government service and spent more than three years in the Fifteenth Air Force. His experiences in the European theatre of war were many and varied but the one most thrilling and never-to-be-forgotten was the time when his plane was riddled with enemy bullets and he had to bail out over the Alps from a height of 10,000 feet. He was reported missing in action.

He has been back in this country for two years and during the period of readjustment decided to enter the ministry. At the present time he is a student at Emerson College in preparation for later studies at Boston University School of Theology.

In 1945 he was married to the former Shirley Colby of Watertown and they have one son, Edgar, Jr.

Mr. Helms comes to his position in the Day Camp with an exceptionally good fund of practical experience. For ten summers he was employed at the Morgan Memorial Fresh Air Camps at South Athol. Beginning first as a schoolboy he worked on the farm, then helped in the Arts and Crafts Shop, then became a counselor of the younger boys. He understands boys and greatly enjoys working with them.

Mr. Helms is a son of the late Dr. Edgar J. Helms, the founder of the Morgan Memorial Church of All Nations and Good will Industries, and for over forty years its pastor and superintendent.

The Saturday Day Camp is located at 315 Winchester Street, Newton Highlands, and is directed by Rev. Merrill A. Beebe. Boys from seven to eleven years of age are eligible to attend. Parents and boys are invited to visit the premises.

Newton Highlands Garden Club

The speaker for the November 25th meeting of the Newton Highlands Garden Club will be Mrs. Robert Richards. She will speak on "Flower Arrangements" and illustrate her interesting talk with various types of arrangements. Members of the club will also exhibit "Flower Arrangements for Thanksgiving."

PTA Council Hears Dr. Burton Speak on Adolescent Behavior

Concluding the series of three Parent Education Forum lectures conducted by the Newton Parent Teachers' Council, Dr. William H. Burton, professor of education at Harvard University, spoke on Monday evening before a capacity audience at the Newton High School, his subject being, "Causes of Adolescent Behaviour."

Dr. Burton reminded the audience that the adolescent is faced with many problems and needs sympathetic understanding and guidance and help from parents and teachers. The greatest danger for young people, emerging into new experiences, Dr. Burton pointed out, comes from the fact that they are not provided with enough healthy outlets to make best use of their boundless energies, and from the cleavage that results from lack of adult understanding. He stated that the curve of adolescent delinquency bears a direct relationship to the amount and kind of facilities provided for activities and interest suitable to the needs of the group.

Dr. Burton discussed the warning emotions that are typical aspects of adolescents, such as the fact that they are awkward at one moment and beautifully graceful the next; that they are completely selfish, yet at times noble; respectful and impudent; idealistic and materialistic; narrow-minded, yet tolerant. The adult who is impatient of mistakes, who laughs at his ineptitude, Dr. Burton pointed out, makes the youth feel misunderstood and is a direct reason for many behaviour problems.

Parents should realize, Dr. Burton stated, that adolescents develop a natural and normal interest in the opposite sex, an inevitable biological fact which should be met with sympathy, understanding and a reasonable explanation of facts.

Adolescents need opportunity to expand their scope of experience, to improve their judgement, to build self-respect, Dr. Burton concluded, and teachers and parents who develop the patience and acquire the understanding to cope with adolescent behaviorisms can become an astounding influence in producing worthwhile adults.

NEWTON FIRE DEPARTMENT

FIRE PREVENTION SERVICE

With coming of the cool fall days and evenings comes the added danger of life and property through the use of the small portable oil burning kerosene space heaters. While they are convenient to take away the slight chill they require special attention to insure their safe operation.

There are several reasons why the danger may be increased this coming season. The most important one is the coal situation and its high prices. This may cause many families to seek out the old portable heater which after being in storage for sometime may be far from safe to use. No one can tell by a casual glance how far the rust has eaten into its construction or if the seams will hold without leaking. These heaters must be thoroughly taken apart and examined and cleaned, removing all traces of rust and corrosion to make sure that it is safe to use.

One of the features of great importance is the latch or catch on the portable heating unit to make sure that it will hold securely when fastened. Many of these portable units are of such construction that when they are picked up by the handle, the catch if not tight may release and allow the heater to open. This often results in either spilling the oil out of the front, or allows the fount and the burner to fall out, spreading the oil and fire about if the burner is in operation.

Another important feature is to make sure that the base or legs are firm and that they are all there and securely attached, that all of the parts holding the heater together are properly tightened. Missing bolts or screws should be replaced. The ease which one of these heaters can be tipped over should be considered before being purchased. No portable heating unit should be placed in a location where it will be easy to hit it and knock it over.

Burners of such kerosene units should be kept clean for the sake of safety and economical operation. They should be cleaned periodically so that they will not begin to get dirty and clogged newed and kept trimmed and with soot. Wicks should be replaced. If parts become worn or damaged they should be replaced promptly. Operation of a clogged or dirty burner interferes with the proper combustion of the fuel and generally results in the production of excessive odors, or may even result in the production of toxic gases which if concentrated enough could cause asphyxiation.

Now for the greatest danger of all—the cause that has resulted in untold number of deaths. That is the practice of carrying these heaters, while they are still lighted, from room to room, or up and down stairs. Even moving these heaters from one section of a room to another while lighter, can be hazardous if there are small children there moving around the room.

Several serious losses of life have occurred in the past few years due to moving portable heating units while lighted. In one case, while carrying a lighted heater down stairs, the person stumbled and the heater rolled down the stairs, quickly cutting off all of the people upstairs.

A few rules to govern the safe use of this type of heater are as follows:

Thoroughly inspect and clean it each fall before using it. Replace doubtful looking parts at once. When in doubt have an experienced person inspect it.

Keep it clean and free of dirt, oil, and soot at all times.

Never place it near curtains, tablecloths or other combustible materials or under them.

Never place it where it can be knocked over or where it might cut off the path of escape.

Never fill it while it is still burning. The vapors may ignite and explode.

Never use it in a room with all of the doors and windows closed. It needs air to burn correctly.

Never leave it when it is first lighted, be sure that the wick is properly adjusted and that it is burning correctly.

Always replenish the fuel in a safe location.

NEWTON IN THE PAST

From the Files of The Newton Graphic

55 Years Ago, Nov. 18, 1892
ADV. MILLINERY
Large assortment of trimmed hats and bonnets. Moderate prices at Mrs. M. J. Penderghast's Main Street, Watertown.

NEWTON — Hadley Kinder wheeled Leverett Bentley from Newton Square to Newtonville and return on an election bet. They were accompanied by tin horns, horse pistols and tin cans. After the promenade a light collation was served at the residence of Mr. Henry Cutler on Washington Street, Newton. The affair lasted until about 10:30 p.m.

NEWTONVILLE — Mr. J. W. Stanley of Shaw Street departed a few days ago for Germany where he is to pass a few weeks, dividing his time among the principal cities.

A well-known party in this place traded watches Saturday and got rather the small end of the bargain. The watch he received in return gains time very fast; he said it is already into next week and by Christmas time it will be time for the World's Fair to open again.

50 Years Ago, Nov. 19, 1897
NEWTON — The old hydrant and telephone pole in the middle of Nonantum square have been moved this week.

The Boston Globe had an illustrated article, this morning, on the handsome bronze fountain Mr. C. Bowditch Coffin has given to the city, to be located at the corner of Washington and Adams Streets. The fountain is to be surmounted by an electric light.

WEST NEWTON — Last Friday afternoon, Mary Higgins, 9 years old, wandered from her home on West Pine Street and was reported missing to the police. She was found later in Waltham and returned to her parents.

NEWTON UPPER FALLS — Walter Chambers has taken a position in the Needham bicycle factory.

35 Years Ago, November 22, 1912

UPPER FALLS — On Thursday evening the Mohawk Boat and Canoe Club, with their lady friends held a bowling party at Odd Fellow's Bowling Alleys, Newton Highlands.

WEST NEWTON — The fourth grand ball of the Newton Police Benefit Association will be held this evening at the State armory on Washington Street.

LOWER FALLS — Despite the stormy weather a very successful candy sale was held at the Hamilton School last Thursday evening and a good sum realized toward the desired purchase of a lantern and slides.

AUBURNDALE — The Hathaway Bakery wagon was struck by an electric car Monday morning on Lexington street and was quite badly damaged, and the horse was slightly injured.

Newtonville Junior Woman's Club

At a recent meeting of the Newtonville Junior Woman's Club the motion picture entitled "It's Your Call" was shown under the auspices of the Newton Chapter of the American Red Cross to the largest group of the year. The film was enthusiastically received by those present; especially since upon several occasions the Newtonville Juniors have made trips to Cushing Veterans' Administration Hospital in order to entertain and cheer those veterans who are hospitalized there.

Mrs. E. Graham Bates, Chairman of Public Information for the Newton Chapter of the American Red Cross, added to the audience's appreciation of the great work being done by the Newton Chapter of the American Red Cross by commenting on several lesser-known phases of volunteer work. Among these was the program of training women for home-visiting Gray Lady service which is still in its experimental stages and is creating national interest.

Bits From Bigelow

Bigelow Wins First Victory

The Bigelow Junior High football team, coming from behind in the second period, won their first game of the season by defeating F. A. Day Junior High, 20-12. Day scored in the first period when Shaw caught a fifteen yard pass on the one yard line. Bigelow came back again in that stanza when Wilkie threw a pass to Boole who caught it on the five yard line and went "over the dirt" to pay. Gardner place kicked the conversion to put Bigelow ahead. All during the second period kicking was the highlight with neither team doing much on the ground. Gardner, a lineman for Bigelow, met with an injury, but the coaches let him play the second half.

The red and blue from Bigelow scored again in the third period, when, after receiving a punt from midfield, they marched to the nine yard line where Whelan plunged over for the tally. Highlighting the attack was Wilkie's passing down the middle which Day could not stop. Gardner again kicked the point. In that same period Day scored. Bigelow received a punt deep in their own territory, and on the third down a pass from center went over the runner's head. They kicked from their own goal line, but it was a short one, and Day had the ball in Bigelow's territory. After three passes failed, Colella took the ball and went twenty-five yards to score. During the fourth period Wilkie of Bigelow took it on a quarterback sneak and scored. Whelan and Shannon carried for sizeable gains during that march which started from their own forty-five yard line. Day, in desperation, started to throw passes in a vain effort to score, but the small pass defenders from Bigelow held off until the end.

The Student Council meeting held on Monday, November 10, 1947, consisted of the discussion on having a special bus to take the students to and from the games. Mr. Pray informed us that transportation would include the basketball and football season also.

A committee was chosen to visit the other junior high schools and find out when they elect their class officers, also the duties of the officers. The committee consists of Ann Johnson, Barbara Larsen, Alan Salt, and Frank Avantaggio.

The Student Council which is in charge of the assembly on December 4, 1947, has decided to have a demonstration on "Fire Prevention".

The Assembly Crew have asked if they may have arm bands like those of the Student Patrol. Their request will be answered at the last meeting.

The past week the Junior Red Cross Council has been collecting money for the Red Cross Drive. Each room has a special goal which they try to reach. This is not compulsory. Every child gives, however, approximately ten to fifty cents. Right now room 213 is ahead and has been for almost every day. They now have $8.14. Room 116 is next with $7.50. There have been numerous odd ways to get the money, but Wednesday one of the teachers, who shall remain anonymous, brought in a bank with a pushbutton effect. It was to be used for collecting the money. It seemed to be a good idea because one room, whose source of supply had been quite well exhausted, got a total of $1.74 from it. Final results will be given to the press next week.

IIA has been working for the last few weeks on an art project. Three people made figures and clothed them. One half of the group made stage sets while the others made rooms. We had a choice of cut paper, paint, or material to be put over the oak tag as a finish. Some of the things people made in the stage sets are Romeo and Juliet, a concert stage with a grand piano, a kitchen, and an outdoor gypsy scene. While some of the people were still working, the ones that had completed their sets wrote about their projects.

An Armistice Day assembly was given by Division A of the seventh grade. It consisted of an original poem, "For Liberty, Life, and Peace," by Margaret Antonelli and a play which was written by the students, showing the right attitude toward Armistice Day. It took place in a hospital ward where there was a discussion of whether the holidays should be celebrated or not.

The cast included Joe Clark, Skip Cole, Derry Breault, Charlie Cocotas, Robert Crehan, and Richard Allen as disabled veterans of World War, with Carol Collins, Donna Craddock, Joan Connors, and Lorraine Brenner portraying nurses. James Curtin was the announcer. Solos on taps were played by Bruce Barber and Victor Brogan.

In art divisions 8-B and 8-D the pupils under the instruction of Miss Chase, the art teacher, are making dolls to represent the United Nations Organization. They are for the Seventh Grade Social Studies Museum. Before they started, the pupils went to the library for research to be absolutely sure the dolls would be correct. They are made of stockings and wire and are very unique. The heads and bodies are stuffed with cotton, and little faces are embroidered on the dolls. Costumes are made by the pupils according to the manner in which people of various countries dress in modern time.

George Larkin reports, "This week I am telling how we got our squads in physical education and why we have them. In the eighth grade there are four divisions, but only two go to gym at one time. The two divisions decided to elect four squad leaders and have four squads. After the squad leaders had been elected, they selected their squads."

We decided to have squads because if we did not have them, the gym teacher would not have any definite way to decide who would play whom. By doing this we save valuable time for playing.

Girls' Leader Corps meet every Tuesday morning first period. At the last meetings we played basketball, eighth grade versus ninth grade. We have played four games, and the ninth grade has won three. Helene Watts reports, "On Thursday, November 13, one of the divisions of the seventh grade took a tour of the Christian Science Monitor Building. They found the mapparium very interesting and educational. The seventh grade class of the Bigelow Junior High School went on a trip Thursday, November 7, to the Babson Institute. They saw the largest and most accurate map of the United States, Miss Gubellini told the group how the map was constructed and explained the various colors. They also looked at Mr. Babson's collection of maps which date back as far as the fifteen hundreds. These were of interest to the group as they have been studying maps. The transportation was provided by Mrs. William E. Ward. Mrs. John R. Swanton Jr., Mrs. George H. Larsen, and Mr. H. Edgar Pray, principal. By Jean Van Buskirk

MEATLESS MEAL SUGGESTION

Chili Lima Beans is one suggestion for serving dried beans in an interesting, tasty way. Your family will heartily enjoy this delicious, satisfying dish. Use dried peas and beans once or twice a week in place of meat—they contain protein for good muscle growth and repair; iron for healthy blood; thiamin for better appetite, digestion, and good growth. Chili Lima Beans will help stretch your food dollar while you are cooperating with the Food Conservation Program. Try this unusual recipe for your main dish on Meatless Tuesday.

CHILI LIMA BEANS
(From "The Countryman's Cookbook" by Haydn S. Pearson, Whittlesby House)
1 pound dried lima beans 1 teaspoon chili powder
4 onions chopped 1½ teaspoons salt
2 tablespoons fat to fry onions 2 cups tomatoes
2 teaspoon sugar ½ pound grated cheese
Boil beans after soaking overnight. Cook onions in fat, then simmer in tomatoes. Combine with all other ingredients. Place in a casserole and bake ½ hour in a 350-degree oven. Sprinkle with cheese.

Change in Time for Course on Baby Care

Announcement comes from Mrs. Chester M. Alter, Chairman of Home Nursing, that the coming course announced last week on Mother and Baby Care has been changed from a morning to an evening schedule. It will be given on Mondays and Wednesdays for three weeks beginning on December 1st.

The course is taught by a registered nurse especially trained in modern teaching methods. Through hearing, telling and doing, efficient procedures in baby care are firmly fixed in the minds of the class members. Young mothers acquire a new confidence in the proper handling and care of a small baby.

Lydia Partridge Whiting Chapter

On Tuesday, November 25, the Lydia Partridge Whiting Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will hold its regular monthly meeting at the Newton Highlands Workshop. Mrs. Loren F. Fletcher and her committee will serve a dessert luncheon at 1:15. Mrs. Albion H. Brown and Miss Marion B. Morse will be hostesses. The business meeting will follow at 2 o'clock with Miss Mercedes Torr, Regent, presiding. Mrs. Milburn E. Yeager, State Chairman of Conservation, is to speak briefly on the work of her committee. A musical program will be given by the Misses Helen and Eleanor Siranossian, violinist and pianist.

The chapter is anticipating the annual Book Review to be given by Mrs. Marion T. Rudkin, on Tuesday, December 9th.

Rev. MacCorkle, new Pastor at Immanuel Baptist Church

Rev. Douglas Beals MacCorkle has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Immanuel Baptist Church, Newton, and will assume his new duties on Sunday, November 23rd.

Mr. MacCorkle was graduated from the Dorchester High School in 1932 and prior to his call to the ministry he was employed as a commercial artist by the Health Food Chain Stores of New England and studied at the New England Commercial Art School.

He was graduated from Gordon College of Theology and Missions in 1944 with the degree of Bachelor of Arts in 1944. While studying at Gordon he held the pastorate of the Grassmere Baptist Church in Goffstown, New Hampshire and served as chaplain of the Hillsboro Hospital, ministering to 450 patients.

After graduating from Gordon College, he resigned his pastorate at the Grassmere Church and entered Dallas Theological Seminary in Dallas, Texas from which he was graduated with honors in May, 1947, with the degree of Master of Theology.

In July, 1947, he was ordained to the ministry in the Second Baptist Church, Auburn, New York.

Rev. Douglas B. MacCorkle

in Paris, Texas which he since resigned to accept the call to the Newton church.

On November 28, 1939, Mr. MacCorkle was married to Miss Jeanette Astle in Boston. They have two children, a son David, six, and a daughter Judy, 15 months. Mrs. MacCorkle is a graduate of the New England Conservatory and attended Gordon College.

That's My Boy

A 16-year-old boy in Denmark is reported to have more than 100,000 descendants. Most of these descendants, of course, were a result of artificial breeding through sons and grandsons.

WEDDINGS

Hastings - Leonard

In St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Dedham on Sunday afternoon, Miss Jane Leonard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Leonard of Islington became the bride of Alan Emsign Hastings, son of Mr. Marion Hastings of 295 Central Street, Auburndale, and Wellwood Hastings of Brooklyn, New York.

Rev. Richard P. McClintock performed the double ring ceremony which was followed by a reception in the Parish House.

With her gown of white satin the bride wore a veil of tulle and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Miss Ariel S. Leonard, the maid of honor, wore a gown of American Beauty and carried a matching bouquet. The bridesmaids, Miss Pearl Hirschen of Dorchester and Miss Patricia Leonard of Falmouth were gowned alike in rose and light blue and carried carnations. The flower girl, Miss Dorothea Latimer, wore a dress of white satin and carried pink carnations. Hugh Latimer served as ring bearer.

Horace T. Bunker was the best man and the ushers were Gardner Bullard and Richard Messier.

The bride was graduated from the Westwood High School and attended the University of Massachusetts School of Fine Arts. On their return from a wedding trip to New Hampshire, Mr. and Mrs. Hastings will reside at 46 Washington Street, Islington.

Extrom - Wilson

At a candlelight service on Saturday November 8, at the Methodist Church in Alexandria Bay, N. Y., Miss Virginia deLuce Wilson became the bride of Mr. Andrew Carl Extrom, son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Extrom of Syracuse, N. Y. The three thirty o'clock ceremony conducted by the Rev. Lisle Bentley Caldwell was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Royal C. Garlock who were the only attendants.

The bride wore a two-piece wool suit, the skirt of dark brown and the coat of ice blue elaborately trimmed with gold braid, a small brown hat with veil, and a purple orchid on her wrist. Mrs. Garlock, as matron of honor, wore a claret ensemble with a corsage of gardenias and talisman roses.

Mrs. Extrom, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Wilson of Auburndale, graduated from Newton High School and attended the Bishop Lee School of the Theatre. She has had a varied career on the stage screen, and radio. During the war, the groom served with the Navy in the Pacific, and is now with the New York Telephone Company.

After a wedding trip through the Adirondacks and New England the couple plan to live in Syracuse.

Fabiano - Romagnoli

In St. Bernard's Church, West Newton on Sunday afternoon, Miss Beatrice E. Romagnoli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor G. Romagnoli of 123 Auburn St., Auburndale was married to Rose Fabiano, son of Mrs. Rose Fabiano of 312 Princeton Street, East Boston. A reception followed at the Auburndale Club.

The bride wore a gown of ivory satin and a long veil caught to a headpiece of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white roses and sweet peas with an orchid centre. The maid of honor, Miss Mary Cochrane of West Newton, wore a gown of blue moire taffeta and carried a Colonial bouquet. The bridesmaids, Miss Aurelia Dumont of Lewiston, Maine and Mrs. William Jepsen of West Newton, wore fuchsia moire taffeta and carried Colonial bouquets.

Frank Fabiano served as best man for his brother. The ushers were Sam Chiulli of Boston and Louis Spina of East Boston, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

On their return from a wedding trip to New York Mr. and Mrs. Fabiano will reside in Auburndale.

Loring - Farley

On Sunday, November 16, at 4 o'clock ceremony performed in the Auburndale Congregational Church, Miss Tatiana Farley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Judd Farley of Acton, formerly of Auburndale, was married to Mr. John Hayes Loring II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Loring of West Concord. The Rev. Ralph H. Rogers officiated, and a reception at the Parish House followed.

The bride wore an ivory faille gown, while her attendants were dressed in blue and dusty rose. They were Miss Natasha Farley as maid of honor, and Mrs. Wilson Bursaw (Sonya Farley), both sisters of the bride. Mr. Howard Loring, brother of the groom acted as best man, while the ushers included Mr. Charles Judd Farley, Jr., brother of the bride, and Mr. Robert Loring, another brother of the groom.

Following their return from New York, the couple will live on Nagog Hill road, Acton.

ANNAMAE GRAUBAUGH

Engaged in Japan

FIFTH AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS, Nagoya, Japan — (Special to the Graphic) — Mr. Roy F. Graubaug of 52 Aberdeen street, Newton Highlands, recently made the announcement of the engagement of his daughter, Annamae, to First Lieutenant James E. Green Jr., son of Mr. J. E. Green of Handley Station, Fort Worth, Texas. The wedding will be a formal candlelight ceremony in the Fifth Air Force Chapel in Nagoya, Japan, the latter part of November.

A civilian employed by the Department of the Army, Miss Graubaug arrived at Fifth Air Force Headquarters in Nagoya, Japan, after a 52-day voyage through the Panama Canal and Honolulu in October of 1946. She was then assigned to the Communications Section as a secretary and is currently secretary to the Commanding Officer of Nagoya Air Base.

Miss Graubaug, a graduate of Newton High School, studied at the New England School of Art and the Boston Conservatory of Music. She was employed by the American Mutual Liability Insurance Company in Boston before she left for Japan.

Lieutenant Green, Officer in Charge of the Flight Section of the 20th Weather Squadron Headquarters, received his commission at Luke Field, Phoenix, Arizona, in 1944. Before he received his present assignment with the Fifth Air Force, Lieutenant Green was an overseas ferry and pursuit pilot. A graduate of Handley High School, he attended Texas Technical College for a short time before he entered the military service.

Miss Graubaug's brother, Roy H. Graubaug, was a corporal in the Marines and has resided at 52 Aberdeen street since his discharge.

RECENT DEATHS

Leonard Spence

Leonard Spence, husband of Mrs. Jane (Grant) Spence, and former holder of ten national swimming championships, died on Monday, November 10, at the Grasslands Hospital, Valhalla, New York, after an illness of two years. His home was at Miami Beach, Florida.

Mr. Spence was in his 39th year. He was the youngest of the three Spence brothers who dominated American swimming from 1930 to 1935. He specialized in breaking records for the 220 yard breast stroke event and first came to general attention in New York in 1930 when he won the Metropolitan A. A. U. junior title at 2:46.4 and the next day won the senior title in the same event. Later that year he set a new world record of 2:44.8 in the Lido Country Club Pool, Long Beach, L. I. The following year as a student at Rutgers Preparatory School he broke two intercollegiate records for the 220 yard free style and the 100 yard breast stroke, and in 1932, swimming for the New York Athletic Club, he made world records in the 100 and 200 meter and the 100 yard breast stroke. In 1933, 1934 and 1935 he set a world's record in several other swimming events and in 1936 swam for Bermuda in the Olympics. Soon after that he turned professional.

He became swimming coach and tennis coach at Miami Beach in the resort hotels, the Versailles, the President Madison and the McFadden Deauville and also held a similar position at the Quaker Ridge Golf Club at Scarsdale, New York which he joined in 1944.

Mr. Spence and his brothers were born at Christianburg, British Guiana where they learned to swim in the Demerara River, near the plantation owned by their father. Leonard Spence was the last of the three brothers to come to this country and he became an American citizen in 1938.

Besides his wife who is the daughter of Frank M. Grant City Clerk of Newton, and Mrs. Grant, he leaves a son, Richard Spence, a daughter, Gail, his brothers, Walter and Wallace Spence, and four sisters, Mrs. Mary McClave, Mrs. Lucy Driver, Mrs. Anita Kaufman and Mrs. Dora Walton, and his mother, Mrs. David J. Spence. Another brother, Harold, was killed in 1943 while serving with the Royal Air Force.

T. Kenyon Holly

Funeral services for T. Kenyon Holly of 45 Fairlee Road, Waban, president of the Holly Shoe Company of Littleton, New Hampshire were held at the Waterman Chapel, 495 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. Burial was in Littleton.

Mr. Holly who was in his 49th year died on Saturday, November 15, following a brief illness. He was vice-president of the Boston Boot and Shoe Club, second vice president of the 210 Associates, a director of the New England Shoe and Leather Association, and chairman of the New England Shoe Market.

Upper Falls
Improvement Assn.
To Meet

On Monday evening, November
24 the Newton Upper Falls Improvement Association will hold its regular meeting at 8 o'clock in the Emerson School. This and all subsequent meetings will be held in the Voting Room in the basement instead of in the Auditorium on the third floor. It is expected that more will attend the meetings in the future on account of this change.

Mr. Harold Young, Street Commissioner of Newton, will be the guest speaker and his message should be of interest to the Association.

The season so far has been quite successful and several improvements are now in process and are before the proper city and industrial authorities. A drive for membership is underway and it is the hope of the President, George H. Ferran, that 600 members can be enrolled as with a strong treasury and large membership he feels that much can be accomplished.

A Turkey Whist and Bridge is being held this Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the Emerson School basement for the benefit of the association and it is hoped there will be a large attendance.

Snow Village Fair
At Normandie Room

"Snow Village", the Church of the Messiah Parish Fair, will be held at the Normandie Room of Norumbega Park on Friday, December 5th from 10 in the morning till 10 at night. Mr. Maurice S. Ricker of 107 Grove Street is general chairman.

Plans have been formulated since last spring for this assist in Christmas shopping. Included among the many gifts available will be special tables arranged for white elephants, plants, fancy work, novelties, aprons, candies, food and grab bags.

A Snack Bar, which will be open for lunch and throughout the day, will be supplemented by the "Chowder Counter" for the evening meal. Entertainment especially prepared for the Fair will be presented at eight o'clock.

Mrs. Cullen Named
Acting Comptroller

Mrs. Ebba C. Cullen, who has served in the office of the comptroller for 27 years, was yesterday named acting comptroller by Mayor Paul M. Goddard.

The vacancy was caused by the election of Comptroller Archie R. Whitman to the post of city treasurer. Mr. Whitman assumed his duties as treasurer yesterday.

Mrs. Cullen, who lives at 10
Lindbergh avenue, West Newton, was secretary to the comptroller and on the retirement of Daniel White was acting comptroller until Whitman's appointment.
An aldermanic committee, comprising Kenneth D. McCutcheon, Theodore R. Lockwood and Franklin K. Hoyt, has been appointed to recommend the election of a permanent comptroller.

Rotary Club

At the meeting of the Newton
Rotary Club on Monday at the Brae Burn Country Club, Roger Weeks, investment counselor, gave a clear presentation of the program of the Massachusetts Citizens Union, showing the need for a united Union to initiate and support corrective measures of equal benefit to labor and management.

Mr. Weeks told us of the varying experiences of businessmen, union members, and public officials which pointed to the annoyance of some labor bosses who have a stranglehold on their industries, such as the fishing industry, the longshoremen industry, and others. Massachusetts
Citizens Union, for whom Mr.
Weeks is Field Director, is circulating petitions to place before the Legislature, and subsequently by the voters of the State the problems involved in the calling of strikes, of electing union officers, and of barring persons from employment through closed unions.

The three bills they are presenting are briefly outlined as follows:

1. An act requiring that members of labor unions have a voice in nominating their officers, and that voting on them shall be by secret written ballot.

2. An act requiring that no strike shall be authorized unless a majority of union members have so voted by secret written ballot.

3. An act prohibiting compulsory union membership and outlawing the closed shop in all its forms.

By Pack 1, Mrs. James Miller,
Den Mother, Dens 1, 2, 4 and 6 gave their Dens' cheers and individual Den acts. Both Chairman Barraford and Cubmaster Stahl made earnest appeals for Den Mothers for the 30 boys in the Pack now lacking the weekly guidance. Henry Gill, Secretary of the Cub Scouting Committee, acted as stage director.

F. A. Day Jr. High 'News of the Day'

The Frank A. Day Eighth Grade Drama Elective Group presented its first play or the season, "Buddy Buys an Orchid", at the Wednesday morning assembly, under the direction of Miss Mary G. Gianferante. Mrs. Lorraine F. Holmes, Miss Catherine M. Tobin, and Mr. Robert Carr assisted with make-up, costumes, and properties. Lea Cronin, the assembly chairman, led the school in the flag salute. Mr. Vincent Jurgielewicz led the singing of "America the Beautiful" before Gloria DeMarco announced the following cast: Buddy, Frank Gilligan; Mrs. Bradley, his mother, Anna DeLuca; Aleda, his sister, Ivy Morrison; Belle, the maid, Maddison Cowles; and Bill, Aleda's friend, Robert Battista. Karen Baldry was student coach, Beverly Gamble and Helen Dionis were in charge of properties, while Sandra MacDougall, Joan Arcese, and Carol Bram managed the lights and sound effects.

The Junior Red Cross Membership Campaign, which ended on Friday, reached the goal of 100 per cent membership on the final day of the drive; every pupil made some contribution. There was great interest during the week in the results which appeared on the main bulletin board each afternoon where a cardboard horse representing each home room moved forward toward the finish line. Home Rooms 20, 23, 27, and 18 were very close to each other all week long until Home Room 20 stepped ahead on Friday to lead all of the rooms. The F. A. Day pupils raised over $150 in this drive. The pupils gave an average of thirty-eight cents and this per capita rating was very high among the other junior high schools of Newton. Miss Mary G. Gianferante directed the drive and Dan Lewin and Carol Bram collected the money and kept the records on order.

Mr. Walter H. Sears and Miss Helen L. Spelman have begun the organization of the seventh grade and the following pupils have signed their intention of running for class officers: Anthony Bibbo, Carl Crosby, Peggy McMurter, Eli nor Horvigan, Kathleen Sweeney, Janet Boudreau, Martin Dorenbaum, Patricia Hood, Daniel Pellegrini, Harriet Maxey, Virginia Chase, Phillip Simons, Carolyn Caswell, Judith MacCreedy, Patricia Panggior, Richard Swartz, and Bruce MacDonald.

The football games scheduled for Friday were postponed until Monday when Day and Weeks will meet at the Weeks field. The final games of the season will take place on Friday with Day meeting Warren at Warren. In the tag football league Room 18 rolled over Room 25 by a 33 to 6 score. The girls' field hockey teams played two games during the week, the Ninth Grade first team winning from the Eighth first team by 2 to 0 on two goals by Rita Magnarelli, while the Eighth Grade second team blanked the ninth on a single goal by Catherine Hough.

The newscasters for last week were Nancy Bilezikian and Elizabeth White of the ninth grade, and Barbara Kohn with team with Elizabeth White in this week's broadcasts.

Plans for the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the F. A. Day Junior High School on December 5th are well under way. The co-chairmen for this event are Mr. Addison Cowles and Mrs. Lois Vuyonovich of the Day faculty. Mr. Edwin L. Frye, Miss Marion H. Pratt, and Miss Hattie R. Hinckley are in charge of invitations, many of which will be written by a committee of pupils. Mrs. Vuyonovich will arrange for the pourers at the tea. Mrs. Lorraine F. Holmes with the aid of a P.T.A. group will take care of the decorations. Mr. Cowles will arrange the program. Mr. Vincent Jurgielewicz is to look after the musical entertainment. Miss Joline Bonin will arrange for the refreshments assisted by pupil hostesses un-

MISS GERTRUDE LAWRENCE of Cape Cod, now starring in "Tonight at 8:30" at the Shubert Theater, sells the first 1947 sheet of Christmas Seals to Governor Robert F. Bradford. In so doing Miss Lawrence voices hope that her fellow residents of New England will generously buy and use these Christmas Seals which support the voluntary tuberculosis associations of the Bay State.

Rindge Alumni Dinner, Reunion

The Annual Dinner and Reunion of the Rindge Alumni Association will be held at the Hotel Commander, Garden Street, Cambridge on Tuesday, November 25, at 6:30 p.m.

The program will include recognition of the captains of all sports at Rindge; Baseball movies of the Big League; and an address by Loring R. Kew, Sheriff of Middlesex County, on the work of his office.

The classes of 1897 and 1922 will be honored on their Fiftieth and Twenty-fifth Reunions. The Executive committee enlists support of this dinner. Those wishing to attend should notify the President, Herbert G. Banham, Kirkland 5339 or the Treasurer, Thomas J. Love, MY 7-2551. Tickets will include the dinner, membership in the Alumni Association and will also serve to continue the John W. Wood Scholarship Fund.

Brownie Troop No. 97

Brownie Troop No. 97 progressed from a theatre party to a Halloween Party and then undertook the making of colorful scrapbooks for children at the Peabody Home. These will be finished at the next meeting.

Barbara Athy's team won over Sue Roebuck's team in varied competition by a score of 8 to 2. The new captains for the next three weeks are Anne Halstead and Shirley Shimkus.

der Miss Catherine M. Tobin, and ushers and guides supervised by Miss Agnes M. Peoples and Mr. Jerry R. Angino. The P.T.A. steering committee appointed by Mrs. Keene, the president, are Mrs. Maurice B. Strauss, Mrs. Anthony Arcese, and Mrs. Thomas Cleveland. Miss Hinckley has prepared a service record of Day alumni who were in the armed services during the war. Mr. Cowles and Mr. Scott Brent are in charge of publicity.

For the evening program Mr. Cowles, Mrs. Vuyonovich and Mrs. Holmes make up the main program committee. Miss Paul and Miss Spelman aided by pupils will attend to the invitations. Mr. Jurgielewicz will take charge of the music. Miss Spelman, Nancy Hood, and Glays Harrison are preparing a History of Day. Miss Gianferante, Chalon Carnahan, and Dan Lewin make up a committee on the junior high school movement. Mr. Morse will arrange for the motion pictures and Mr. Alden Read, Mrs. Holmes, and Mrs. Robert Carr are in charge of the radio and lighting arrangements. Miss Peoples, Mr. Angino, Miss Gianferante and Mr. Raymond Holmes are in charge of the ushers.

Harvest Party at Our Lady's High School

Rev. Francis X. Bransfield, spiritual director of the Holy Name Society of Our Lady's Parish, Newton, is chairman of the Gala Harvest Party, which will be held in Our Lady's High School auditorium, Washington street, Newton, next Tuesday evening, November 25, at 8:30 p.m.

The feature of the party will be the awarding of a 4-door 1947 Chevrolet sedan, which has been on subscriptions for the past month.

Modern and old fashioned dancing will be provided by Eddie Hanlon and his popular dance orchestra. Mr. Hanlon has been organist for the Holy Name Society and many other church functions through the years. He will have as guest artists, Miss Bernice Roche, talented songstress from Allston, Jerry Shea, noted tenor from Roxbury, and Dave Murray, caller for the old time dances. Other surprise features are being planned.

The proceeds from these events will defray the heavy expenses which Rev. Michael E. Doherty, pastor, incurred in restoring the school buildings this summer. The interior redecoration of the grammar school and by installing a black top parking area this last month.

The committee assisting Rev. Michael E. Doherty and Rev. Francis X. Bransfield is comprised of program committee, Francis J. Murphy, Charles Scipione Jr., Martin E. Conroy, Louis Manzelli, and Richard Sprague. Refreshment committee, Allan McLean, Joseph Calahan, and John Guthrie. Ticket committee, Francis Bradley, Christopher P. Bradley, Bradley Fagan, Dennis Cahill and Ernest Sullivan. Subscription committee on automobile, Charles Scipione Jr., George White, Wilfred Dery, Angelo Accione, and Raymond Davey.

Newtonville

Miss Constance Cleveland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas V. Cleveland, 27 Whitney Road, will play two piano selections at a college musical at Briarcliff Junior College, Briarcliff Manor, New York. Miss Cleveland is a member of the senior class at the College and is a music major.

The program will be given in the Music Studio on Friday evening, November 14, 1947.

Edward D. Canham, Editor of the Christian Science Monitor, world traveler, political writer and news analyst will be the guest speaker at the meeting of the Warren Junior High School Parent-Teachers Association to be held in the school auditorium Monday, November 24 at 8 p.m.

Mr. Canham who was the guest of Pan American World Airways on their inaugural flight around the world in June 1947 will speak on his own experience "Around the World in 93 Hours." Earlier in the same year Mr. Canham made a 25,000 mile tour of the Far East as the guest of the United States Secretary of War, Robert B. Patterson, and had personal interviews with General Douglas MacArthur, Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek, President Roxas of the Philippines and other important leaders. This year he spent the week of October 13 in Paris, France where he attended a meeting of the United Nations Committee on the Free Flow of Information.

All parents, teachers and their guests are invited to share in the unusual privilege of hearing Mr. Canham speak. Admission will be free.

Lieut. Dempsey Receives Citation

A Gold Star in lieu of a Second Air Medal and permanent citation to the award "For meritorious achievement in aerial flight as pilot of a dive bomber in Bombing Squadron TEN, attached to the USS Intrepid, during operations against enemy forces in the vicinity of the Ryukyu Islands and the Japanese homeland from March 18 to 29, 1945. Completing his fifth strike during this period, Lieutenant (jg), (then Ensign) Dempsey contributed materially to the success of his squadron in the infliction of extensive damage on enemy airfields, assembly plants and shore installations. By his skill and devotion to duty, he upheld the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service."

The accompanying citation was signed by James Forrestal, then Secretary of the Navy, acting in the name of the President of the United States.

Tilton Sch. Memorial Fund Drive Here

Mr. Walter Reinstein of 15 Crosby road, Chestnut Hill, chairman for the Tilton School Memorial Building Fund campaign today announced that a drive for funds is to be held among Newton, Newton Center, Newton Highlands, Newtonville, West Newton and Waban alumni and parents during the week beginning Monday, December 1.

Mr. Reinstein has chosen the week of December 1 for personal solicitation calls at the homes of alumni, parents, and friends.

Tilton School seeks $300,000 for a physical training building to be a living memorial to the 47 alumni who died in the war. It will consist of two units, one to contain a baseball cage and gymnasium, and the other a swimming pool, according to Mr. Reinstein who states ground will be broken for the first unit next June provided $150,000 can be raised by that time.

Large enough to accommodate the entire student body of 300 for mass body building exercises, Mr. Reinstein reports the baseball cage plans call for a dirt floor area suitable for indoor practice of other major sports such as football and soccer, and such minor sports as badminton, volleyball, archery and golf. An indoor track will also be provided.

The gymnasium section is planned to contain a standard basketball court, cross-lined into two practice courts and also laid out for paddle tennis, handball

League of Women Voters to Meet

The League of Women Voters of Newton will meet Monday, Nov. 24th at 2 p.m. at the Newton Highlands Workshop. Mrs. John Fairbank, wife of the well-known Harvard professor, will speak on "Conditions of Peace". Mrs. Fairbank spent two years during the war in the service of the Office of War Information in China. She has recently returned from two months in Europe.

After the lecture tea will be served, with Mr. H. Story Granger and Mrs. Lawrence Thurston as hostesses. Pouring will be Mrs. Hans E. Bernt, Mrs. Wm. J. MacDonald, Mrs. S. Murray Jones and Mrs. Harold M. Bowman.

MRS. WILLIAM V. M. FAWCETT

Into the life of each person there is tossed by the passing through many nuggets of wisdom, advice and philosophy. Sometimes these words make no impression in the fertile ground of our minds; other times they are remembered vaguely. Hence an exceedingly rare person is Mrs. William Fawcett of 34 Hyde Avenue, Newton, because she remembers vividly the two long-ago remarks that have greatly influenced and directed her busy life. And 'busy' is a literal term for this president of the Family Service Bureau of Newton and Red Feather Service.

The first remark she has lived by was: "It isn't the amount of time one spends with one's children that counts most. It's how one spends the time she is with them."

And the second principle was: "If one doesn't fit into outside activities while it's a problem to fit them into a busy family schedule, then after the family is grown one finds within herself neither the interest nor the ability to begin."

Such twin ideals in vivacious Barbara Conger Fawcett have created a happy, energetic family life in the large white Fawcett home. A graduate of the Baldwin School at Bryn Mawr and former student at Wellesley College, she brings a midwestern charm and pep into her life in Newton. Her hair is short and curly, her eyes very blue. A lover of horses and sailing, she naturally prefers tailored clothes designed for active sports. And it is unusual to think of her except in motion, planned and purposeful.

Mr. Fawcett, president and treasurer of the Frederick J. Fawcett Co. linen yarn importers, matches his wife in civic work. Their three sons follow the parental pattern. Bill Jr., a graduate of the Loomis School and a Life Scout, is now studying at Williams following two years in the Navy. Freddy, an upper mid-dler at Andover, is an Eagle Scout. He attended the Scout World Jamboree in France last summer. And Conger, a first class Scout, is in the Bigelow Junior High School. Conger led the winning patrol at the Norumbega Council of Boy Scouts last spring. He was also one of two Newton youngsters sent to Cleveland for the National Junior Red Cross Convention. And all three boys have won a choir cross for their cooperation at Grace Episcopal Church.

Only a good organizer could manage the manifold jobs Mrs. Fawcett has undertaken. But remember! Outside activities plus an active family life are part of her creed! She had many acting assignments with the Newton Players; was a graduate of the first Parent Education Course given by Mrs. T. Grafton Abbott; helped organize Newton Adult Education courses for six years; was a member of the original Newton Community Council Board; was chairman of the Special Events Committee of the Newton Community Chest for five years; Cub Scout Den Mother for nine years; Commissioner of Newton Local Council Girl

MRS. WM. V. M. FAWCETT

Scouts for three years; on the Massachusetts Girl Scout Board for five years; and is at present a director of Stone Institute, vice-president of the Newton District Nursing Association and president of the Family Service Bureau of Newton.

Perhaps such a list leaves a reader breathless—but not Mrs. Fawcett! In the future she is planning to paint furniture in their new summer home at Annisquam, practice on the piano, go in for gardening and be a good housekeeper. As she laughingly explains: "I know how housework should be done but there's not quite enough time to do it that way!"

In complete understanding I listened as she told about the Family Service Bureau. "I dropped by its headquarters for material to write a skit, became interested in its wonderful way of solving family problems and have been on the board ever since. As you may remember it started as the Newton Welfare Association which gave money for fuel and food to needy people. Today that is only one of its functions. In keeping with the national trend the name has become the Family Service Bureau. You see more and more people in middle and upper income groups are finding that early consultation with a case worker about family problems prevents serious trouble later on. The increasing number of people seeking advice only is indicated by the fact that only about one third of them ask financial assistance."

"Then you have many personality problems?" "Yes, they cause as much trouble as anything else. But everyone has problems. Be it a family problem, a child problem or a health problem. Sometimes these situations become unbearable. Who can understand and advise? Often those closest are the worst ones to ask. The Bureau gives the person, worried and harassed, a chance to 'talk it out' and to plan constructively for the future by helping to lift the load. If Susie is too popular with the wrong people . . . if Jimmy is a problem child at school . . . if mother must go to the hospital alone, then the Bureau is ready to help."

"Is there any charge for advice?"

Volunteer Needs

The Volunteer Service Bureau of the Newton Community Council, a Red Feather Service, seeks to fill the need for volunteers for library cataloguers and supervisors for the Family Service Bureau and the Newton-Wellesley Hospital.

The Family Service Bureau needs a volunteer with library training or experience to catalogue and index a small library of books and professional publications. This is work that is necessary, interesting and which you could do in your spare time if you have had this special training.

The Newton-Wellesley Hospital needs a supervisor for the hospital branch of the Newton Free Library from 2 to 5 p.m. daily. Any healthy woman between the ages of 18 and 50 is eligible. If you have a knowledge of books and like to meet people this is the volunteer service for you.

Just a few hours of your time each week devoted to this volunteer service will mean that many people will benefit. If you qualify for these jobs, and have free time each week to devote to a worthwhile cause, call the Newton Community Council, LAsell 7-5121 for further information today!

Exhibit of Proposed Veterans Housing Project at City Hall

There will be an exhibit at City Hall in the Veterans Service Department, from the First of December to the twelfth, of the proposed plan for Veterans Housing in the City of Newton. The plan to build 367 single houses for veterans in the Oak Hill district has been discussed and tentative plans for building have been formed.

This display at City Hall will feature street plans, sketches of the houses as they will look when erected, and floor plans of the houses.

The basic house will either sell for approximately $7500 or will rent to veterans for approximately $65.00 a month. It will be a 3-bedroom house, bungalow type, ultra modern in design with radiant heat, and complete with stove and cabinet

City Pays Homage to Newton War Dead as Bodies of Pfc. Colella, Pfc. Lombardi Arrive

PFC. COLELLA and PFC. LOMBARDI lie in state in the Hall of Flags at City Hall.

Newton paid solemn tribute to its War dead Monday afternoon when two flag draped caskets bearing the bodies of Pfc. George A. Lombardi and Pfc. Rosario Colella, the first to arrive here from Europe, were taken off the train at the Newton railroad station where they were met by a guard of honor, their relatives and a group of Newton residents and business men.

Led by a motorcycle escort the cortege moved along Washington street to Newtonville where it was met by details from the Newton Police and Fire departments. Mayor Paul M. Goddard and city officials, members of the Board of Aldermen, Company

K. M.N.G., the Newton Legion Guard, representatives of all the Newton veterans organizations and the Newton High School Band. Major J. Joseph Ward was in charge of arrangements and Frank De Gregoria acted as sergeant-at-arms. The line of march was over Walnut street to the Newton City Hall where the bodies of the two veterans lay in state in the Hall of Flags of the War Memorial Building until Tuesday morning when re-burial services were held.

Several thousand persons lined the streets along which the procession passed. Stores were closed and church bells were tolled and at the Clafin School and Newton High and Trade schools the pupils stood at attention as the cortege passed by.

Savings Combats Inflation

One item in the President's message on inflation has not received the publicity it deserves. He said:

"Another effective weapon against inflation is increased savings by the public. Every dollar that is saved instead of spent is a dollar fighting against inflation. In order to encourage additional savings, the Government should intensify its vigorous efforts to sell Savings Bonds."

That statement needs no explanation or debate; it only needs putting into action.

Fortunately, the United States Savings Bonds Division of the Treasury Department has the nucleus of an organization—less than one-fifth what it had during the Victory Loan—to advertise and promote the sale of more Savings Bonds. It has a small force in Massachusetts to guide and service the volunteers who sell the bonds. The few brooms it has had to help sweep back the tide of inflation have been effectively used in 1946-47, as the record shows. Since the Victory Loan at the end of 1945 more than $13.5 billion in cash has been put away in Savings Bonds by Americans, more than $509 million of it by citizens of Massachusetts. That is all to the good, but it is not good enough.

To expand its program the Savings Bond Division needs more volunteer help, and that means more help in this community. Everyone who works for more bond sales is helping to keep prices down by taking surplus cash out of the way of the temptation to spend it unnecessarily and helping to build up reserves of purchasing power for the future, when each dollar should buy more and when its spending will help keep business, trade and employment from sagging. What we all want is a more stable economy; not boom times followed by depression but good times at all times. Personal thrift, each American saving all he can while he can, is direct action toward attaining personal and national security.

Why World Law?

(This is the second of a series of articles which the Newton Graphic is running on various phases of world government in the hope of stimulating interest and discussion on this vital subject.)

We are told by the scientists that Atom Bombs will shortly be 1,000 times worse than the early ones! That in the next war the side that shoots first will win! and That it is merely a question of time before other nations will have the atom secret.

Bacteriological weapons, we are told by the experts, are almost as bad or are worse than atomic weapons.

In any case the evidence seems clear that future world wars must be avoided.

The vital question remains — "How is this to be done?"

In our previous article we gave a number of quotations from prominent Committees and groups to the effect that some form of world law or world government must be established if a future war is to be prevented and civilization is to survive.

Why all this recent discussion about world law and world government? It is not because people like government for its own sake but rather because they are becoming convinced that only through a superior law, which can and will control the new weapons of mass destruction, can an armaments race followed by a third and, for our civilization, a final world war be avoided.

But is world law necessary? Can't we make the present international structure work through agreements between sovereign states or through the United Nations?

History teaches us that contacts between competing sovereign states have invariably been the cause of war. When sovereignty rested in tribal chiefs, there were wars between the tribes. Sovereignty in feudal lords was accompanied by wars between feudal estates.

Later sovereign cities fought other sovereign cities, and sovereign dynasties fought sovereign dynasties. Today sovereign rests in nations and we have wars between the nations.

Never, as long as competing social groups retained their equal sovereignty, has it been possible for any considerable length of time to prevent wars between them. Treaties, leagues and diplomacy have all been tried and have failed. But history is full of instances where, as soon as sovereign groups got together and transferred a portion of their sovereignty to a higher social unit—thereby creating a superior law enforced by a superior government—wars between the groups on that level ceased immediately and forever.

Wars between sovereign cities ceased when they came under the laws of superior states. Wars between feudal lords stopped when they transferred their allegiance to kings with a higher and wider system of law. Wars between England, Scotland and Wales ceased as soon as the British sovereign government was created. And numerous other examples could be given.

Today we are threatened with a continuation of wars between sovereign nation states.

If the above analysis is correct, shouldn't we face the necessity of creating a system of law in certain limited fields which will be superior to our present sovereignties, transferring to a higher social unit the power to enforce such law for the purpose of preventing war?

In a later article we will discuss whether the United Nations constitutes such a superior law and if not, whether it can be made to do the job.

Politics With Color

by P. W. C.

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note.)

Economics Simplified

It is a relief to have some public figure come to the fore and state bluntly a few simple economic facts. As the cost of living continues to mount, practically every week and every month and the housing situation continues to be a ghastly tragedy and a national disgrace, and as the poor white-collar worker begins to wonder just when he and his family will go on relief or wind up in the poor-house, up steps Henry J. Kaiser with the brief, but pointed statement that what this country needs and needs desperately is production and more production and then still more production. By the way, how often do we hear our President say anything of consequence about production? A few stilted words occasionally, usually rather vague and harmless from a labor union standpoint.

Now listen to David Lawrence, whose column appears regularly in the Boston Traveler. In discussing the tremendous rise in building costs, he says: "Wages in every one of the building trades have risen considerably and yet the tile setters are producing 50% less work, carpenters 43% less, plumbers 44% less, electricians 41% less, plasterers 37% less, cement finishers 36% less and painters 40% less per man than before the war. The average overall drop in output per man in the building trades is 38%." (Now, please get this.) The wages per hour in the building trades nevertheless are 76% higher than in 1940." Mr. Lawrence then goes on to say this: "How any nation can beat inflation or keep solvent and prevent an economic collapse and depression by insisting on more-pay-for-less-work is one of the questions which goes unanswered. Mostly it is because the facts have been suppressed."

Will some reader who knows the answer to the above facts and figures kindly write to the Newton Graphic and explain this situation? It will be a real public service to throw a little light on this dark and gruesome subject. Surely there must be plenty of intelligent citizens in Newton who can help out by at least giving the other side of the picture.

Republican Candidates

To forestall any criticism that your columnist devotes too much time to the G. O. P. side of the 1948 sweepstakes, let me say that the reason is that the Democrats have not as yet succeeded in uncovering any likely candidate who wants to take a licking in 1948. Also, President Truman has made it quite clear, by indirect means, to be sure, that he is most anxious to give a repeat performance from 1949-1953. If you leave out the name of the present Chief Executive, I doubt if you could find fifty Democrats out of a hundred who would agree on a second choice. A number of cabinet officers would be mentioned and so would a few prominent senators. A few might even claim that either General McArthur or General Eisenhower was really a Democrat.

So let's consider the current Republican situation. The field appears to be wide open. Over a year ago, I believe it was, I listed what I termed the Big Eight among the G. O. P. hopefuls. Three of these eight have already announced publicly that they are candidates for the Republican nomination in June, 1948. They are, in the order of their announcements, Stassen, Taft and Warren. Their respective states are Minnesota, Ohio and California. You will recall, of course, that Ohio and Virginia have produced more Presidents than any other state.

The fourth man in the Big Eight is Gov. Dewey of New York. Technically, he is not as yet a candidate, but anybody with one-half a cerebellum knows that he is even more a candidate, right now, than Gov. Earl Warren, who would be glad to be nominated, but who has no apparent intention of rushing all over the country like Messrs. Stassen and Taft.

What has happened to the other four men listed? One was Senator Bricker of Ohio, who was more or less forced to do an Alphonse and Gaston act for the benefit of Senator Taft, who had graciously retired in Bricker's favor in 1944. Another was Senator Vandenberg of Michigan, who would probably make a fine President, except for his advancing years. The other two men were our own two Senators, Leverett Saltonstall and Henry Cabot Lodge. These men are really in the position of favorite sons and, later on, dark-horses, if and when the G. O. P. convention becomes deadlocked. My present guess is that the 1948 convention will almost surely become deadlocked.

At this point we come to two new men who have only come to the fore within a matter of a few months. I refer, of course, to General Eisenhower and McArthur. Already you can hear weeping and wailing in the White House. A Democrat said to your columnist only a week ago that if the Republicans were able to nominate General Eisenhower, the latter would take Truman like Grant took Richmond. That seems to account for Mr. Truman's great haste in naming General Bradley to succeed General Eisenhower in his present post. When that distinguished gentleman shows signs of getting out, incidentally, it has just been reported that there will be an Eisenhower slate of delegates in New Hampshire. This slate will compete with the Stassen and Dewey slates.

"No, there is not, with the exception of $800, our entire budget of $35,000 comes from the Newton Community Chest. People of all types, even our Directors, come for help. It is a sign of strength when a person comes for aid, realizing a problem can be ironed out but he can't do it alone. More-over each case is handled in confidence. Our files are locked. Names are not disclosed. Oh, the staff in the yellow frame house at 12 Austin street, Newtonville, has healed many an aching heart!"

"And what about your personnel?"

"The Bureau has a long list of hard working Directors—each serving on a committee. Each staff member has been trained by four years of college work plus two of graduate work. They are: Mrs. Catherine R. Holden, executive secretary; Mrs. Dorothea V. Carlisle, case supervisor; Miss Gertrude M. Saulnier, Mrs. Helen Z. Reinherz and Miss Ruth Dawson, case workers; Miss Esther Mayhew Walker is assistant treasurer and office manager; Miss Mary C. Geegan, receptionist and secretary; and Miss Jeanne M. Hoagland, stenographer. Also two students, doing field work under supervision, are glad of the chance for insight into all types of problems."

"Does inadequate housing create much trouble?" I asked.

"Indeed! The lack of low price housing with the resultant doubling up of families causes great friction, regardless of the income bracket. Other causes come from service men adjusting to community life, from families of marginal income, and so on."

"But all people with problems are welcome at 12 Austin street. For the Family Service Bureau is just what the name implies—a service for families. It coordinates and cooperates with all the other Red Feather Agencies, and others besides, to the end that families may become more useful and self-respecting citizens of Newton."

NEWTON NUTRITION CENTER SUGGESTS:

A "Peace Plate" for Sunday

Save Wheat! Save Meat! Save the Peace!

Although it uses the thrifty cuts of meat recommended by the Citizens Food Committee, this Meat Loaf offered by the Committee's Consumer Service Section is in the prize-winning class for savory and nutritious eating. Glazed and garnished for a dressed-up Sunday touch, as suggested, it vies with any roast.

Sharing menu honors with this Peace Plate are creamed potatoes brightened by the addition of a pimiento, cut into small pieces, buttered peas or some other green vegetable, and a tossed salad of shredded raw cabbage, small wedges of unpeeled apples and chopped peanuts. For dessert, try a baked chocolate pudding or Spanish cream with chocolate sauce.

SUNDAY MEAT LOAF

1 pound veal neck or breast, ground, or chuck beef or lamb Shoulder ground
1 1/2 cups rolled oats
2 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon celery salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon powdered sage
1 cup milk
2/3 cup canned tomatoes
1/4 cup minced onion
1 egg, well-beaten
1/3 cup apple jelly
2 teaspoons hot water
Orange sections (optional)

Combine all but the last three ingredients; pack into greased loaf pan, 9x5x3 inches. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F) for one hour. Turn out onto baking pan; glaze as follows. Cook the apple jelly and hot water until smooth, then spoon some of this glaze over the loaf. Return to oven for 10 minutes longer. Remove and garnish with orange sections if desired. Spoon more glaze over orange sections and loaf. Serves 6 to 8.

1. The commercial and utility grades of beef can be used satisfactorily in making the above meat loaf.

2. Rolled oats makes a good meat stretcher for many main dishes. In today's meat loaf, oatmeal builds up the food value of the meat loaf by adding important amounts of protein, iron, and Vitamin B1, and the protein value of both meat and oatmeal is enhanced too. The oatmeal also absorbs the meat juices and improves the texture of the meat loaf.

3. Use any meat loaf left from Sunday, in sandwiches for the Monday 'Lunchboxes'. Sliced or ground and mixed with a little chili sauce or catsup, it makes a delicious sandwich filling. Or use it as stuffing in baked stuffed peppers and onions.

name will soon stand with these great artists.

Miss Addison is a native of Springfield, Mass., where she graduated from the Classical High School in 1942. Even at this early date her voice showed such promise that she received a scholarship at the Westminster Choir College in Princeton, N. J. While there she toured the country as soloist with the college choir, graduating with a Bachelor of Music degree in 1946. Since her graduation her artistry has brought her to the forefront of the younger group of concert singers. Last year she was the winner of one of ten national scholarships presented by the John Hancock Life Insurance Co., and more recently the New England winner of the $1500 Lavalle musical scholarship. She has been studying opera with Boris Goldovsky and has been selected to sing with Arthur Fiedler on the first National Bank "Sunday at 4:30" broadcast. She has scored notable successes with the Greenfield and Springfield symphony orchestras and has just returned from an appearance in Pittsburgh acclaimed by the press. Her engagement by the Highland Glee Club is largely due to the enthusiasm of one well known critic who said "I have just heard the greatest voice of all time."

The invitation to become a sponsoring member of the Glee Club is still open to all. A sponsoring membership entitles the member to two tickets each for the Fall concert December 9, and the spring concert celebrating the club's 40th anniversary on March 9. United States, Canada and especially the Newton Schools to prove the need for continued nutrition teaching.

Miss Cantoni, in the course of her talk about the Newton Nutrition Center, explained that this community service was financed by the Newton City Health Department, Newton Community Chest, Newton Red Cross Chapter, and the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association, and that the Newton Nutrition Center activities are directed by the Nutrition Committee consisting of a very interested group of Newton citizens. The different phases of Newton Nutrition Center's program were then pictorially illustrated with colorful posters.

When the question was asked, "What is the purpose and goal of the Newton Nutrition Center?" Miss Cantoni replied, "In my opinion, Newton Nutrition Center's purpose and goal is to try to improve the eating habits of all the different age groups in Newton and to teach practical nutrition principles to as many people as possible!"

Hallowe'en—

and devoted work done by every committee member and for the wonderful co-operation of city officials and civic organizations. He called particular attention to the enthusiastic support of C. Evan Johnson, Commissioner of Recreation, who spared no effort in promoting the parties and whose fine handling of a multitude of details was so largely responsible for the smooth-running efficiency of the entire organization.

In stating that "my chairmanship of the Halloween committee has been one of the happiest experiences of my life," Mr. Whitmore said he would add another. He then spoke feelingly and unstintingly of the superb work of Mrs. Ragna Hovgaard, supervisor of recreation and chairman of the program committee, in furthering these outstandingly successful Halloween parties. He emphasized the fact that Mrs. Hovgaard was one of the originators of Newton's annual Halloween celebrations and a prime motivating force in their success since their inception, seven years ago. Concluding, he presented to Mrs. Hovgaard with a beautifully inscribed sterling silver Paul Revere bowl as an expression of the regard and affection of the entire Halloween organization.

Mrs. Hovgaard, though momentarily nonplussed, expressed her warmest thanks for the gift. Typically, however, she gave other workers all the credit for the great success of the celebration and said that she felt the deepest appreciation to all 1500 members of the organization for their grand work. She added that, through several years, she had been greatly helped by the guidance of Dr. Homer Anderson, Mr. Harold Gores, Mr. Rupert C. Thompson and Mayor-elect Theodore Lockwood, among others.

Mr. C. Evan Johnson spoke in praise of the tremendous amount of detail work done by Mr. Tedesco, Miss Howard and other members of the Recreation Department, and the excellent work of everyone in any way connected with the Halloween celebration. He especially mentioned Mr. Gill, owner of Norumbega Park, who generously turned over the Totem Pole Ballroom for the Senior High Halloween dance. Mr. Johnson concluded by saying that "my greatest appreciation goes to the children of Newton for their fine help in showing how a Halloween should be enjoyed and for the splendid way they entered into the spirit of the parties."

Dr. Homer Anderson and Mr. Harold Gores respectively superintendent and assistant superintendent of schools, were thanked by Mr. Whitmore for their generous co-operation, as were, also, the Mayor and other city officials, Chief of Police Nicholas Vedeccio, Fire Chief John Keating, Mr. Rupert C. Thompson, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and E. F. Haberstroh, publicity chairman. In referring to Mr. Thompson, Mr. Whitmore stated that he played a vital part in the celebration by his administration of a successful campaign for funds solicited, for the purpose of establishing a backlog for the Halloween parties, from merchants, manufacturers and citizens.

During the meeting, last Thursday, tentative suggestions were made for the 1948 Halloween project. About 70 committee members attended and home-made apple pie, ice cream and coffee were served.

War Dead

Comprising the honor guard were William J. Maloney, Paul Postal, William Ryan, Arthur Swett, Gerald E. MacDonald, Raymond Taffe, George Parsons, Charles H. Duke, Nunzio Tempesta, Sr., Joseph L. Sullivan, Charles F. Rivers, George Kunerth, William J. Muldoon, James F. Barr, Vincent J. Tuscher, William J. Sifford, John Recco, Jr., Edward A. Puglisi, Charles B. Fagan, Anthony McLaughlin, Paul R. Kilmain, Richard F. Cleveland, William Barber, Charles H. Marden, Jr., Alfred Dezo-tell, Thomas P. Veinote, Leslie Volpe, Peter Kelley, Joseph A. Allison and Charles Pollack.

On Tuesday morning representatives of the veterans group escorted the body of Pfc. George A. Lombardi to the Soldier's Lot in the Newton Cemetery where reburial took place with Rev. Francis X. Bransfield of the Church of Our Lady officiating. A memorial mass for Pfc. Lombardi had been celebrated on November 18, the anniversary of his death. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Lombardi of 20 West street, Newton.

The veterans' detail then proceeded to the Corpus Christi Church in Auburndale where a solemn requiem mass was celebrated for Pfc. Rosario Colella by Rev. George A. Scully, assisted by Rev. Thomas F. Murphy, pastor as deacon, and Rev. John J. Whelan as sub-deacon. Reburial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham with prayers by Fr. Whelan. Pfc. Colella was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Domenic Colella of 162 Chapel street, Newton and the husband of Mrs. Josephine (Yerardi) Colella of 149 Pine street, West Newton.

It had been originally planned to meet the train at the Newtonville station but due to the two caskets having been shipped to "Newton, Mass." those directions had to be followed by the railroad authorities and this accounted for the slight delay in arrangements.

According to Veteran's Service Commissioner Edmund T. Dunagan the ceremonies conducted on Monday were intended as a tribute to all of Newton's war dead.

of Newton. Representatives of these flyers attended a meeting held in November and offered basic facts concerning the merits and problems of airplane flying. At the conclusion of the meeting the Commission expressed itself very strongly that any program instituted would be definitely of an experimental nature. They also expressed themselves as recognizing that some solution should be found for this recreational venture on the part of Newton citizens.

The Commission decided that a set of rules and a schedule of flying dates be drawn up and published in the local papers. The following rules have been formulated as protective and precautionary measures, and all flying enthusiasts agree to comply with these rules.

Flying Rules

1. Flying will be permitted on Sundays from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m., or until dark, whichever comes first.
2. All flying shall be held at the time and place designated in the schedule.
3. The flyers will assign one or two older members to assist the recreation leader at each meeting of the club.
4. No person shall be allowed to fly a model plane unless he is covered by liability insurance, in case of accident or damage.
5. Spectator control shall be the direct responsibility of the group using the premises. (It is desirable that children under 12 should be accompanied by an adult).
6. The flying area will be lined off with circle radius whenever possible.
7. All flying to be done with control lines attached.
8. The Recreation Department will provide a recreational leader for each flying exhibition. This person shall be the control officer of the group.
9. Failure of flyers to adhere to the rules laid down will result in suspension of this program.
10. The Recreation Commission reserves the right to review this program at any time, should conditions exist which would indicate that the program is not workable.

Packages for South & West Should be Mailed This Week

Postmaster Patrick J. Connolly has issued an appeal to the public to mail all of their gift parcels for the states of the Middle West and South this week for assured Christmas delivery. Packages for delivery in Arizona, California, Oregon and Washington should have been mailed last Friday, in accordance with the time-table set up by the postoffice. If such parcels have not yet been mailed it is urged recommended that they be placed in the mails immediately.

He urged that persons do their Christmas shopping now while stores have the greatest assortment of Christmas gifts and while shopping, he suggested that they drop into the local postoffice and purchase their stamps for Christmas cards and thus avoid congestion later.

The local postal Superintendent has already advised the public that regular mails are running extremely heavy and has advised the public to mail their parcels early. He recommended the early morning hours as the best time for the average individual to bring them to the postoffice and thus avoid the usual heavy crowds that come

Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Hamilton of 19 Loring street, Newton Centre, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Frances Campbell Hamilton, to Arthur Dutton Morrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Morrison of Medford.

Miss Hamilton is a former member of the Marine Corps, Women's Reserve.

Mr. Morrison was graduated from Williston Academy and served with the Marine Corps in the Pacific Area.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Gardner of Jamaica Plain have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Jean Gardner, to Eugene Catty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Olin G. Catty of 535 Auburn Street, Auburndale.

Mrs. John J. Nagle, Jr. of 170 Reservoir Road, Brookline, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Priscilla Jeanne, to Paul Vincent Healey, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Healey of 11 Waverley Place, Newton Lower Falls.

Miss Nagle is a graduate of the Bouve-Boston School and is at present teaching at Amherst. Mr. Healey served with the Navy for three years and is completing his studies at Boston College.

Herter - Conel

Miss Harriet Ames Conel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. LeRoy Conel of Newton, Mass., became the bride on November 22 of Dr. Frederic Pratt Herter, son of Congressman and Mrs. Christian A. Herter of Boston. The 4 o'clock ceremony, attended by the families and immediate friends, was performed by Dr. Arthur Lee Kinsolving in the Chapel of St. James' Church, New York City.

The bride, wearing an afternoon gown of heavy gray satin, was given away by her father. She was attended by Mrs. William J. McNicol, Jr., of Canton, Mass. The bridegroom's best man was his brother, Christian A. Herter, Jr.

Miss Conel was graduated from Smith College in 1940 and has been Congressman Herter's secretary in Washington for the past three years. Dr. Herter attended Harvard, was graduated from the Harvard Medical School in 1944, and served with the Army Medical Corps with the rank of Captain. At present he is an Assistant Resident in the Presbyterian Hospital in New York City. The couple will reside in New York City.

Following the ceremony a small reception was held at the house of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rool, 863 Park avenue.

Miss Catherine Ann DeFazio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dominic DeFazio, West street, West Medway, formerly of Howland street, became the bride of Joseph Steven Venuto Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Venuto of Auburndale, at a largely attended wedding at St. Joseph's Church, Sunday afternoon, November 16, 1947. Rev. John F. Lawler officiated at the double ring marriage ceremony. Mrs. Frank J. Manning played the wedding processional and recessional and accompanied Mary Elizabeth Manning, who sang Rosewig's Ave Maria at the conclusion of the ceremony.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a Shirley Temple gown of white satin, with sweetheart neckline and long train. Her fingertip veil, with face veil, draped from a coronet of seed pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and white orchids.

Attending as maid of honor, Miss Grace Stagliano of Watertown, was gowned in apple green taffeta, with which she wore a veiled coronet of tulle, and carried a bouquet in colonial effect combining blending chrysanthemums, outlined with satin ribbon loops, and long stemmed roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Victoria Venuto of Auburndale, sister of the groom, and Miss Doris Zaffini of Needham, wore similar gowns of orchid taffeta, and Miss Catherine DeFazio of Needham, cousin of the bride, and Miss Gertrude Wilson of Milford, were in yellow, carrying the same type bouquets as the maid of honor. Marie Venuto, sister of the groom as flower girl, wore apple green taffeta, a sweetheart hat, and carried a miniature colonial bouquet. Robert Cardullo of Dedham was ring bearer.

Francis Venuto of Auburndale was his brother's best man, and the ushers were Nicholas Fiorino of Needham, George Castano of West Newton, Joseph DeFazio and Samuel DeFazio of West Medway, brothers of the bride.

The wedding reception was held in Columbus Hall, Newton, where an orchestra provided music for dancing. A family dinner was held at the bride's home previous to the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Venuto left for a honeymoon trip to Canada and Niagara Falls, and on their return will make their home at 29 Howland street, Needham.

The bride attended Needham high school and the groom attended Newton high school.

"The Stroke of Twelve" to be Held at N.C. Meth. Church

"The Stroke of Twelve" a three act play of suspense, by Walter M. Berger, is being produced on December 12 and 13th by the Thespians of the Newton Centre Methodist Youth Fellowship. The cast of three women and three men is composed of Ruth Fonseca as Madame Oranagi, an old fashioned housekeeper; Edna Lundstrom playing the part of Ernestine Brunetta, a talkative neighbor; John Bradley, director and actor as Lloyd Branton, a blind invalid; James Palmer, the wise delivery boy, Alex Benn; Jacquelyn Temperley, as Arlene (Allie) Benn, Alex's older sister; Jim Macallister, a plainclothes detective is played by James Emmert.

The feminine lead played by "Jackie" Temperley, as Allie, a typical high school graduate, who is earning money to go to nursing school. She reads to Lloyd Branton, a seemingly cripple, played by John Bradley, who later attempts to murder her when she gets noisy. The silly chatter of Ernestine, portrayed by Edna Lundstrom, adds to the show as it progresses around the murder of the Madame, Ruth Fonseca; the foolishness of Alex, Jim Palmer; leading up to the capture of Mr. Branton by Jim Emmert as Jim Macallister.

The proceeds of the play will be for the use of the Youth Fellowship. A portion of this money will be used to help send Jacquelyn Temperley to the World-Wide Methodist Youth Conference at Cleveland, Ohio, during December 28 to January 4th. She is going as the delegate from her church and a representative of all the Methodist Churches in and around the area of Newton.

This is the first play the group has attempted, but if this one proves to be a success, they hope to produce another in the spring.

Barn Dance Planned By St. Johns Parish

An old fashioned barn dance will be held at St. John's Parish House, Newtonville, Saturday evening, November 29. Mr. Albert E. Haynes, well known dancing master of Henry Ford's Wayside Inn, Sudbury, has been engaged to call and instruct the dances.

A gay evening is promised to all and the public is invited. There will be a door prize and refreshments will be served.

Discussion Held on Veterans' Needs

A meeting was held last week at the Red Cross Chapter House to discuss the needs of the service man, the veteran, and his family in the community and in the Veterans' Hospital, and to determine whether or not there are unmet needs here in Newton.

Representing the Red Cross were the Chapter Chairman, Mr. Charles B. Floyd; Home Service Chairman, Mr. Carl F. Schipper Jr.; Co-Chairmen of Volunteer Special Services, Mrs. Leo E. Conannon and Mrs. P. Edward Eden, Chairman of Services to Camps and Hospitals, Miss Adelaide B. Ball; Mrs. Edith M. Chase, Director of Home Service, and Mrs. Frances B. Harris, Executive Director of Red Cross. The veterans were represented by Mr. Joseph L. Walsh of the United Veterans Organizations of Newton and the American Legion, and Mr. Charles F. Kirkpatrick and Mr. Vincent Tischer of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Mr. Ralph Maddocks of the Disabled American Veterans, and Mr. Arthur Swett of the Jewish War Veterans.

Following a discussion of the problems involved, it was recommended that a survey be made at Cushing Hospital in order to discover whether there are unmet needs and ways to avoid duplication of effort.

Thanksgiving Day Service at Christian Science Church

A Thanksgiving Day service will be held by First Church of Christ, Scientist of Newton, in the church edifice on Thanksgiving Day morning at 10:45 o'clock. The service was opened by the congregation singing Hymn No. 182 in the Christian Science Hymnal.

Then Mr. Wallace G. Strathern, the First Reader, read the Thanksgiving Day Proclamation by the President of the United States.

This was followed by the Scriptural selection after which the congregation united in silent prayer which was followed by the Lord's Prayer with its spiritual interpretation from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

Hymn No. 150 was then sung by the congregation.

Then followed the Lesson-Sermon especially prepared for Thanksgiving Day. The subject of this Lesson-Sermon was "Thanksgiving," and had for the Golden Text: "O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together" (Psalms 34:3).

After the responsive reading which consisted of passages taken from the Scriptures, Mrs. Ernestine M. Kyle, the Second Reader, read the citations from the Bible, while Mr. Strathern, the First Reader, read correlative passages from Science and Health.

Among the Scriptural verses was included: "In thee, O Lord, do I put my trust; let me never be ashamed: deliver me in thy righteousness (Psalms 31:1).

The following citation was among those from Science and Health: "God is not moved by the breath of praise to do more than He has already done, nor can the infinite do less than bestow all good, since He is unchanging wisdom and Love. . . . Prayer cannot change the Science of being, but it tends to bring us into harmony with it" (p. 2).

A solo "What Shall I Render Unto The Lord" by La Forge was sung by Mrs. Marion M. Haynes after the Lesson-Sermon had been concluded.

Testimonies of gratitude for healings and benefits received during the past year filled the time given to this part of the service.

The closing hymn was No. 374. The First Reader then read the "scientific statement of being" from the Christian Science textbook (p. 468), and the correlative passage from I John 3:13.

The benediction followed: "Let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful." Col. 3:15.

Similar services in observance of Thanksgiving Day were held by The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, and its branches throughout the United States.

Watertown Woman's Club

Among the students home for Thanksgiving from Smith College are Nancy Horne of Barnes road and Anne Rich of Franklin street, who brought with them as guests some of their classmates.

Church of Messiah Receives Funds

A gift of $200 for the purchase of a new carpet for the nave was presented to the Church of the Messiah, Auburndale at the recent meeting of the Tuesday evening Club. Rev. Richard P. McClintock received the gift on behalf of the church.

A contribution was also voted to assist the activities of the Young People's Fellowship.

Plans were discussed for the Parish Fair to be held Friday evening, December 5. The Tuesday Evening Club will be in charge of the Apron and Candy Tables.

Mrs. Gordon L. McCabe, club president, gave a resume of the work of the Church Home Society, a Red Feather Agency, which cares for the physical and spiritual needs of children of Episcopalian families in the Diocese of Massachusetts. The club voted to undertake its church project the furthering of the aims and ideals of this society.

Annual Teachers' Tea At N.C. Woman's Club

The Annual Teachers' Tea, given jointly by the Newton Centre School Association and the Educational Committee of the Newton Centre Woman's Club, will be held on Monday, December 1st at 4 p. m. at the Newton Centre Woman's Club. The pourers will be Mrs. Virgil Casten, president of the Newton Centre Woman's Club, Mrs. Everett Winslow, chairman of the Educational Committee of the N. C. Woman's Club, Mrs. Milton Grayson, Mrs. Garfield Drew, Miss Lillian C. Kenna and Miss Ruth Burgess. The hostesses are the members of the executive board of the N. C. School Association, of which Mrs. Dwight Colburn is president. Mrs. William P. Ripley, hospital chairman of the N. C. School Association, is in charge of the refreshments. The number of guests invited total about 150. Among those on the list are as follows:

Dr. and Mrs. Homer Anderson, Superintendent of Schools in Newton; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Churchill, Coordinator of P. T. A. Associations; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Green, Principal of Newton High; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Blaisdel, Principal of Weeks Jr. High; Miss Ruth Dority, Principal of the Mason School; Mayor and Mrs. Paul M. Goddard; Alderman and Mrs. Julian D. Anthony; Mr. and Mrs. Everett Kinckla, President of P. T. A. Council; Mr. Dwight Colburn, Representative of Council; Newton School Committee; Teachers of the Mason and Rice Schools; Miss Cora E. Riley, Newton High Advisor; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Gares; Mrs. William R. Blair, President of Mass. P. T. A. Association; Mrs. John Pitko, Director District Four.

Mothers Rest Club of Newton

The members of the Mothers' Rest Club of Newton will meet on Wednesday, December 3rd, at the home of Mrs. Horace W. Hall, 150 Ridge Avenue, Newton Center. Luncheon will be served by Mrs. William Breed, Mrs. Grosvenor Calkins, Mrs. Herman Holt Jr., Mrs. Harry M. Sutton and Mrs. Norman H. Tracy.

Members of the club will bring the many articles which they have been making during the summer for the Christmas sale to be held after lunch under the direction of Mrs. George H. Wight. The proceeds of this sale help to increase the treasury of this organization which, each summer, provides summer recreation for deserving mothers and children.

It is hoped that the veterans in the city of Newton who are interested in this project will come in to City Hall and see the display. They will be able to put their names on a tentative list to buy or rent. This list will be completed in December, so all Veterans who are looking for homes should not fail to come in and talk over the plans of this project and sign up soon.

This is the first time in the history of New England that such a project has been proposed by city planning with single dwellings. And the whole tract of land will be laid out campus style with walkways.

The success or failure of this plan depends to a great extent on the veterans themselves. The size of the proposed tract of land is set. All the land has to be bought if the project can be put into effect. That is why Aldermen Sidney H. Baylor who heads the informal committee is anxious that all interested veterans visit city hall and view the plans themselves so that they will have a thorough understanding of what is being attempted. Edmund T. Dungan, Commissioner of Veterans' Service will be in his office to discuss and explain the plans.

The exhibit will be open Tuesday and Thursday evenings, December 2, 4, 9 and 11.

To date William Howard Taft is the only President of the U. S. to later become Chief Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court.

Family Service Backs Anti- Inflation Action

In a letter to President Truman, Brooks Potter of Boston, president of the Family Service Association of America, has given the support of his organization for "prompt and adequate legislative action against further inflation at home."

The Family Service Bureau of Newton is among the 241 family service organizations throughout the country who compose the membership of the Family Service Association of America.

The Potter letter, copies of which were sent also to majority and minority leaders in Congress, had been endorsed on November 14 by the executive committee of FSAA and was made known here today by Mrs. William V. M. Pawcett, president, and Mrs. Catharine S. Holden, general secretary of the Newton agency.

"It is our considered view," Mr. Potter wrote the President, "that any further substantial advances in prices, particularly in relation to food, clothing and shelter, will result in far more acute family breakdown than has occurred up to the present time." Mr. Potter enclosed a summary of a recent survey among family service agencies indicating that high living costs were contributing substantially to the frequency of marital friction, separation, divorce and the insecurity of children.

Increasing disruption of family life, the FSAA president said, "must be weighed not merely in relation to temporarily increased public costs for health and relief but in terms of its impact upon the children of our communities."

"We believe that insecurity and hardship in American homes in any one period inevitably has its effect on national and world stability," Mr. Potter declared. "Our association, therefore, considers it of the greatest importance that the present special session of Congress act to protect family living in this country. Specifically this requires prompt and adequate legislative action against further inflation, at home. We urge and support action in this direction by the Administration and Congress."

Newton Social Science Club

On Wednesday, December 3rd, at ten o'clock the Newton Social Science Club will meet at the Hunnewell Club. Mr. Raymond A. Green, the Principal of the Newton High School, will address the members, describing the present condition of the school and his plans for its future progress. A question period will follow.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Earl P. Stevenson and Mrs. Mason H. Stone.

W. Newton Women's Educational Club

The American Home Class of the West Newton Women's Educational Club will have their Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Sydney R. Williamson, 63 Southgate Park, West Newton, on December 3. Christmas carols will be sung and there will be solos by Mrs. Harold J. Tripp. Luncheon will be served at 12:30.

Newtonville Junior Woman's Club

The Newtonville Junior Woman's Club is planning to enthusiastically support the formal dance being given by the Junior Department of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs at the Hotel Statler on December 13, 1947. Mrs. Norman Moore, who is ticket committee chairman for the Newtonville Juniors, reports that a large number of tickets have already been spoken for. Miss Theodora Klein, Program Chairman of the Newtonville Club, is chairman of the dance.

Still Time to Enroll for Course In Baby Care

There are still a few openings in the next class on Mother and Baby Care, to be given at the Red Cross Chapter House, 21 Foster street, Newtonville, during the first three weeks in December. The sessions will be held on Monday and Wednesday evenings beginning at 7:30. Designed primarily for women expecting to become mothers, it will prove invaluable to grandmothers, women who go out as "sitters" or any others who may share in the care of small babies. The Red Cross will greatly appreciate help in spreading the information about this most helpful course. Any who wish to enroll may do so by calling the Chapter at LA-7-6000.

Florence Crittenton Bazaar Dec. 2 and 3

The Newton Circle of the Florence Crittenton League will have some most attractive wares to sell at their Baby Table. Members have been sewing and knitting during the summer in preparation for this annual event.

Miss Dorothy Simpson is in charge of the table, assisted by Mrs. Winslow H. Adams, Mrs. Julius S. Kohler, Mrs. Richard L. Kenney, Mrs. Payson T. Lowell, Jr., Mrs. Halvor R. Seward, Mrs. Richard S. Morse, Mrs. F. Hopewell Underhill, Mrs. Raymond W. Tunnell and Mrs. Scott H. Wells.

On Wednesday afternoon, there will be a fashion show at 3:00 o'clock in the Ballroom "Presenting Her Highness The Bride". Miss Carolyn M. Prescott and Miss Nancy Nickerson will be bridesmaids. Their mothers, Mrs. Mortimer M. Prescott and Mrs. Robert Nickerson are both very active members of The Newton Circle.

The Florence Crittenton League maintains and operates a Maternity Home in Brighton and Welcome House, a home for adolescent girls in Jamaica Plain. Both are Red Feather Services. The proceeds from the Bazaar will go toward furthering the work of the League.

Rotary Club

Dr. Peter Shih, former Y. M. C. A. secretary in Chungking, spoke on "America and the Far East" at the meeting of the Newton Rotary Club on Monday.

Dr. Shih has been in America for ten months. His father has been a Christian minister for 51 years and during the war they entertained over 5000 American boys. He believes that forgiveness is the only answer to world peace.

"Inflation," he said, "is a serious problem in China. One dollar in American money is exchanged for $100,000 in Chinese money. The teaching group is hardest hit because professors in colleges and schools can provide only about 5 days' food for their families on their meager salaries. A Rotary luncheon in China would cost $60,000."

"The Chinese have the greatest respect for the aged and for their parents, and for the sacredness of marriage. A great deal of stress is put upon teaching the young the sacredness of marriage. A Chinese family motto is, 'Be patient, be quiet, be polite.' There are 70 million homeless in China. Communism won't work there because it is at variance with the ideals of the home."

A few family mottoes are: "It is better to light a candle than to curse the darkness"; "Be too big for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear and too happy to permit the presence of trouble"; "God gives and forgives; man gets and forgets."

Kris Kringle Bazaar At N. Highlands Cong. Church

Elaborate preparations are under way at the Newton Highlands Congregational church for the annual Kris Kringle Bazaar to be held all day Friday, December 5th, beginning at 10:00 in the morning. Mrs. Frederic Groetsma is General Chairman. Miss Elizabeth Dickerman Jones is chairman of the Christmas Greens, at which booth Christmas wreaths may be ordered to be delivered just before Christmas. Plants, herbs, gourds, colored cones, red berries, and wild bird seed are among the features of this booth.

Table arrangements for the holidays and Christmas wrappings gay and festive will be displayed by Mrs. Walter Decker and her committee. Under the direction of Mrs. Emory Wright and her committee, the So-and-Sew booth will have many delightful articles for sale, such as bags, purses, jewelry, pillow cases, towels, luncheon sets, plastic items, and many others. Gifted members of the church and their friends have been working for months on Hand Painted Articles for the booth of Mrs. E. J. Ovington and Mrs. Russell Clark and their committee.

Mrs. Frank J. Schumann and her committee have been very industrious all summer knitting sweaters, hoods, mittens, gloves, socks and scarves which may be purchased at their booth. At the Apron Booth will be found aprons large and small, practical and dressy, attractively displayed by Mrs. Dana S. Sylvester and her committee. Practical, inexpensive gifts in the form of handy, time-saving devices for your kitchen will be found in the Kitchen Gadgets Booth with Mrs. Charles H. Fisher as chairman.

Mrs. Ralph J. Simms and her committee will have Home Canned Foods for sale in their booth. Delicious home baked pies, cakes, cookies and casserole dishes may be purchased at the booth of Mrs. Ralph K. Shaw and her committee. Candy, home made, delicious, at the booth of Mrs. James R. Denning.

Mrs. Ralph A. Talby and Mrs. Allston Budgett with many helpers will preside at the White Elephant Booth. Racks of freshly starched little girls' dresses, coats, snowsuits, boys' jackets and neatly pressed trousers will feature the Thrift Shop for Children with Mrs. J. Sherrard Arch as chairman.

The Toy Shop with its display of children's toys, doll furniture, carts, wagons, etc., will be an excellent place to buy many Christmas presents.

There will be a Snack Bar at noon managed by Mrs. F. A. Trois and a Tea Room in the afternoon. Many attractions for the children in the form of grabs and movies and a nursery for small children will be delightful for them as well as their busy mothers. Mrs. James MacCauley and Mrs. Robert Foote are managing these important affairs.

Good fellowship and friendly neighborliness will prevail at the Family Style Cafeteria Dinner headed by Mrs. Francis L. Searway and her able committee, where families will gather for their evening meal to be served from 5 to 7 o'clock.

In the evening the highlight of the occasion will be a super "Home Talent Radio Show" directed by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Purpale, most of which is to be a complete surprise entertainment.

Bits From Bigelow

Bigelow Varsity Tops Warren Monday's game put Bigelow even with Warren. After playing two quarters, Bigelow failed to score, but in the third quarter Bob Shannon plunged over for a touchdown which won the game because there was no score in the last quarter. Warren used the single wing and box formation, and Bigelow used the T formation. Charles Ricci recovered a fumble and ran ten yards for Bigelow. The final score was Bigelow 6, Warren 0.

On Friday evening, November 14, eighty pupils of the Bigelow Junior High enjoyed a fine dancing party presented by the Student Patrol. A few invited guests were present. Refreshments were served later in the evening. Everybody enjoyed themselves immensely. The party was for entertainment purposes only. Refreshments and the party in general were sponsored by Kristen Swafford, Patricia McAdams, and Barbara Leonard. Mr. Baker, the advisor for the patrol, was also very active. Music was furnished by Michael Bowman, John Bibbo, and Thomas Brown, all the latest recordings being played. Tickets were printed by Charles Morrissey and sold by Justine Appleton. Chaperones were Miss Godfrey and Miss Hubbard.

Victor Ginsberg reports, "Bigelow has adopted a plan to transport pupils from the Cabot area to Bigelow. The route will start at the corner of Eastside Parkway and Cabot street at 8:12. The first stop will be at the corner of Cabot and Centre streets at 8:15. The last stop will be at the corner of Franklin and Centre at 8:18. Tickets will cost five cents. This service was asked for by the mothers, because during the bad weather of the winter months pupils living in the Cabot School area have found it extremely difficult to get to school."

The purpose of the Assembly Crew is to set up chairs and put properties on the stage. The Assembly Crew is made up of three groups, the pit crew, the stage crew, and the floor crew. The pit crew is responsible for storing the chairs under the stage in what is called the pit. The stage crew is a small group who has charge of arranging and setting up anything that is to be placed on the stage. The floor crew consists of a larger number of boys who take the chairs as they are handed from the pit and set them in their proper places. The Assembly Crew members are Charles Ricci, John Ricci, Albert Beattie, James Athy, Orren Hamblet, John Jones, Robert Larsen, Paul Herendeen, Richard Butler, Barker Boole, James McCully, Donald Livingston, Edward O'Keefe, Gordon Christensen, John Pope, and John Bibbo.

At the regular Monday meeting of the Student Council the committee which had been appointed to see Miss Hubbard, music director, about the assembly music reported that the orchestra would play at the next assembly on Tuesday, November 25, 1947.

The discussion concerning the matter of noise in the cafeteria was reopened, and the Council members were asked to find an answer by questioning the homeroom pupils.

The Council representatives were also asked to find out if the students wish to have a school newspaper or magazine and if so, how it is to be handled. The question: "What are the duties of the class officers?" will also be taken to the homerooms.

Boys' Squad Leaders in physical education elected a president this week. We had three candidates from Grade 9. They were Daniel Coffey, John Bibbo, and Barkey Boole. Daniel Coffey received the most votes. We have another officer, our representative. He is Donald Quinlan. His job is to represent the squad leaders. If a meeting should be held for the various clubs of Bigelow, he would represent us.

Charles Cocotas reports from Boys' Glee Club, "When we go to glee club, Miss Hubbard takes attendance, and then we sing. Some of the songs are 'There's A Lone Star', 'Play Up, Play Up the Game', 'The Whiffenpoof Song', 'Sweet and Low', 'When Morning Glows the Skies', and 'All Through the Night'."

Wednesday, October 19, was a big day for the eighth and ninth grade girls at Bigelow. The four junior high schools met at Warren Junior High to play for the field hockey championship. At Bigelow the girls' instructor, Miss Virginia C. Godfrey, organized four teams, two from the eighth and two from the ninth. In the eighth grade she picked two teams called A and B; it was the same in the ninth grade. The teams were made up of girls who had participated in after school sports. In the eighth grade, Team A tied all games; Team B lost all games. Team A in the ninth grade were deadlocked in all their games, and Team B won one and tied two. The final results were F. A. Day 41 points, Weeks, 39 points; Warren and Bigelow were tied with 26 points.

Toby Lunder

Donald French reports, "The week of November 17-24 is celebrated by libraries and school as Book Week. The pupils of Bigelow were asked to donate books and other reading material. By Wednesday there were eighteen contributions. No book is accepted unless it is on a credited book list. The auction last year added twelve new books to the library shelves. Among these are 'Luther Burbank', 'Daniel Boone', 'Red Horse Hill', 'Bob, Son of Battle'."

Last Friday, the 14th, wound up the Red Cross Enrollment Drive. Posters to encourage the Drive, other than one issued by the Chapter House, were planned. Room 118 and 213 have fought for the highest amount of money, and it looked very much like a toss-up. Before school Friday, 213 was leading by a hair and their prospects looked good. However, at the close of school a few 118 contributions came in, and the score stood 118, $13.13, 213, $12.83. The school closed with a total of $76.79. This is a fair record of contributions since our enrollment is only 312.

At the last meeting the girls in Leader Corps got the equipment ready for a field hockey play day at Warren Junior High School. We taped the hockey sticks and put the shinguards together. This shows that Leader Corps is a good organization, and it helps Miss Godfrey with a lot of work. We have been progressing nicely in gym classes, and everyone knows their duties and performs them well.

F. A. Day Jr. High 'News of the Day'

Dr. Homer Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Russell V. Burkhardt, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Morse were guests at a Thanksgiving Dinner planned and executed by a cooking group under the direction of Miss Joanne Bonin. Joan Quinn, John Luciano, Fred Carver, Beverly Schade, Ernest Incurvati, Linda Doll, Rose Schilone, Richard Corner, Lillian Perruzzi, Barbara Anastasia, Alice Murphy, Phyllis Murphy, Marguerite Schneider, Suzanne Johnson, Jay Lewis, Ann Barber, Jay Smith, Gordon Hebb and Mary Luciano made up the group who planned, prepared, and served the dinner.

The organization of the seventh grade took place under the supervision of Miss Helen Spelman and Mr. Walter Sears. Anthony Bibbo was elected president, Patricia Hood was chosen vice president, Judith MacCreedy was elected secretary, and Richard Swartz was chosen treasurer. Anna DeLuca, Robert Battista, John Luciano, John Lee, Ivy Morrison and Sandra MacDougall of Grade Eight supervised the election.

Plans for the twenty-fifth anniversary celebration to be held on Friday, December 5th are going forward rapidly. The decorations for the afternoon tea and reception is being done by Eastman's Flower Shop while Luane's is doing the decorating for the evening program. The general public is invited in the evening only, the afternoon reception being for former teachers, alumni, and special guests. Mr. Jobs, the newly elected president of the Day Parent Teachers' Association has been in touch with the committee for the program. Mrs. Maurice Strauss, Mrs. Arthur Arcese, and Mrs. Thomas Cleveland make up the P.T.A. steering committee and have been active in planning for the affair.

The final football games of the season were played last week, the Day teams meeting Weeks at Weeks on Monday and Warren on Friday. The Weeks heavyweights overcame the Day team by a score of six to nothing in a well played game while the Day lightweight won by virtue of a touchdown pass from DePasquale to Corner and an automatic safety making the final score 8 to 0. In the final game of the year the Day heavyweight team overcame a stubborn Warren defense on a sustained march which ended in DePasquale going over from the three yard line for the only score of the game. The lightweight of Day landed on the top of the heap by virtue of a 6 to 0 win, over Warren. Again it was a DePasquale to Corner pass that resulted in the score. The official lineup of the heavyweight team follows: Carnahan, L.E.; Corner, L.E.; Mastromattelli, L.T.; Nazzaro, L.T.; Nazzaro, L.T.; Hayes, L.T.; Luciano, L.G.; Crosby, C.; Welch, R.G.; Sullivan, R.T.; Bondi, R.T.; Rowlands, R.E.; Shaw, R.E.; DePasquale, Q.B.; Lee, L.H.B.; Colella, R.H.B.; McCullough, R.H.B.; Ruff, L.H.B.

On Wednesday, November 19, Day girls attended a field hockey play day held at the Warren Junior High School. First and second teams from grades 8 and 9 competed. Each team played 12 minute games against the other schools, Bigelow, Weeks, and Warren in turn. Games were scored 5 points for winning, 3 for tie. After our very nice hostesses at the Warren served refreshments we were further revived by the scores. Bigelow and Weeks tied with 26 points. Warren had 39, and Day won with 41 points! The teams were as follows: 9th Grade Team I—Nancy Keene, Mary Costanzo, Rita Magnarelli, Barbara Anastasia, Barbara Kollmyer, Gladys Harrison, Jane Wallace, Jeanette Costa, Elizabeth White, Nancy Hood, Rita Farna. 9th Grade Team II—Joan Sevigny, Muriel LaFlamme, Alice Murphy, Dawn MacDougall, Ann Underhill, Elaine Radway, Dorothy Caffrelli, Irene Farna, Sylvia Bumpus, Cynthia Waterhouse, Lois Patterson. 8th Grade Team I—Sandra MacDougall, Barbara Valetti, Betty Todd, Gloria Ganss, Priscilla Hogsett, Shirley Jennings, Helen Dhiomis, Rita DiGregorio, Gloria DeMarco, Phyllis Murphy, Joan Quinn. 8th Grade Team II—Charlotte Barbo, Barbara Atkinson, Beverly Schade, Constance Leone, Mary Luciano, Carmella Mazzola, Catherine Hough, Constance Brown, Margaret Pope, Barbara Hacsunda.

Newton In The Past

55 Years Ago, Nov. 26, 1892
WEST NEWTON—Mrs. Dr. Thayer narrowly escaped the misfortune of losing a valuable gold watch recently in Boston. While standing before one of the stores on Washington street, she felt it violently wrested from her side. Fortunately, a police officer happened to be passing on a street car, and hearing her call for aid, alighted, and made pursuit of a man who was making flight through the crowd, arresting him with the watch in his grasp.

AUBURNDALE—The Newton Rubber Co's new office is nearly finished.

Our streets are undergoing their annual fall cleaning at the hands of the highway department.

NEWTON LOWER FALLS—Mr. Levi Wales' horse attached to a light wagon ran away Tuesday morning on the hill above the station. The wagon and harness were damaged slightly.

50 Years Ago, Nov. 26, 1897
NEWTON—Patrolman Charles R. Young has been transferred from the mounted squad to night duty at Newton. He will cover the route previously patrolled by Patrolman McAleer, who is now detailed in the mounted squad.

The total of the Hospital Sunday collection is said to have been about $6000, but this may be increased by later contributions.

Special Features
Buyers of next Sunday's Boston Journal will receive the New England Illustrated Home Magazine, and the illustrated weekly will be printed in colors, with pictures of Cleo deMerode, Anna Held, and other stage favorites, Mark Twain and other celebrities.

50 Years Ago, Nov. 26, 1897
NEWTONVILLE—About 10:30 o'clock last Friday evening an alarm was rung in from box 261 for a fire in the highway surveyor's shanty near Bullough's pond. The shanty, being a light board structure, was almost totally destroyed. The cause of the fire is unknown, but is supposed to be of incendiary origin.

NEWTON LOWER FALLS—Part of the sewer is done to the turning point at the hose station where the course is to be directed across Wales street, and follow the river to Upper Falls.

35 Years Ago, Nov. 29, 1912
On Thursday afternoon a reception was held at the technical High School for the mothers of the girls of the Extra-Technical Department. Mrs. Eva White of the State Board of Education was present and explained the new phases of work in "Home Making."

NEWTON—The alarm from box 123 last Friday morning was for a slight fire in the residence of Mr. Harry D. Smith on Grasmere street, caused by children and matches.

NEWTON CENTRE—The Farther Lights will give an evening of unequally Illustrated Songs and Readings next Thursday in the chapel of the First Baptist Church.

NEWTON—Mr. Lillie of the Taylor Building while on a hunting trip to South Wendon, Vt., last week, shot a deer, which arrived recently by express, and his friends are awaiting an invitation to dine.

DEATHS

ALLEN—On Nov. 20 at Boston, Elizabeth Curry Allen, widow of Chauncey Burton Allen, formerly of Newton.

RECENT DEATHS

C. Burton Cotting

C. Burton Cotting, a resident of Newton for many years, died on Monday, November 17, at his home, 3 Brigham Street, Watertown.

Mr. Cotting was in his 73rd year. He was born in Medford and educated in the Newton Schools. A resident of Newton the greater part of his life, he moved to Watertown about six months ago. For 35 years he was associated with the firm of White, Weld & Company.

He was a member of Fraternity Lodge, A.F. & A.M., Newton Chapter, B.P.O.E., and of the Bank Officers' Association of Boston.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Marion Cotting, a daughter, Lorraine of Watertown and two sons, Duncan Cotting of Natick and Roger Cotting of Dover, New Hampshire.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at Cemetery Chapel.

Harry E. Bryant

Harry E. Bryant, former member of the Newton School Committee, died on Thursday, November 20, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ralph H. Nodine, 22 Prescott Street, Newtonville.

Mr. Bryant was in his 76th year. He was born in Saco, Me., and was graduated in 1892 from Bowdoin College. He taught at the Boston English High School for 30 years, retiring in 1942. He also taught at the Marshfield High School and was principal of the Sanford and Eastport, Me., high schools.

For 26 years Mr. Bryant served as secretary of Fraternity Lodge of Masons in Newtonville and was a past master of the Lodge.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 at the Newton Cemetery Chapel.

Elizabeth C. Allen

Funeral services were held in the Eliot Congregational Church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 for Mrs. Elizabeth Curry Allen, widow of Chauncey Burton Allen, Rev. Ray A. Eusden, D.D., officiated. Burial was private.

Mrs. Allen, a native of Newton, was for more than 30 years corresponding secretary of the New England Conservatory of Music. From 1900 to 1945 she was secretary of the Conservatory Benefit Society and since 1921 she was secretary of the Padewski Fund for American Composers.

Disaster Services Confer

A meeting was held at the Red Cross Chapter House on Wednesday evening, November 19, to review and check on the disaster services of the city. Two hypothetical disasters were described in detail. In attendance were the various chairmen who would be responsible for all functioning groups in time of disaster.

By means of open discussion, Newton's entire disaster plan was put to the test. Recommendations were made for the strengthening of the few weak spots which showed up.

Such constant vigilance on the part of Newton's disaster committees makes for a feeling of security on the part of Newton citizens. The city may take pride also in its well-equipped disaster supply closet which is in constant readiness.

Junior Red Cross Receives Overseas Thank-Yous

Members of the Junior Red Cross in Newton have received a number of thank-you letters from school children in Finland. These were written in appreciation of Christmas gift boxes sent to Europe last year. To quote from a typical letter:

"Our nicest greetings to you over the waters and oceans in the form of this note paper, to you kind American aunts and children who have remembered us in this cold northland, by arranging to send those packages to our school children including toys and articles which help us to do our studies and spend our Christmas holidays. Even we two sisters, 12 year old Katri who is in the third grade and 8 year old Silri who is in the first grade in school, received such a package to our combined joy and for which we wish to express our many, many hearty thanks. We hope you the best of health and God's blessings and may you continue to have a warm and good heart, not only toward us but toward all other peoples who suffer. We will leave you now in the hope that your good work will continue and we extend our best wishes for the year 1947. Our sincere thanks and regards."

The boys and girls of the Newton schools are again packing gift boxes for shipment overseas. These packages contain toilet articles, school supplies and toys or games.

This is the time of year when the juniors are busy also with the making of nut cups and favors for hospitalized veterans. The children have been invited to help at Cushing Hospital during the holiday season with the arranging of the little gifts on the men's trays.

The Junior Red Cross is now holding its annual membership campaign. Newton children always enroll one hundred per cent, and it is expected that 1947 will prove no exception.

The recently organized Inter-school Council is holding regular monthly meetings at the Red Cross Chapter House in Newtonville. The following schools send delegates: Bigelow, Frank A. Day, Levi F. Warren, and the John W. Weeks Junior High Schools, Fessenden School, Country Day School of the Sacred Heart, Our Lady, Help of Christians' High School, Sacred Heart School, and the School of St. John the Evangelist. The Council is in the process of shaping up its own by-laws for consideration by the whole group. Members of the Council have the benefit of becoming acquainted with students from other school groups, and December 8, Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, the Newton Centre Woman's Club will again welcome as guests, members of the many woman's clubs of Newton. The occasion is the second Newton morning musicale, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Herbert J. Ham, and sponsored by the nurses' committee of the club. Among the guests of honor will be Mrs. Ernest A. Hale of Waban, 12th district director of the Massachusetts State Federation of Woman's Clubs.

The Boston University choral art society will be heard, under the direction of its distinguished founder and conductor, Dr. H. Augustine Smith, professor and head of the Department of Church Music at the university. A resident of Newton Highlands, Dr. Smith has traveled approximately 1,000,000 miles as lecturer and festival director in over 30 colleges and universities and in 1250 cities on four continents.

The University Choral Art Society is considered second to none in the United States today and has in its short decade, traveled over 25,000 miles, and has achieved superb acclaim from Washington, D. C., critics and others during its 25,000-mile March tour of 1947.

Assisting Mrs. Ham are Mrs. John W. Merrill and Mrs. Harold R. Keller, co-chairmen of the Silver Coffee, which precedes the program; Mrs. Walter H. Bird, secretary; Mrs. David W. Skinner, treasurer; Mrs. Melville D. Lanning, chairman of hostesses; Mrs. Billings Harris, chairman of publicity. Further notice of the program and committees will be given next week.

Fashion Show at Newton Centre Woman's Club Bazaar

A Fashion Show will open the Bazaar at 10 a.m. Thursday morning, December 4th at the Newton Centre Woman's Club. Dresses will be shown by Newton's Inc. and the hats will be by The Crescent Shop.

Mrs. James Mitchell, Chairman will be assisted by Mrs. Lloyd S. Clark, Mrs. Melville D. Lanning and Mrs. Louis F. Billings. Mrs. Harold R. Jaques at the piano. The models will be, Mrs. Norman M. Appleyard, Mrs. John Hanks, Mrs. Harold R. Keller, Mrs. Madeline C. MacPherson, Miss Joan Mitchell, Mrs. Harry E. Moore, Mrs. Walter N. Murray, Mrs. John H. Nichols Jr., Mrs. Dorothy Curran, and Mrs. David W. Skinner.

Tisdell—

ing, November 20, at their Auburndale home.

Some forty-two guests were present to drink a wedding toast to the British princess and to sing "There'll Always Be an England." With the composer at the piano, and Winslow Clark Witter Tisdell playing the clarinet, Miss Laurel Hansford Whittier Tisdell sang "Little Irish Sweetheart of Mine," which Mr. Tisdell wrote for his then fiancée in their student days at Columbia, Mo.

For this anniversary party, potted yellow chrysanthemums and tall yellow and orange candles in pewter candlesticks were used as table decorations, representing the University of Missouri's gold and black, decorations, with other candles of green and gold for Roxbury High School, and red and white for Boston University. British pictures occupied a place of honor and numerous coronation souvenirs dating from 1902, together with family and school and college mementoes carried out the decoration theme.

Besides the couple's mothers, Mrs. Clark T. Tisdell, Boston, and Mrs. Robert A. Whittier, West Roxbury, there were numerous guests from the Newtons, including Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Hitchen, Dr. and Mrs. Hugh L. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Sziklas, Mrs. Fred Steeves, Mrs. Ira S. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Plotkin, Lanning Humphrey, Mrs. Victor M. Hetherston, Mrs. William H. Cartwright Sr. and Prof. and Mrs. William H. Cartwright; also Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Allen, Dorchester, formerly of Newtonville. Other guests were present from Boston, West Roxbury, Needham, Belmont, Cambridge, Melrose, Westboro and Lynn.

William L. Tisdell of Muskogee, Okla., and Florence E. Whittier of Boston were married Nov. 20, 1922 at The Columns, University of Missouri, with their senior "Column" pins fashioned into wedding rings. Both are graduates of the University of Missouri School of Journalism. Miss Whittier was city editor of the Mexico (Mo.) Intelligencer at the time of their marriage and Mr. Tisdell was a senior in the College of Arts and Science, University of Missouri. They have since done newspaper work in Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas, Colorado and since 1925, in Massachusetts. Mr. Tisdell has been on the

'Bull Fight' Features Pack 23 Meeting

Pack 23 of Newton Lower Falls held its November pack meeting on November 18 in the kindergarten of the Hamilton School at 7:30 p.m. About thirty-five parents were present, and this number was supplemented by friends of the cubs, and guests. A new cub welcoming song was led by Mr. Dooley, pack committee treasurer.

Mr. Herbert Reed, cubmaster, gave out wolf awards to the following boys: Richard Dumais, Peter Downing, and Richard Emmetts. Tommy Dooley was awarded the top-ranking award in cubbing, the Webelos. In this connection the cubmaster conducted the traditional candle-light ceremony in which both Mr. and Mrs. Dooley participated. Tommy was then introduced to Scouting by Mr. Louis Vassalotti, the new scoutmaster for Troop 24.

David Reed was awarded a golden arrow in the wolf rank. His contribution to the pack display consisted of a miniature De Witt Clinton train and a wireless set. Also on display were Mexican pottery, varicolored graduated cans to be used as toys, clay sculpture, scrapbooks, and books on Mexican lore.

A new bobcat was welcomed into the pack—Jackie Daniels of 142 Pine Grove avenue, and both his parents took part in the brief investiture ceremony that followed.

The cubmaster again explained the ranks of cubbing and urged all parents of cubs to help their sons pass the required achievements.

Resounding cheers greeted the presentation of a beautiful pack flag to Pack 23 by Mr. Vassalotti who has been acting as assistant cubmaster this Fall. The program for the evening, following the theme of "Old Mexico," was supervised by Mrs. Virginia Vassalotti, den mother of Den 2. To the accompaniment of music and fanfare, Bobby Henley, the colorful matador, heralded the approach of the maddened "bull" (Lawrence Morrison and James Jerome). The terrific onslaughts of the "bull" were no match, however, for the wily matador, and in less than three minutes, El Furiioso went down to ignominious defeat. Cries of "bravo" and "bravissimo" were heard in the tremendous ovation that followed!

In lighter vein, but none the less lively, was the Mexican Hat Dance performed by Guy Vassalotti as the Senorita Rosita, attended by Charles Morse, and Stephen and Robert Madden as Carlos, Pedro, and Roberto respectively. After the program parents and friends viewed the splendid exhibit which incorporated the work of Dens 1, 2, and 3.

The next pack meeting will be in charge of Den 3, supervised by Mrs. Roger Loring, and will be built around the Christmas theme, "Helps and Gives."

Boston Globe staff for twenty-one years. Still using her maiden name professionally, Florence E. Whittier was formerly assistant to the dramatic editor, Boston Advertiser, then a book reviewer for the Boston Transcript and of recent years for the Boston Globe. Mr. Tisdell served two years during the war with the Office of War Information. Following their twenty-fifth anniversary celebration, Mr. and Mrs. Tisdell drove to New Hampshire to spend the week-end at The Ark in Jeffrey in the Monadnock region.

WHEN NEW NUMBERING PLAN BEGINS...

Temporary Number Plate Should Be Removed From DIAL Telephones

On the day you get your new Boston telephone directory—(your notice to convert to the new numbering plan) the first thing you should do is remove the temporary red and white number plate from your dial telephone and begin using the new number which is on the permanent black and white plate.

Removing the old plate is a simple matter... a finger nail or a nail file will do the trick.

Remember... the black and white plate carries your new number. It's the one to use when giving your number to the operator on a long distance call—or when telling friends your number.
